Gem films raise questions

(Editor's note: This is the first of several dispatches about award of motion picture contracts by state agencies.)

By RICHARD CHARNOCK and GEORGE FRANK

BOISE (UPI) — There are two things, according to Press Secretary John Hough, that Gov. Cecil D. Andrus wants to avoid — wrongdoing and the appearance of wrongdoing.

Recently, Hough called in a reporter from United Press International to say that while the administration was "doing" nothing wrong it might have the "appearance" of doing something wrong. He wanted to correct what he said might be an erroneous impression.

He was concerned because of grapevine reports about inquiries being made by UPI and another news organization in Boise into the award of motion picture contracts by the state.

UPI has looked into award of film contracts by some state agencies, asking state officials about their actions and requesting copies of contracts they have signed.

These reporters found absolutely no evidence of any illegal actions by any state officials or private individuals. However, some of the actions taken and the lack of guidelines for film-making raised a number of questions.

Some contracts were awarded without bid and one was given to a high bidder. One contract was awarded by an official who used to be the roommate of the man with whom the contract was signed.

A former appointee of the Andrus administration solicited film business — sometimes obtaining it without bid — from agencies directly under the governor. One official said he later was warned by an Andrus' staffer about a possible "conflict of interest."

Another agency spent more than $10,000 in federal funds for a film it ordered to "inform the legislature" about one of its programs and then never showed it to the legislature.

First snow

APPEARING DESERTED, Twin Falls City Park is mantled more than an inch of heavy, wet snow which swirled down Saturday afternoon. It was still snowing briskly at midafternoon when this photo was taken. The snow was the first of the autumn in Magic Valley, and many youngsters promptly began tossing snowballs. Hunters and travellers were advised locally heavy snows are likely in mountainous central Idaho and western Montana.

Sign Tuesday, Hanoi insists

By United Press International

French and Communist diplomatic sources in Paris said Saturday that U.S. Secretary of State William P. Rogers is expected to fly to Paris to sign the cease-fire agreement with North Vietnam. The Viet Cong joined Hanoi in insisting the accord be signed Tuesday and promised there would be no reprisals after the war.

In Washington, the State department said it had no comment on the Paris report. But diplomatic sources said it would be logical for Rogers to go since such an agreement would be signed by an official below presidential rank.

The Washington sources added however that the United States does not consider the draft treaty ready for signing yet and said Rogers was still in Washington with no immediate plans to leave.

In Paris the diplomatic sources also said the United States, Russia, Britain, France, China and North and South Vietnam had agreed to take part in an international conference on Vietnam in the French capital about a month after a cease-fire.

One of the main purposes of the conference would be to set up an international control commission to police the cease-fire under the terms of the draft peace agreement between the United States and North Vietnam.

In Saigon, President Nguyen Van Thieu, who says there will be no peace agreement without his accord, was reported sending his chief ambassadors on a tour of Asian countries in an effort to convince their leaders he is "not an obstacle to peace," Vietnamese sources said.

But South Vietnam's Radio Saigon said the Comuunist peace proposal was simply a move to get American troops out of Vietnam so they could attack the South again later

Viet battle pace rises

SAIGON (UPI) — Scattered Communist attacks soared to their highest level in five years Sunday, South Vietnamese military spokesmen said, as both sides intensified their struggle for control of population centers before a cease-fire could be called.

The Saigon command said the Communists initiated 138 shellings, ground attacks and terrorist incidents in the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. Sunday —14 more than the previous record 124 staged day before yesterday and the highest recorded since the Tet offensive of 1968.

Communist troops captured at least 12 hamlets within 40 miles of Saigon Saturday but South Vietnamese recaptured seven of them by Sunday morning. One of the hamlets still partly in Communist hands is only 10 miles northwest of the capital.

Forty miles east of Saigon, South Vietnamese troops reported 46 Communists killed in the recapture of two hamlets. Government losses were put at four killed and 10 wounded.

In the upsurge of fighting in the Central Highlands, a South Vietnamese Ranger platoon was driven off when it assaulted the northeastern crest of the three hills comprising the Ben Het base camp which was overrun by the Communists two weeks ago.

Ben Het is 300 miles north of Saigon. According to field reports, about 30 Rangers attacked shortly before noon Saturday but immediately came under heavy mortar and recoilless rifle fire. Two Rangers were reported wounded.

Vietnamese Air Force propeller-driven A1 Skyraiders bombed the Communist guns. But 30 minutes after the attack began, the Rangers were taken out by helicopter.

In a delayed report, a spokesman said a South Vietnamese infantry company, about 120 men, was driven off its base seven miles northwest of Kontum on Highway 14 Friday. The unit retreated to a base closer to Kontum.

It was at least the second base screening Kontum to be lost in the past week. Kontum is 30 miles south of Ben Het and 260 miles north of Saigon.

Noise ban bill, 43 more signed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon signed 44 bills Saturday, including the first federal controls on noise pollution and hazardous household products, but delayed action on a costly election-year boost in Social Security and welfare benefits.

The White House gave no hint when Nixon would decide to sign or veto the big $5.4 billion Social Security Bill, one of 62 measures he left behind on his desk for a one-day campaign tour of northern Ohio and Michigan.

Before his departure in late morning, Nixon announced he had signed legislation creating an independent, five-member regulatory agency to set and enforce safety standards "designed to eliminate unreasonable risk of injury or death" from use of household consumer products, which kill an estimated 30,000 Americans and injure another 20 million each year.

The $178 million, three-year measure authorizes the presidentially appointed commission to issue mandatory safety standards governing the use, design, labeling and performance of products not already subject to federal regulation.

Aide's father dies in Blaine collision

HAILEY — Preliminary findings indicate Joe Cenarrusa, 83, Hailey, died as a result of injuries received in an automobile accident.

Cenarrusa, father of Secretary of State Pete Cenarrusa, was pronounced dead on arrival at the Blaine County Hospital, Hailey, at about 11:40 a.m. Friday after his vehicle collided with the rear end of a parked sheep trailer rig, in north Hailey.

According to Hailey Police Chief Roy Evans, autopsy results will determine whether the elder Cenarrusa suffered a heart attack prior to the accident.

Evans said Saturday county coroner Dr. Robert Gwinner told him final test results of the autopsy, conducted Saturday morning at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital, Twin Falls, will be available in about two weeks.

The accident occurred about 11:30 a.m. near the intersection of Myrtle Street and U. S. Highway 93.

Japan sets exports lid

TOKYO (UPI) — Japan will impose export controls on a wide range of consumer goods items by Nov. 10 in an effort to head off another revaluation of the yen, the Ministry of International Trade said Saturday.

The list includes cameras, radios, automobile parts and a number of industrial items, including electric motors, electric generators and transformers.

A ministry spokesman said controls will be carried out by voluntary arrangements made by manufacturers, if they can reach agreement.

If not, they will be imposed by the government, the ministry said. It was expected this course would be taken in most cases, because of the difficulty in getting manufacturers to agree on market shares.

Japan, whose official reserves of gold and foreign currency now have crossed the $17 billion mark, is under heavy pressure by the United States and other countries to revalue the yen.

About half a billion U.S. dollars were traded for yen on the Tokyo foreign exchange market last week, in anticipation of a rise in the yen's price.

Japan's growing reserves result in large part from a foreign trade surplus which may go as high as $9 billion this year.

Latin dope link smashed

PARIS (UPI) — President Nixon's top narcotics agent, Nelson Gross, said Saturday police around the world have smashed a multi-million dollar drugs network known as the "Latin American connection" which supplied almost a third of the U.S. consumption of heroin.

He said the previously unannounced crackdown, which involved the killing of a top leader, has resulted in a dramatic shortage of heroin on the American eastern seaboard and a steep rise in the price of narcotics.

"The conspiracy accounted for almost a third of the annual U. S. consumption of heroin," Gross said.

"By breaking this underworld ring, police have dealt the Latin American connection a deadly blow from which it might never recover."

Gross, who is senior adviser and coordinator for international narcotics matters in the United States, told newsmen the connection started in Marseille in Southern France.

Drugs were ferried from there by plane, boat and auto to South America where they were moved across the Mexican border into the United States.

"This was a cooperative effort involving the French and American police and anti-narcotics agencies from other countries", Gross said.

Gross said the break in the case came last Feb. 5 in La Paz, Bolivia, when suspicious hotel employes called police attention to five French-speaking guests, including two women. Law officers found the group was travelling with false documents and one had $336,000 dollars hidden in a false-bottomed suitcase.

He said this action led to these events:

—Paul Karamian was extradited to the United States where he is awaiting trial.

—Lucien Sarti, wanted in France on murder charges, was killed in a shootout with police in Mexico.

—Jean Paul Angeletti, also wanted in France on murder charges, was extradited to France, where he is detained.

—Renzo Rogai, wanted by Italian police, was extradited to Italy.

—Joseph Sereni was arrested in Venezuela with 35 pounds of heroin.

—Francis Chiappi, an alleged murderer, and 32 traffickers were arrested in Argentina and 99 pounds of heroin confiscated.

—Christian David, wanted in France on murder charges, was arrested in Rio de Janeiro when 60 kilos of heroin were seized in a boat.

—On Aug. 8, August Riccord, alleged leader of the network, was arrested in Paraguay and extradited to New York, where he is in jail.

In Lima Saturday Peruvian Investigative Police (PIP) announced they had broken up seven gangs of drug smugglers responsible for $10 million in illegal drug traffic.

A PIP statement said they had arrested 55 persons, including two Americans, four Chileans and one Colombian during the last four months.

The statement added that the seven gangs they had sold almost one and a half tons of cocaine valued at approximately $10 million.

Cenarrusa death probe continues

Evens said a driver of one sheep truck, Darwin Pugmire, Hagerman, was standing beside the driver's door of a second truck-trailer rig, parked off the west side of the highway, and was talking to its driver, Leigh Rollis, Hagerman.

Pugmire said he saw Cenarrusa approaching south along the highway at a speed he estimated in excess of 70 miles per hour and that he ran to the opposite side of the highway.

Evans said the Cenarrusa vehicle drifted to the west side of the highway, and collided with the left rear end of the Rollis trailer, moving it south about 28 feet.

Cenarrusa was pinned beneath the steering wheel of his behicle. Evans said that Cenarrusa had no external signs of injury.

Normally a slow driver, Cenarrusa wore corrective lenses and had a restricted license for daylight driving only, Evans said.

Several sheep, owned by Salmon Falls Sheep Company, contained in the rig were killed outright or had to be destroyed. Cenarrusa's 1962 vehicle was totally destroyed, with the trailer rig — owned by Cady Auto Hagerman — sustaining $10,000 damage.

Cenarrusa's body was taken to Bird Funeral Home, Hailey.

Noise lid OK'd

These include aircraft, motor vehicles, food, drugs, cosmetics, pesticides and firearms.

The commission will be empowered to recall, seize or ban hazardous products, order refunds to consumers and seek stiff fines or prison terms for manufacturers or distributors who wilfully violate the law.

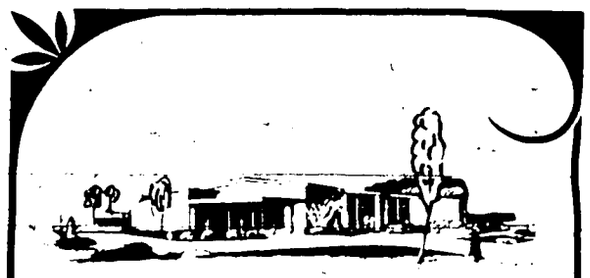

To combat the "invisible pollution" of noise, the other major bill signed Saturday would give the Environmental Protection Agency $24 million over three years to set and enforce acceptable noise levels for a host of products, from jetliners to jackhammers and dishwashers to dump trucks.

The categories covered would embrace nearly every noise-making product, except exemptions expected for competitive racing vehicles and church bells and carillons. Electric and Electronic household appliances would be labeled according to noise emission levels.

A controversy over aircraft was resolved by a congressional compromise giving the Federal Aviation Administration, which presently has full jurisdiction over plane noise, power to modify, accept or reject proposed EPA noise standards in that area.

Among other bills signed Saturday were provisions for:

TF blood drawing slated for Nov. 6

The quota for the drawing has been set at 150 pints. Robert H. Lister will be the attending physician.

The blood program is a joint service of the Red Cross, the medical profession and hospitals. It provides almost half of the blood used in civilian hospitals throughout the nation according to Red Cross officials.

The Red Cross also operates a rare blood donor registry that assists in providing blood of unusual types.

Other benefits of the blood program include Red Cross research on technique and equipment, the availability of vaccinia immune globulin or large amounts of gamma globulin, according to officials of the Red Cross.

Victims of major disasters benefit by having their blood needs met.

Blood is collected in regional centers and by blood mobiles equipped and staffed to set up blood collection stations. It is then processed for distribution to hospitals for use as whole blood, components and plasma, according to a news release from the Twin Falls chapter of the American Red Cross.

Voter services go fulltime

The league's office in the Boy Scout building, 164 Main Ave. N., will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each week day until election to assist voters.

Ella Nelson, league president in Twin Falls, said persons may call or visit the office to obtain information about their registration, where and how to register, about their precinct polling places, or for information on the proposed constitutional amendments or non-partisan information on the candidates.

She said information may be obtained by calling 734-5680. The office will be assisting the county clerk's staff with providing voter information in the hope of lightening the load for the clerk and his assistants during the busy pre-election days.

Wins trophy

FOR SECOND YEAR, Washington Elementary School has won the United Fund traveling trophy for the most outstanding per capita donations of any Twin Falls school. Mary Helen Perry, principal, accepts the award from United Fund Chairman Fred Frazier during report luncheon.

McClure talks to alumni at U. of I. homecoming

By United Press International

Americans probably view education in a more serious light than almost any other single factor in their child-rearing responsibilities, Republican senatorial candidate James A. McClure said in Moscow Saturday.

Speaking to fellow alumni of the University of Idaho at homecoming activities, McClure said federal aid to education began modestly in post-World War II years and has now grown to a $20-Billion federal program over the next three years.

"Congress has tried its best to leave decisions as to curriculum on the local level, but it is inevitable that some politicians would see these vast federal expenditures as a means of instilling in the youth of our country their own particular philosophies and opinions," the Idaho Republican said.

In Pocatello, Second Congressional District Democrat candidate Willis Ludlow said Saturday that his opponent, incumbent Orval Hansen, has "utterly and completely" failed to address himself to the problems faced by scientists and employees at the national reactor testing station outside Idaho Falls.

Ed Williams, First District Congressional candidate, Saturday charged his opponent Steve Symms with running an "I'm against it myself but if you're for it then I'll hedge the issue" kind of campaign.

"It's becoming obvious," Williams said, "that most of steve Symms' stands taken before the primary are highly unpopular with the people of the district.

TF United Fund over halfway

TWIN FALLS — Contributions to the Twin Falls United Fund campaign have reached $63,156.90.

This was the report Friday at the final report luncheon meeting in the Turf Club. Fred Frazier, drive chairman, said this is more than 50 per cent of the 1972 drive goal.

Darl S. Gleed, executive director for the campaign, said about $26,000 of this was brought in this week, making this a record week in the drive.

He said pledges are still coming in and there is every indication the quota will be reached this year.

Two awards were presented during the Friday luncheon. The local chapter, American Red Cross, received the award for most outstanding participation by a community organization. Mrs. Burt Pollard accepted the award.

Mrs. May Helen Perry, principal of Washington Elementary School, accepted the award, a traveling trophy, for the outstanding school. For the second consecutive year, Washington has contributed the most per capita to the campaign.

It was also announced the Twin Falls Bank and Trust Co. and its employes are on their way to winning the top contribution award for a single business with $7,222 contributed at this point.

Frazier commended the campaign chairmen and workers for their excellent efforts and said he is most optimistic about the 1972 goal of just over $113,000.

4 young women hurt in accident in north TF

TWIN FALLS — Four young women were hospitalized, one with serious injuries, following an accident early Saturday morning in north Twin Falls.

Listed in "guarded" condition with serious injuries Saturday afternoon was Vickie Fredrichs, 21, a passenger in a 1972 sedan driven by Terry J. Klimes, 21, also hospitalized and in fair condition.

Linda Heinrich, 22, was reported in fairly good condition as was Elmalee Bowen, 21. All four were in the vehicle driven by Miss Klimes and all are from Twin Falls. City police reported the Klimes vehicle was traveling west on Evergreen Drive and stopped at the stop sign leading onto Blue Lakes Boulevard North and then drove onto the boulevard, U.S. Highway 93, into the path of a vehicle driven by Thomas Frank Bevan, 30, Sunset, Utah.

The accident occurred at 12:58 a.m.

Bevan traveling north on U. S. 93, was alone in his 1965 van and was not injured.

Officers cited the Utah man for driving while intoxicated and Miss Klimes for failure to yield right of way. All four of the injured women were taken to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital by ambulance. Miss Klimes suffered several fractures, severe cuts and bruises.

Miss Fredrichs was treated for multiple fractures, cuts and bruises.

Officers said the 1972 sedan driven by Miss Klimes was demolished and damage to the Utah vehicle was estimated at $600. At the same time officers were investigating the accident in north Twin Falls another accident occurred in Jerome County, keeping ambulances busy.

Officers said the ambulance going to the Jerome accident passed the scene of the Twin Falls accident causing bystanders to wonder about the ambulance driver's sense of direction.

TF man facing trial

TWIN FALLS — Ray Hanby, Twin Falls, was scheduled for preliminary hearing Friday in magistrate court but appeared and waived hearing.

He was bound over to district court on charges of first degree burglary.

The two were charged, along with Dennis Parker, with burglarizing a pickup truck last summer.

Monte Carlson, public defender, requested a pshychiatric examination for Parker. The court granted the delay until such an examination can be made but bound the two other men over to district court for action.

CSI burglary probed

TWIN FALLS — City police in Twin Falls said Saturday a burglary at the College of Southern Idaho dormitory was being investigated.

Ralph Bullinger and Robert Borgan, residents of room 140 in the men's dorm, told officers they discovered a stereo, a clock radio and two stereo speakers missing from their room Saturday morning.

Value of the items was estimated at $114.95, officers said. The two students said they were unable to determine how burglars entered the room unless they had forgotten to lock their door.

Kay's club damaged

TWIN FALLS — Minor smoke damage resulted Saturday morning from an electrical wiring caused fire at Kay's Supper Club.

Firemen received the call at 10:30 a.m. and said wiring behind the bandstand had caught fire and caused smoke damage in the main portion of the building.

The Peace

The longest war in our history is nearly over and some day soon — we hope — our men will be at home and our money will be available at home, where it belongs.

The apparent closeness of a cease fire in Vietnam overshadows all other issues of the political campaign. With the election only eight days away the national political experts agree that the settlement — even the closeness of it if it does not come before November 7 — will find the Presidency going to Richard Nixon for another four years — signed, sealed and delivered. George McGovern had said a settlement before election day would hurt President Nixon more than it would help him because it would mean the pressure brought about by him (McGovern) would force the issue. But this will not prove to be the case. National columnists wrote that the statement by McGovern was shocking.

The peace is apparently in sight. There are still problems to be solved but if the fighting ends the experts are sure that all such problems can be worked out.

Good or bad, any settlement that stops the killing will be good. With millions of other Americans we pray that it all works out.

Four Presidents have had a hand in this terrible war that has divided our nation. With the end of the fighting we can turn to the peace we wanted all along.

And with the return to peace there is one thing that must be done. Steps must be taken so that no one man — like the President of the United States — can commit us to war without consent of the Congress. This all began because we first went to war and then the Congress was forced to go along because it was the patriotic thing to do. Each of the first three Presidents involved found he could not get out of the mess. One even gave up the race for re-election because of it. The fourth President has apparently got the job done at long last.

President Nixon shares the end result as the efforts of many. We should also remember that the blame for the war must be shared — it cannot be heaped solely on the shoulders of the man now in the White House. — OAK.

"Gate Arrival"

Getting there is definitely not half the fun, as any seasoned air traveler can attest.

As air transportation has grown and airports have expanded, the problem is not just getting to the airport but to the airplane itself. Any plane within a half-mile of the ticket counter is close.

They've done somthing about it in Kansas City, where a new $250 million airport goes into operation in November.

A design concept called "gate arrival" shortens to about 300 feet the distance from parked car to parked airplane. Instead of a main terminal building with long concourses extending fingerlike out to the plane, there is a cluster of one-level, C-shaped buildings in a triangle formation.

A passenger can drive into and park in the open center of whichever C his plane is departing from. Planes are positioned on the outer perimeter of each building. In 33 steps from the terminal entrance — the width, not the length, of the terminal — he's checked in and boarding the plane.

It's possible, airport officials say, that a passenger embarking on one of the huge jumbo jets may walk farther to his seat after he enters the plane than he did through the terminal.

MR. SPECTATOR

Of Being Earnest

There is only so much that can be done to humanize the assembly line or enrich the simple but necessary jobs. Until everything is completely automated or robotized, someone is going to have to do the world's unchallenging and-or dirty work.

Fortunately, there's a type of person who can do it.

Based on their observations, two social researchers theorize that if a man is successfully performing work that is common and lowly valued, then his ideas about himself and his self-esteem are divorced from the kind of work he does.

As a consequence, he will invest little of his drive, imagination and initiative in work itself but reserve this self-investment for other areas of his life, such as his family, his community, his recreation or his hobbies, say Professors Robert Dubin and William A. Faunce of the Universities of California and Michigan, respectively.

One of the important conclusions of their study is that much routine labor can be done, and done effectively, by people who are very low in their self-investment in their work. People can be productive in a mechanical sense without investing themselves emotionally and intellectually in the job.

When you think about it, this ability is really a kind of skill — and one that undoubtedly will command better and better pay as time goes on.

THERE GO DE JUDGE

Even if the U.S. Justice Department eventually goes to trial with its antitrust suit against giant IBM Corporation, it may have trouble finding a judge to hear the case.

The reason is that with a half a million Americans holding IBM shares, some of them are bound to be judges.

In a couple of recent legal proceedings involving IBM, judges have disqualified themselves because of IBM stock in their portfolios. Three U.S. Supreme Court justices have indicated they will not participate in a patent involving IBM.

But IBM is apparently only the tip of the iceberg. Lawyers are said to be worrying that too rigid observance of conflict of interest policies not only make it difficult to assign judges to cases involving corporations but also restricts the judges' freedom to invest their money.

We should all have such a problem.

ANDREW TULLY

Not Just Whistling In Dixie

WASHINGTON — President Nixon and White House aides have been insisting for some time now that despite his big lead in the polls his reelection should not be taken for granted — and maybe they're not just whistling Dixie.

Nixon should be safe on the various issues involving foreign policy. His performance on the Vietnam War and on seeking a detente with Red China and the Soviet Union stands up well against George McGovern's promises to do everything better and faster, and — on the war issue — doing them on the enemy's terms. But a miscalculation on the domestic front could prove costly.

The President, who has never been sold on wage and price regulation, waited until August 1971 to impose controls on the economy. The evidence continues to accumulate that he should have acted sooner.

That evidence is implicit in the Commerce Department's report that the rate of inflation, while slightly higher in the July-September period than in the April-to-June quarter, remained well under the averages of any of the past three years. Naturally, the administration is claiming progress on the anti-inflation front. But while the inflation rate is right on the administration's target of 3 per cent for this year to date, it was only 2.7 per cent in the full year since controls were imposed.

It is not cavilling, therefore, to suggest that the situation would be a lot healthier had Nixon acted a year, or even six months, earlier in cracking down on the high cost of living. Indeed, the President's own economic aides privately admit it, while intoning the usual malarkey about a President's duty to move cautiously in meddling with "a free marketplace."

Thus, while there is no disputing that Nixon finally is bringing inflation under control, he must live until Election Day with the worrisome thought that he could have done better. Any housewife will testify that prices are still too ruddy high — the Price Commission has just approved price increases of from 3.47 to 8.96 per cent for three large coffee manufacturers — and housewives also have the vote.

Meanwhile, the unemployment situation remains static. It was pegged at 5.5 per cent of the working force in September, which is an improvement over 1971 when the rate hovered around 6 per cent, but the problem hasn't been solved — with Election Day only a little more than a week away.

This is giving McGovern new ammunition for his speeches charging that Nixon doesn't care about the working man, but favors the rich. McGovern has criticized the administration for not pumping up the economy faster, to bring down the unemployment rate. Nixon's reply has been that the heavier government spending McGovern advocates to speed up the economic growth rate would also touch off a fresh round of inflation. The President probably is right, but jobless voters are unlikely to perceive the fine points of his argument.

McGovern's weakness in this debate is that his own anti-inflation plan is suspect. He has said, although not recently, that he would abolish controls and go for a policy of government guidelines on wages and prices. McGovern's agrument is that inflation is caused by the greed of a few big corporations and big labor unions and that it can be licked by cracking down on those fat cats. If they can be curbed, hesays, the little guys will fallin line for competitive reasons.

Well, maybe. But the guidelines failed John Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson, with the result that inflation was running wild by the time Nixon took office. McGovern never mentions that bit of history, which is smart. Instead, he fires away at the high cost of "Nixon's hamburgers," and the generally big crowds that have been turning out for his speeches love it. Hearing their cheers for his opponent, Richard Nixon has a right to worry — a little.

"Don't Spend It All in One Place!"

Kind Of Pollution

Pornography is another kind of pollution. You can't see anything else when dirt gets in your eyes.

Will the sex cult exhaust itself?

U.S. News & World Report recently headlined: "Smut Era On Decline." The Washington Post headlined: "Pity The Poor Pornographer." The Los Angeles Times reported: "Sex Book Publishers Worried About Sales."

But all the evidence I have seen indicates that the appetite for this stuff has not diminished; it's just that the merchants of it have momentarily oversupplied the market.

So the theory that if you "just leave it alone, it'll go away" is invalid.

So is the professing of some that this counterculture is wholesome. That fraudulent conclusion is drowned out by increasing sex crimes and pandemic venerealdisease.

Denmark had a head start in business of disrobing everybody and promoting perversion.

Denmark in 1969 all restrictions on pornography for anyone over 16. Almost immediately 74 sex clubs blossomed in Copenhagen — presenting an assortment of filmed and live performances.

Recently — law or no law — police closed down most of them on technicalities, having discovered the sex clubs had spawned a juvenile Mafia financing drug misuse by systematic robbery.

Pope Paul blames such increasing criminality on pornography. He says, however, that public indignation demonstrates that the moral spirit of mankind is not dead.

We should encourage that, he said.

Dirty movies are not as popular as you think they are. That's why the high prices for admission; the porno peddlers have to compensate for the small volume.

Nonetheless, the traffic is sufficient so that the comparative few who feed on filth are accelerating downtown decay. In Chicago, where the garish sex and smut shows move in, clean restaurants move out, quality businesses close down.

Sixty-two prominent theater performers presented Mayor Lindsay with a memorandum citing numerous city and state laws which are openly violated every day throughout the Times Square area. So city fathers padlocked a few peep shows and chased the prostitues, procurers and panhandlers a few blocks across town — for a few days.

Theatrical producer Alexander Cohen says the gut issue has become the right of anyone to severely damage the business of someone else. Morality aside, says Cohen, what right have the degenerators to promote commercial cancer?

ART BUCHWALD

A Skeleton

WASHINGTON — Zimbalist phoned me at 11 o'clock the other night. "I have to see you right away," he said nervously.

"What is it, Zimbalist?"

"I can't tell you on the phone. Please see me, I beg of you."

"All right, come over," I said.

Twenty minutes later a haggard and distraught Zimbalist arrived at the front door. "Where can we talk privately?" he demanded.

"Anywhere. There's nobody in the house."

He looked over at my wife and asked, "Can she be trusted?"

"She's my wife, Zimbalist," I said. "She's like one of the family."

"I'm sorry," he said. "I'm a nervous wreck. I'm going out of my mind."

We took him into the library. "Tell us about it," I said soothingly.

He sipped hot coffee. "It happened three days ago. I was walking down the street when this man came up to me.

In one hand he was holding a clipboard and in his other hand a pen. He said he was a Lou Harris pollster and asked if I would mind answering a few questions. I wasn't thinking, so I said I would. First he asked me my name, then my age, my religion, my income bracket and finally he asked me who I was going to vote for on Nov. 7. I told him Nixon."

"There's nothing wrong with that," I said.

Zimbalist put his head in his hands.

"I lied. I'm really going to vote for McGovern."

"You lied to a Lou Harris pollster?" my wife asked in disbelief.

Zimbalist looked at her, tears welling in his eyes, "I didn't mean to," he said, "but I didn't know who the guy was. He could have been from the Committee for the Re-Election of the President or he could have been working for the White House. I was scared, I'll admit it. I just blurted out Nixon without thinking.

"But I represent 500,000 votes. Now Lou Harris thinks everyone in my age, religion and income bracket is going to vote for Nixon. It could threw off his whole poll by 5 per cent."

"I never thought of that," I said.

"For the last few days I've been going crazy," Zimbalist sobbed.

"I've been thinking about turning myself in. But if word got out that I lied to a Lou Harris pollster it could destroy me professionally. I have to think of my wife and the children.

"What am I going to do? What am I going to do?" Zimbalist moaned, rocking back and forth in his chair.

"Look," I said, "I think the best thing to do is make a clean breast of things. We'll call Lou Harris in the morning and tell him you made a mistake. We'll say you were temporarily insane and didn't know what you were doing. Maybe he won't press charges. Lou Harris may be a pollster, but he does have a heart."

Zimbalist, a shaken man, grasped my hand gratefully. "I don't know how to thank you," he said. "I'll never foret this."

After he left, my wife said to me, "I don't know if you should get involved in this or not. They might blame you."

"I have to do it. If I hadlied to a Lou Harris pollster I'm sure Zimbalist would have done it for me."

GEORGE C. THOSTESON, M.D.

Dirty Hair

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My father says it is not safe to shampoo more than once a month, and that it will result in premature baldness. Well, I'm a long-haired youth and all my friends, boys and girls, seem to wash their hair two or three times a week. My mom says once a week is all right. Now I don't know what to do. — A.P.

Baldness, if it is going to occur, will develop regardless of how often you wash your hair, or don't. The only rule is to wash it often enough to keep it clean wheather it's once a week, twice a week, or every day.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please send me your booklet, "How to Control Arthritis." The 35 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope are enclosed. And what is Indocin, and why do you have to have your blood tested every three months? I have taken it for arthritis. — N.O.R.

Indocin (indomethacin) is a drug which is effective in various types of arthritis, in that it relieves pain and has an anti-inflammatory action. It does not suit all patients, but it is working very well for many. Reason for the tests is that with continued use, in some individuals, it may cause subtle bleeding of the intestinal tract or affect the white blood cells. The tests are a precaution against either of these things happening. If they occur, the medication can be stopped.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have a very mild mitral stenosis from rheumatic fever when I was a child. I am 41 now.

My doctor says I'll need heart surgery in five to 10 years. I am not on any medication as of now. What medication would I take for this? And will it get worse? — G.P.

The rheumatic fever inflamed one of the valves in your heart (the mitral valve) and scar tissue formed as a result. The "stenosis" means the valve is somewhat narrowed.

Such valves do tend to become stiffer as time passes, so you very well may, as your doctor tells you, need surgery in future years to open up the valve and let blood flow more freely.

Apparently, I would judge from your letter, you aren't having too much trouble now, so there's time to wait and see how the valve comes along.

There isn't any medication that will undo or retard the scarring of the valve now. And since your heart evidently is serving you well enough, there's no point in trying to stimulate extra activity on its part.

BERRY'S WORLD

"I think it's unfair for President Nixon to remain aloof from day-to-day campaigning, and let Senator McGovern make ALL the mistakes!"

Really? They Actually Locked The Ballot Box?

By O. A. (GUS) KELKER
Editor, Times-News

Who locked the ballot boxes before the count was made?

There was much indecision of what to do on election day in November 1906 in Cassia County. You will remember, of course, that the two-year-old community of Twin Falls was in Cassia at that time and Twin Falls county was yet to be born.

But getting back to that 1906 election — the editor of the Twin Falls News was certain it had been a Republican landslide but he couldn't give the results. Well, there was one case where the results were available and that was from the Kimberly precinct. It seems that the votes were counted there, a copy made and then the ballot box was locked. In all the other precincts the result copy was not made and the locks went on before the newspaper — or anyone else — was informed of the official results.

"Cassia county gave the candidates on the Republican state and county tickets majorities varying from 350 to 500. Governor Gooding carried the county by approximately 400.

"Unfortunately complete returns are lacking from every precinct in the county with solitary exception of Kimberly. For some unaccountable reason the ballot boxes were sealed in all other precincts without a memorandum of the returns, consequently the majorities of the various candidates can only be conjectured.

"So soon as it was apparent that a certain ticket had carried a precinct all interest lapsed and no attempt was made to ascertain the exact vote. This will not be known until the vote is canvassed by the county commissioners next month."

But the supposition of the editor that the victory was, indeed, Republican was backed up when the official count was made. The commissioners reported the entire slate of Republican candidates were successful and that the majorities ranged from 693 for H. H. Thornton, county superintendent, and 662 for Congressman Burton L. French, down to 123 for B. P. Howells, county attorney, and 287 for J. Y. Haight, county clerk.

So it was a Republican year back in 1906.

WANT A JOB?

Said an editorial in the Twin Falls News of November 16, 1906:

"The fact that a body of representative businessmen should be obliged to take steps to induce labor to come into Idaho indicates the remarkable prosperity of the state.

"Several delegates to the convention of commercial clubs spoke of the difficulty experienced in securing labor for their sections of the state and the trouble encountered in retaining workmen.

"Elect a Democrat President, was the remedy suggested by a facetious delegate.

"The labor question was the most serious to come before the convention and upon its satisfactory solution will depend in a large measure the progress in Idaho. Railroad construction has been hampered, important projects have been hampered and material damage has been wrought by the inability of contractors to engage workmen. Skilled labor is in demand in all sections of southern Idaho. If the work outlined by the League of Southern Idaho Commercial Clubs is carried out there will always be a demand for labor here."

A NOTICE

Parents of school children in the Twin Falls school district are requested to meet with board of trustees and the drivers of school wagons at the new school building on Monday evening, December 3 at 7:30 p.m. for the purpose of determining the routes to be followed by the wagons during the winter. It is necessary that all those interested should attend this meeting. (Advertisement: November, 1906).

BUHL BRIEFS

From The News In 1906:

B. Boyd is serving 30 days in the sagebrush getting ready to prove up.

J. H. Schooler has painted the front of his livery stable and is getting ready to build his dwelling house.

George R. Dunn and W. S. Harris are contemplating on erecting a two-story lava rock business block on Broadway south of the Buhl Hotel.

H. S. Hobson brought in two loads of coal from Twin Falls Saturday, but we have no use for the stuff, except for cooking purposes. What we need is screen doors to keep the flies out.

C. F. Davenport of Rupert was a visitor in Buhl on Thursday.

G. H. Brown, optician of Twin Falls, spent Tuesday in Buhl and transacted some business in his line.

THE SEWER LINE

A story from the News of November 30, 1906, indicated Twin Falls was getting close to installation of a sewer line. Bids had been opened by the city fathers with 12 specifications being asked for and only four bidders showing any interest. The lowest bid appeared to be that of R. M. Bardsen and Co. of Butte, Mont. It came to $33,975. The city fathers decided to withhold letting of the contract until the December meeting. A story of December 14 showed the bid was, indeed, let to the Butte company. The work was to be completed within 6 months and only local white labor was to be employed.

HANSEN BRIEFS

A committee has been appointed to make arrangements for a Christmas tree and entertainment to be given at the Hansen school building on Christmas eve. (1906)

On Wednesday morning the freight train struck and killed a coyote as it was crossing the bridge just west of Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Jerome will entertain a number of their friends at their home next Friday evening.

Two Party System

Editor, Times-News:

Under our form of government this country must have two viable and thoroughly credible political parties. During this campaign we have had neither. In fact the entire show has been a disgrace and an insult to voter intelligence.

How often, at a Democratic rally for Senator McGovern, have we seen the television cameras scan the crowd and rest in close focus on faces that might well be escapees from the Museum of Natural History or fugitives from the San Diego Zoo. Again in our slick pictorial magazines we see clean shaven, well combed young men wearing Nixon buttons, confronting characters either from the slums of Podunk or inmates of some university.

Are these unkempt people indicative of a National Party or can this be more than mere coincidence. It lends credibility to such reporting when we personally witness a candidate for the US Senate who when introduced to the audience, leaped to his feet and wildly begins the moth eaten routine of stabbing two fingers into the atmosphere.

For one party to completely dominate a state or local division of government becomes an unhealthy situation whether in the Deep South or in Idaho or, for that matter, in a County. The South is just emerging from the Dark Age imposed upon it by years of one party doninance. Red neck arrogance of elected officials is yielding to a new concept of government based on diverging ideas and ideals.

Bluntly stated, when either party fails to field a slate of good capable candidates it leaves the electorate with no choice but vote for candidates who may be utterly distasteful or turn its back and walk out of the voting booth. The independent voter who places his conscience above party is especially shaken by such conditions.

The deterioration of political parties is nothing new in American politics. As the political per dulum swings back and forth first one and then the other reaches the highest point in about equal cycles. Hanging desperately to coattails and pants cuffs are the fragmented dissadents of society. Populists, Free Silverites, Know Nothings, Non Partisans, Progressives, Bull Moosers, Socialists, American and a hundred others that can boast a following of more than two. Much in their platforms is good and constructive. Many of their planks are adopted by the major parties within a year. But the good and their leadership is killed by the cruddy element that gathers around them.

Their value lies in bringing into focus the inequities of our social and economic structure. In fact, when the great leader of the Socialist Party Norman Thomas disbanded his party he declared. "There is no longer need for this Party. Its principal goals and ideals have been realized in the Democratic Party."

And how many Republicans would admit that the principles they so loudly espouse today are so far to the left that if Abraham Lincoln were umpiring the game today he would call every ball struck a foul.

Clear Cutting

Editor, Times-News:

I cannot understand the recent trend in favor of clear cutting on our remaining forest areas in view of all the costly lessons we have learned over the past century. I believe that our qualified foresters and experienced loggers, whatever their affiliation, know better than this.

Senator Church deserves great credit for his efforts on behalf of Idaho in this respect. Anyone who has observed at first hand, or reviewed the history of our early loggin operations in the Great Lakes states and the deep south, is aware of the havoc wrought wherein very little remained but cordwood and underbrush.

Agriculture use fully took over much of the wast land and conditions that are neither practical nor possible exist in the rugged mountain terrain of the Northwest and most of the rest of the Northwest.

Certainly no one objects to the clear cutting of local diseased and beetle infested tracts. This is also true of the hot burns which destroy the ground cover. Otherwise there is no justifiable excuse for clear cutting.

We are now extensively seeding and transplanting where we have indiscriminately logged, and the more of it the better. However, the trees that we hope to raise to barely merchantable size in 40 or 50 years, will not, like wheat and corn, begin to compare with the harvest we have already reaped or will ever reap again.

In the meantime we have to contend with increased soil erosion. A watershed is not necessarily a mountain divide or a high ridge. It is every little denuded promonotory whereupon the water courses down the sides. I have no idea if a deep carpet of ground cover may ever be successfully replaced. In any event, it will require many generations more than the life of a mature tree.

We are not, as some have said, trying to kill the logging industry by "senseless demands based on ignorance and emotion." Had we not curbed the appetities of the logging companies in the first place and held tight rein on them (not nearly tight enough) they would long since have cut themselves out of business.

A Rare Book

Just the other day Mrs. John E. (Anna) Hayes of Twin Falls received a rare book — a souvenir album in connection with the U. S. commemorative postage stamp honoring the Parent-Teacher Association on its 75th anniversary.

There were only 15 of the souvenir albums printed, which makes it really unique. Mrs. Hayes received it from Mrs. Elizabeth Mallory, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The Twin Falls resident was national president from 1949 through 1952 and is the only woman in Idaho ever elected to that high post. In fact, she is one of only four women who have received that honor and who are from the western states.

The album is of black leather with gold printing. On the front jacket, in addition to Mrs. Hayes' name, is the explanatory background of the commemorative. Inside is a block of the stamps, 50 in number, the stamps are in the eight cent category for first class postage.

The presentation was to have been made in person at the recent PTA convention in San Francisco but Mrs. Hayes was unable to attend at that time. Speakers at the San Francisco session included Alice Birney Jones, great-granddaughter of the founder, Alice McLellan Birney, and also William Randolph Hearst, Jr., grandson of PTA founder Phoebe Apperson Hearst. He is editor-in-chief of Hearst Newspapers.

In recalling her years of active participation in PTA circles Mrs. Hayes said the PTA objectives today are much the same as they were when she was president and added: "they are still getting results of a beneficial nature."

They include:

To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community.

To raise the standards of home life.

To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.

To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the education of children and youth.

To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for all children and youth the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

Critical Of Nixon

Editor, Times-News:

Re: Your editorial of Oct. 22 endorsing President Nixon and other candidates.

You say that after "careful deliberation" you have endorsed Richard Nixon for re-election. The sole reason you give for your endorsement is that you know Nixon's program and that Senator McGovern could not implement his programs.

If you know Nixon's program, please share it with the voters. Please tell us how he will repay the $90 billion national debt he has run up. He promises no tax increase, but he refuses to tell us where revenue will come from.

Please tell us how Nixon will get us out of Vietnam without the cooperation of General Thieu. Tell us how he will solve the welfare mess, how he will employ all those who are currently unemployed, and how he will help us to convert to a peacetime economy if he does get us out of Vietnam.

You might also tell us how he is going to solve the problem of corruption within his administration. We still do not know who ordered the Watergate bugging, who was to blame for the wheat deal or the quiet withdrawal of anti-trust suits against Warner-Lambert, Ling-Tempco-Vought and National Steel Co.

What is Nixon's plan to equalize taxation, and what is his plan to keep the small farmer and small businessman competitive when conglomerate corporations are steadily eroding the numbers of people who are able to make a go of it?

As for George McGovern's inability to pass his proposals, let's start with Vietnam. By executive order, he could halt this idiotic war in days. Nixon has put us in the absurd position of dealing with the Communists who pose a threat to us and fighting Communists who can't hurt us. The money saved by a complete Vietnam withdrawal would be placed directly in a fund to employ those displaced by the pullout.

Congress might oppose some of McGovern's military cuts, but most of them would certainly be made if the War in Indochina were terminated, such as mothballing the aircraft carriers we now have off the shores of Indochina. Also, some of the tax reforms may not be accepted by Congress, but most of them woud be. Where that revenue would go is well outlined in McGovern's proposals. Don't forget, the President proposes and Congress disposes. But Congress is answerable to the people, and that is what McGovern's campaign is all about, returning this nation to its citizens.

Recollections

Editor, Times-News:

I would hope that a few recollections may be in order following the visit of Vice President Agnew. You may recall in 1962, Mr. Lyndon Johnson, then Vice President of the United States, visited Twin Falls. We who supported the Vice President were excited but his visit was marred by a great hulabaloo from the Republican Central Committee and the Times-News that the Twin Falls High School Band should not be allowed to play at a "partisan political event", and as a result the Kimberly High School Band greeted the Vice President at the airport.

I am delighted that the Twin Falls High School Band was able to play for a Vice President of the United States (one I do not admire), and that a public building, the CSI gymnasium, was used for his appearance. Such treatment is always deserved by one of the leaders of our great nation.

Now that the CSI Trustees have permitted the use of our public buildings for partisan political use, one would hope they would allow their faculty the same privilege and allow them to run for office. The faculty ought to be given the same privilege as the buildings. The health of our nation is dependent upon everyone participating in the governmental process and the CSI faculty should be no exception.

Desperate

Editor, Times-News:

Idaho voters of all political beliefs should be repelled by the defamatory campaign George McGovern is now waging. The ambitious and desperate McGovern is practicing political invective by labeling the Nixon Administration the most corrupt in American history, calling President Nixon a liar, twice comparing the President of the United States with Adolf Hitler, and likening Republican policies to those of the Ku Klux Klan.

Senator McGovern has swerved far from his promise to wage a campaign "rooted not in the manipulation of our fears and divisions but in a national dialogue based on mutual respect."

If the senator continues to break pledges such as this it is alarming to contemplate George McGovern pleding "1000 per cent" support to the United States Constitution on January 20.

Evasive Maneuvers

Editor, Times-News:

During these political weeks, it may seem superfluous to draw your attention to legislation passed this year which will increase every worker's taxes. Senator Frank Church is not on the ballo in the forthcoming election but hopefully the taxpayer-voter will remember his sponsorship of the 1972 Social Security increase. The Senator's evasive maneuvers are illustrated in the following letter:

Dear Senator Church: "I have reviewed our past correspondence relative to the future reduction in the tax rates. This is simply a diversionary attempt to avoid considering all the facts, for the truth is that what was voted in actual tax dollars was an increase — this year and forthcoming years.

This increase is accomplished by the subtle method of increasing the base upon which the tax rate is applied to $10,800.00 — with further escalations scheduled in the future. This base certainly cannot be considered as a "soak-the-rich" level of taxation.

In the practice of medicine, the diagnosis and treatment of every patient must be arrived at after consideration of all the facts known — perhaps because human life and welfare in medicine does not include any political motivations.

In order to conclude this exchange of correspondence, I would ask only one short statement from you, Senator. Considering all the facts, did you and the other 60 sponsors of the legislation increase taxes for the average taxpayer?"

Backing McGovern

Editor, Times-News:

I want to go on record as a working family farmer who will vote for George McGovern for president.

We are all familiar with his past record of working for the American farmer. He has worked tirelessly for the best interests of rural America since going to Washington in 1956.

The Republican administration offers the family farmer not one hint of what their plans for agriculture will be. We do know, however, where George McGovern stands.

McGovern is on record to work for the survival of the family farm. He is on record that farmers will be given the power to bargain for fair prices. Under existing law he will move to raise farm income to at least 90 percent of parity. He will eliminate tax loopholes that non-farmers are cashing in on. And the list could go on.

As I see it, McGovern is the one man who will make it his business to continue to champion the cause of family farmers. That's why he's got my vote.

SJR 101

Editor, Times-News:

An amendment to change the membership of the Land Board will be on the ballot as SJR 101. Presently there are 5 elected officials — the Governor, Supt. of Public Instruction, Secretary of State, Attorney-General, and State Auditor—who serve as the membership. These elected officials have only a few hours a month for this task, involving the management of 2.8 million acres of state-owned land.

This management includes administration of dredge and surface mining acts; control of navigable streams; lake and river beds; disposition of certain other lands, and responsibility of fire protection on all timber lands; in addition to sale and management of these lands for the revenues for the public schools.

Because of lack of time by the members, decisions on policy questions sometimes drag on for months. Often decisions are made without adequate preparation or discussion.

These officials are chosen by the voters primarily on the basis of other issues rather than their views of state land management.

An appointive board might not be conclusively better, but it would be an improvement. It would operate under close surveillance by the press and public, and held accountable for what it does.

I urge a "Yes" vote on SJR 101 to allow selection of the State Land Board by law.

Broken Promises

Editor, Times-News:

The following are a few of President Nixon's broken campaign promises of 1968:

1. He has increased Federal spending 33 per cent in 4 years.

2. He has increased the national debt by 25 per cent and is still considered a conservative.

3. He instigated wage and price controls which he knows only treat the symptoms of inflation and not the cause which is deficitfederal spending.

4. He has appointed pro-busing men to the H.E.W. which has promoted the greatest mass busing in human history.

5. He promotes a Family Assistance Plan or a "guaranteed annual income."

6. He hasn't cleaned out the State Department as he promised.

7. He promoted Red China's entrance to the United Nations and has scuttled Chiang Kai-shek and the Republic of China.

8. He has signed a disarmament treaty which fails to provide vital on-site inspections.

9. He has promoted increased trade and aid to our sworn enemies which continue to kill American soldiers.

10. He has made us inferior to Russia in military strength.

11. His State Department has covered the fact that most of the drugs coming into the United States are from Red China. Mao produces practically nothing to trade but drugs.

If you are also tired of these and many other broken promises then look to a man who will stop the trend toward socialism and a man who has never broken a campaign promise in 8 years of public office. He is John Schmitz, American Party candidate for President, the alternative to Richard Nixon, the 'now more socialism than ever' candidate. Vote positive this year rather than voting for the lesser of two evils. Remember the lesser of two evils is still evil.

And then there's the Watergate Caper.

Of course, it could happen to anyone — especially anyone who is careless of the company he keeps.

Nixon optimistic in Midwest trip

SAGINAW, Mich. (UPI)— President Nixon, winding up a campaign tour of the Midwest, said Saturday night the Vietnam war is virtually at an end and "we can look forward to winning the kind of peace in Vietnam all Americans want ... peace with honor and not surrender."

The President motored for five hours through the autumn countryside of Ohio and then flew to Saginaw, where his remarks at an airport rally were his most optimistic since this week's disclosure that a ceasefire in Vietnam is imminent.

"We can look forward with confidence to winning the kind of peace in Vietnam all Americans want ... peace with honor and not surrender," he said. "With Vietnam being over we are proud of the fact that our trips to Moscow and Peking have paved the way ... for a full generation of peace."

In a last-minute change of his schedule, Nixon flew to Saginaw to boost the candidacy of the GOP Senate whip, Robert B. Griffin, and his own chance of winning Michigan's 21 electoral votes.

Earlier, during an 80-mile motorcade through more than a dozen suburban communities in Ohio, he promised the family of a soldier slain in Vietnam he would never grant amnesty to draft evaders.

Several thousand people turned out to greet President and Mrs. Nixon here. In a statement on his arrival, Nixon claimed "solid pocketbook progress" had been achieved in his four years in office.

The President made his strongest statement to date on the emotional amnesty issue in a conversation with a farm family that lost a son in the Vietnam fighting.

"The 200 who have deserted their country—the draft dodgers—are never going to get amnesty when boys like yours have died," Nixon told Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lorence in front of their farm just outside this rural community of 100.

The President stopped his limousine when he spotted a huge sign on the Lorence pickup truck, "Mr. President please stop and shake hands. No amnesty. We lost a son in Vietnam."

The President, after getting out of his car, said to them, "don't worry about that amnesty—never." Nixon gestured with a clenched fist as he talked.

The stop came during a 13-city trip through northeastern Ohio which began in Cleveland.

McGovern scores 'mismanaged' economy on California swing

SPOKANE, Wash. (UPI)— Sen. George McGovern carried a new campaign theme into the Pacific Northwest Saturday only 10 days before the election, contending the Nixon Administration would be unable to manage the economy without the stimulus of the Vietnam war.

Before a foot-stomping crowd at Gonzaga University here, and an overflow throng at a breakfast fund-raiser in Anaheim, Calif., McGovern welcomed prospects for a settlement of the war before the election.

But he contended a Democratic administration should manage the nation's economy in the post-war period because the Nixon Administration had proved itself incapable of creating jobs or controlling inflation without a war to sustain the economy.

McGovern traversed the West Coast for votes as he prepared a tight schedule for the final full week of his campaign that will take him to Hartford and New Haven, Conn., Pittsburgh, Syracuse, N.Y., Newark, Jersey City, New York, Chicago and Cincinnati between Sunday and Thursday.

These are traditional centers of Democratic support where McGovern has had some difficulty.

But the candidate said Nixon could have settled the war four years ago on virtually the same terms as Hanoi and Washington have tentatively agreed to.

"Why did we have to wait until the closing days of this election campaign?" he asked.

McGovern said top officials in the Nixon Administration had criticized him for calling for total U.S. withdrawal in 90 days, but now Nixon was apparently ready to settle for withdrawal in 60 days.

Hunt pushed

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI) — Having covered 210,000 square miles, the search for House Majority Leader Hale Boggs and three others Saturday reached its 13th day as planes continued to check out the slightest clue to the fate of the missing men.

Boggs disappeared Oct. 16 on a flight from Anchorage to Juneau with Alaska's congressman, Nick Begich, Begich's aide, Russell Brown, and Don E. Jonz, the pilot.

Three dozen planes took off Saturday to continue the effort.

American statesman Thomas Bayard was born Oct. 29, 1828.

On this day in history:

In 1618, Sir Walter Raleigh was executed in London, charged with participating in a treasonable plot to oust King James I from the throne.

In 1901, Leon Czolgosz was electrocuted for the assassination of American President William McKinley.

In 1923, Turkey became a republic.

In 1929, pandemonium reigned on the New York Stock Exchange as collapsing prices set the stage for the Great Depression of the 1930s.

A thought for the day: American novelist Willa Cather said, "I like trees because they seem more resigned to the way they have to live than other things do."

Bar exam challenged

BOISE (UPI) — A lawsuit has been filed in U.S. District court challenging the controversial Idaho bar examination, flunked last month by more than half of its 86 applicants.

The suit charges "arbitrary and capricious" construction, administration and grading of the exam, and lists 11 specific criticisms.

Plaintiffs in the suit are William Burt, of Hailey, a New York attorney for more than 20 years, who failed the exam; William F. Gigray, a University of Idaho law school graduate, who failed the exam, and Paul J. Busar, another out-of-state unsuccessful bar candidate.

Named as defendants were members of the Idaho Supreme Court, the Idaho State Bar Association and its officers. Attorneys for the plaintiffs are seeking class action on behalf of all candidates who failed the exam.

An additional charge leveled by the plaintiffs was against the review process open to the unsuccessful bar hopefuls, charging that process denied petitioners due process of law.

The complaint states: "The plaintiffs are denied free and open access to their bar examination, the bar examintion questions and model answers and the examination of successful and unsuccessful applicants, and are thereby hampered in their preparation and presentation of there petition for review by the Idaho Supreme Court.

"The review...does not and will not concern itself with the construction or administration of the bar examination...It does not allow petitioners to attack criteria and guidelines under which said bar examination was constructed and administered."

The suit asks that the Idaho bar be temporarily restrained from enforcing rules requiring successful completion of an exam prior to practicing law in Idaho.

Hansen reports finance status

BOISE (UPI) — In a financial statement to United Press International, Second Congressional District candidate Rep. Orval Hansen says his net worth is $80,181.

The statement, which Hansen said was the most complete available information, showed that he has assets of $132,150, which includes a $67,500 house in Arlington, Va. and $33,240 in stock in a family farm in Idaho Falls.

The statement also showed unlisted stock in Idaho Broadcasting Co. for $12,200.

Hansen showed total liabilities of $51,968 with all but $4,480 on the mortgage of the Virginia home.

UPI earlier asked both Democratic and Republican candidates running for federal office to disclose their net personal worth.

Gem newspaper endorses Davis

BOISE (UPI) — The Idaho Statesman endorsed Democrat William E. (Bud) Davis for the U. S. Senate today, but also supported Republicans Steve Symms and incumbent Orval Hansen for the state's two congressional seats.

The newspaper, which once endorsed Davis' GOP Rival James A. McClure in the latter's two campaigns for the U. S. House of Representatives, said it chose Davis because he has a "broader range of interests" and is not tied closely to "special groups."

In defense of its support for first district nominee Steve Symms, the Statesman said "we like some of his positions and dislike others, but we are impressed with his willingness to explore ideas, to challenge accepted dogma, to question the status quo.

"We feel he should have a chance for two years to show whether he really will represent the people or is simply a champion of the 'upper dog'."

The editorial called Symms' Democratic opponent Ed Williams an "effective legislator," but said his campaign has been disappointing.

Oil slick trapped on river

PIUTE FARMS, Utah (UPI) Workmen have surrounded a massive debris-filled oil slick on Lake Powell with two barriers made of telephone poles, but shifting winds are making the clean-up difficult.

The oil is caught between the booms about 1¾ miles from Copper Canyon, where the San Juan River flows into the huge man-made lake in southeastern Utah.

The goo washed down the river and into the lake from Texas-New Mexico Co. pipeline in northwestern New Mexico which ruptured Oct. 10.

Richard Jones, who is supervising the clean-up for the Environmental Protection Agency, said shifting winds, which accompanied stormy weather this week, blew the oil back and forth, making it difficult for oil company crews to set up their dredging equipment.

He said the huge slick, filled with logs, tree stumps and other debris, is snagged against the boom farther from the river mouth and stretches out for about ¾ of a mile along the sides of the narrow sandstone canyon.

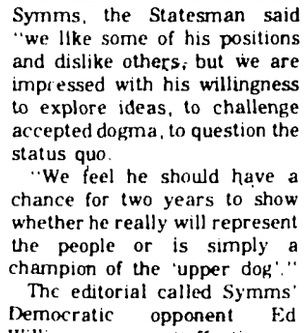

Jones said workmen will attempt to set up a clam shell crane near the main body of sludge and lift it from the water. The oily material will then be trucked aboye the lake's high water mark and buried..

He said only a small amount of oil was removed this week because of the bad weather and shifting currents.

"The priority now is to stabilize it," he said. "Right now when the clam shell digs in, it doesn't get hold of very much."

Jones said if the weather says nice the oil company plans to have crews work around the clock. Texas-New Mexico Co., is paying for the clean-up.

Full state funding of education aired

BOISE (UPI) — Members of the Legislative Council Committee for school Funding generally agree the legislature will not propose full state funding of public education.

Members of the committee met Friday in Boise and discussed 1972-73 financial summaries of state schools.

Among the statistics discussed were this year's county by county fall enrollment figures. A report showed this year's enrollment was down by 451 students. The biggest dropoffs occurred in grades one through five, where 1,802 less pupils are enrolled than last year.

The committee also discussed the tabulation of 1972 general county school levys, representing an eight mill tax on the adjusted valuation of each county.

Most counties showed a notable levy increase over 1971 due to the 1.9 per cent holdback, earlier ordered by Gov. Cecil D. Andrus.

McGovern blasts Nixon's record

WASHINGTON (UPI) —A study group working for Sen. George S. McGovern accused the Nixon administration Saturday of caving into industry pressure by ignoring consumer needs for quality and safety in everything from cars to drugs.

"The Nixon record on product safety and quality regulation is one of procrastination, inaction, delay, deference to industry pressure, proposing weak legislation ... and lack of commitment to enforce strong laws that already are on the books," the report said.

The attack was made by McGovern's "Consumer Task Force" —one of several study panels working to help the Democratic presidential nominee establish positions on major campaign issues.

The report was released a few hours after Nixon signed into law legislation setting up the machinery for safety standards for most consumer products. Nixon's consumer adviser, Mrs. Virginia H. Knauer, called the new law an outgrowth of Nixon's concern for product safety and a victory for consumers.

The task force, however, said the administration would have settled for only "complex, time-consuming rule making procedures before new standards could be imposed on products or products banned."

"The fact that the administration so vigorously opposes strong consumer protection legislation is a measure of its commitment to industry and business at the expense of the consumer," the report said.

In specific areas the task force claimed:

—A "scandalous" situation in which the administration opposed "every major piece of legislation and watered down regulation concerning autos." The task force endorsed national no-fault insurance and regulation of auto repair costs.

— A tire safety record that "betrays a concern not for the safety of the motorist, but for the well-being of its friends in the rubber industry." It proposed a "clear, useful grading system to aid consumers in selecting tires" and a re-evaluation of safety standards.

—The administration opposes legislation that would require the government to set minimum safety standards for the structure of school buses. It said school bus safety has the lowest priority even though more than 15,000 such vehicles have been recalled for safety defects during the past five years.

British soldier killed

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (UPI) — A sniper Saturday killed a British soldier and wounded a 10-year-old boy with a single shot fired on the edge of Londonderry's Bogside area the army said.

The soldier was riding in a Land Rover patrolling the rim of the Roman Catholic area when the gunman fired. The bullet hit him in the head, then fragmented and slightly wounded a boy walking near by in the leg, an army spokesman said.

The killing, the first since Wednesday, raised the toll in three years of Ulster violence to 620 dead.

In Belfast, soldiers manning an outpost in the Catholic Ardoyne area exchanged fire with gunmen and claimed they hit one man.

The two incidents in the afternoon shattered what had been a peaceful day with the army reporting no incidents since late Friday.

In Dublin, the political arm of the Irish Republican Army (IRA) met to discuss future strategy in its campaign to unite Northern Ireland with the Irish Republic.

New York prisoners at large

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI)—A dozen young prisoners who overpowered four guards and fled from escape-prone Albany County Jail were still on the loose Saturday as authorities began an investigation into the breakout.

The escapees, all from the Albany area, fled the 40-year-old compound in suburban Colonie Friday night. Once outside the "grand jury" tier of cells, they overpowered a 65-year-old guard at the main gate, stole two pistols and fled in a van-type truck, normally used to transfer inmates from jail to court.

State and local police manned roadblocks but removed them several hours later. The van-type truck used in the escape was found abandoned less than an hour after the escape on an Albany street. Police said they were watching the escapees' local haunts and checking informants for leads.

Among the fugitives were three brothers accused of setting fire to a police station, a man charged with armed robbery and an inmate who was returned to the jail this month after being released by mistake in April.

9 survive plane crash

NOIRETABLE, France (UPI) —Nine survivors, some of them virtually unscratched, Saturday told how they escaped death in the crash of a Air Inter Vickers Viscount that killed 59 other persons Friday on a hilltop near this farming community in southern France.

The French domestic airliner, on a flight from Lyon to Clermont-Ferrand, crashed into a 3,630-foot high Picon Peak, five miles from here. Rescue teams did not arrive on the heavily wooded site for five hours, according to a passenger, Marcel Delcroix.

Delcroix, 55,, a businessman said he thought the turboprop engines were not running properly and just before the crash he unfastened his seatbelt.

"That's how I was thrown out at the moment of impact," he said.

Delcroix, who suffered cuts to his face, said he lived because he sat in the back of the plane, which tore off. Parts of it were recovered more than 600 feet from the fuselage.

After the crash, Delcroix said, he found two children, also unhurt, flung clear with him—a four-year-old boy, Sylvain Monthonnex, and a 11-year-old girl, Catherine Cizeron.

"We waited for help for five hours," Delcroix said. "During this time I talked to the children and comforted them Every three minutes I shouted for help."

Police said a local farmer saw the plane go down and finally located the mangled wreckage with the aid of police and firemen.

The hilly terrain hampered rescue efforts and local farmers used tractors to take the survivors and the dead to ambulances waiting two miles away.

Candidate opposes proposal

TWIN FALLS — Mrs. G. W. (Jerry) Creed said today she opposed SJR 113, which would create a citizen's commission to set legislative pay and expenses.

Mrs. Creed, who is a Democratic candidate for representative in district 25, said the creation of the commission would just mean "nine more people would draw wages."

Mrs. Creed also urged voters to read the nine separate amendments on the November ballot carefully before going into the voting booth to save voter time.

Brandt defends policies

HAMBURG, Germany (UPI) —West German Chancelor Willy Brandt Saturday defended his reconciliations with Russia and said his policies were making life easier for persons on both sides of the Berlin wall.

Brandt said at an election rally "Not even the Americans were able to prevent the Berlin Wall and I can't make it vanish by magic."

Speaking under cloudy skies, Brandt said the choice was one of protesting or doing the humanly possible to make conditions easier for all Germans.

'Black holes' found in space

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI)— Albert Einstein once theorized that there are "black holes" in space, which eat up light are invisible.

Two astronomers told a scientific gathering Thursday that they may have found one, the first to be discovered.

"It is almost inescapable that Cygnus X1 is a black hole," said Dr. Ricardo Giacconi of Boston's American Science and Engineering Laboratory. Agreeing with him was Dr. J.P. Ostriker of Princeton University.

They spoke at the California Institute of Technology to a meeting of the high energy astrophysics division of the American Astronomical Society.

Einstein said that when a very large star had burned up all its hydrogen, it would "implode" — collapse inward with explosive force—compressing its matter into an extremely dense mass.

This enormously heavy material would create a gravitational field so strong that even light rays would be swallowed up in it. Light approaching it would either escape the clutches of the field by passing around it, or be absorbed by it—creating a "hole" in space where no light exists.

The problem for astronomers has been how to look for something that is invisible.

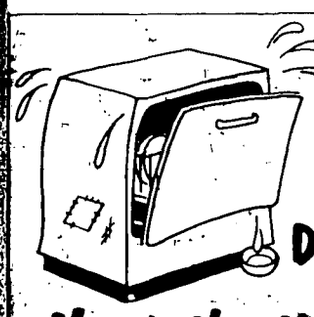

Scientists believe the black holes would emit X-rays, would be massive—at least three times the mass of Earth's sun —and would be detectable as part of a binary system, in which two objects orbit around a common center. By examining the orbit of the visible star of the binary, the existence of the other half can be determined.

Cygnus X1, a recently discovered source in the constellation Cygnus of weak X-rays, seems to meet that definition, Giacconi told more than 200 scientists attending the meeting.

It is the first known "black hole," he said "providing that a blue super giant star that is near it actually is linked with it as part of a binary system."

Scientists believe the dark, imploded masses are so dense they may contain as much as half of all the matter in the universe, hidden within a shell of invisibility.

Processing plans told

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)— American prisoners of war released by North Vietnam will be sent to three processing centers in the Pacific for an indefinite period, it was reported Friday.

In a copyrighted story, the San Diego Union said the POWs would first be sent to Guam, Okinawa and the Philippines where they would be met by processing teams.

The major consideration for all returned POWs would be their physical condition, the report said. Depending on that factor, they could be kept at the overseas sites for "a week, 10 days or longer," the paper quoted a military spokesman as saying.

Once cleared for return to the United States, the men would be flown on Air Force C-141 medical evacuation aircraft to Travis and Norton Air Force Bases in California. They would then be transferred to the military hospital of their service branch nearest their home.

The report said a site already had been decided on for each man and that military specialists at each site were preparing a packet for each.

The packets would contain a new uniform, shoes, socks and other personal items, and each man's military records.

The processing sites will be manned by joint service teams of doctors, nurses, chaplains, psychiatrists and legal experts. A fellow serviceman who knows the POW also would greet him and would personally escort him back to the United States.

ROAD IMPROVEMENT in the area of Senter Lake where spring flood problems will be eliminated by a new road grade is currently underway. Here heavy equipment of Western - Construction, Inc., contractor, works on new grade. The contract is in excess of $.5 million and covers 6.1 miles.

New grade built

Senter Lake area route improved

SHOSHONE — Work is underway on construction of 6.1 miles of State Highway 24 in the Senter Lake area.

Idaho Highway Department officials say the improvement project runs from the present end of the pavement, two miles west of Kimama, to the west, until it intercepts the Senter Lake area.

The contract was awarded Oct. 11, 1972, to Western Construction, Inc., Boise. It includes grading crushed base and surface treatment. The contract is in the amount of $538,601.

When completed the road will provide a higher grade through the Senter Lake area where floods have caused damage for several years during spring weather.

Highway officials say the contractor hopes to complete grading and part of the crushed base work this fall.

Improvement along this area from Shoshone through Minidoka to Rupert has long been planned. Records indicate the desert trail from Shoshone through Dietrich and Minidoka to American Falls was designated as part of the Roosevelt Highway as early at 1919.

As of Dec. 31, 1930, the section from Minidoka to American Falls was dropped and replaced with the Minidoka-Rupert road.

Grading from Shoshone to Dietrich was completed in 1929 with oiling in 1938. Since that time oiling contracts from Kimama toward Minidoka have been completed in 1964 and 1967.

Grading of the road between Dietrich and Kimama was completed in 1959.

When the present contract is complete it will leave 18.8 miles east of Deitrich without oiled surface. A five-year plan is on the department of highways schedule for completing the improvement as funding is available.

Voter turnout estimate given

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Census Bureau estimates that if 61 per cent of the Americans eligible to register to vote cast ballots in the Nov. 7 general election, the total turnout would be about 85 million.

The bureau estimated that as of Nov. 1 the total number of persons of voting age —18 or older —will be 139,563,000.

The most recent census estimate of the 1968 presidential election turnout was 60.7 per cent, based on a vote of 73,026,000 and a voting age population of 120,285,000 at the time.

The 1968 turnout estimate was lower than either of the two previous presidential elections: 62.9 per cent in 1964 and 64 per cent in 1960.

An estimated 11,462,000 persons aged 18, 19 and 20 were given the right to vote by the 26th Amendment to the Constitution. Another 14,213,000 persons will be aged 21, 22, 23 and 24 on Nov. 1 and eligible to cast their first presidential vote. This provides a new voter pool of 25,675,000 this year.

US sending arms shipment to Viet

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The United States is racing to send arms shipments to South Vietnam in advance of any cease-fire agreement which would cut off further reinforcements, Defense Department officials said Friday.

Pentagon spokesman Jerry W. Friedheim told reporters: "The other side has not stopped its infiltration and resupply efforts and we have not either."

Asked if the U.S. military aid program was being speeded up, Friedheim replied: "It has not been decelerated."

Other Defense Department officials expressed concern however that there may not be enough time before a cease-fire to deliver aircraft needed by the South Vietnamese to expand their own air force.

The tentative agreement outlined by Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, would limit weapons sent into South Vietnam after a cease-fire by either Hanoi or the United States to "one for one" replacements that are "comparable" to the arms being replaced.

South Vietnam is dependent on the outside world for all its weapons —even rifles and ammunition. Officials said the United States would certainly try to get as much useful material into South Vietnamese hands as possible before the deadline but noted that little time is probably left before a cease-fire goes into effect.

"There are logistics problems. We can't just snap our fingers and make weapons materialize in South Vietnam," one official said.

Congress approved last month delivery of 72 F5E fighters to Saigon but the first F5E will not come off the production line until next February. That means there is little chance any can be delivered before a cease-fire.

In a move that anticipated a possible cease-fire, the United States turned over to the South Vietnamese Wednesday about eight A37 attack planes.

Friedheim said at the moment "very rough statistics" show the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong controlling 2 to 3 per cent of South Vietnam's population, Saigon controlling 90 to 95 per cent, and the remainder contested.

Amtrak cancels Florida special but doubles NY-Florida service

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Amtrak said Friday it would double its New York-Florida passenger train service this winter but it cancelled a winter season tradition of 84 years, the Florida Special.

Amtrak's new winter timetable features four New York-Florida trains beginning Dec. 15 instead of the present two, and a speedup in the schedules of several other trains. But absent was the Florida Special, one of the country's most famous passenger trains.

Instead, Amtrak will upgrade one of its present trains, the Silver Meteor, to include many of the features that made the Special popular with Florida travellers, including fashion shows, games, movies and candlelight dining with complimentary champagne.

The Florida Special made its first run in 1868 on a 30-hour New York-Miami schedule, just six hours slower than the fastest present train.

Described as "unbelievable for its time," the train advertised "incandescent lights, steam heat and closed passageways between cars." It was the first all-electrically lighted train, featuring cut glass chandeliers, mirrors and many other luxury items of its day.

In recent years, as passenger train service declined, the Florida Special was one of railroading's success stories. It ran full during most trips on a 24-hour schedule between mid-December and mid-April.

An Amtrak spokesman said the corporation wanted to experiment with a new 6:35 p.m. train from New York, to be called the Vacationer, and did not believe there would be enough traffic to support yet another train like the Special. Also, it was not believed the 6:35 p.m. train would be luxurious enough to take on the Special's name.

In addition to the Vacationer, which will go to Miami, Amtrak will run the Silver Meteor to Miami, the Champion to St. Petersburg and the Silver Star which will divide and go to both Miami and St. Petersburg.

Presently only the Silver Meteor and the Silver Star are running, each splitting and going to both coasts of Florida.

Amtrak said that beginning Oct. 29, it would speed up its Chicago-Florida service by one hour and 25 minutes northbound and one hour southbound.

Lady Bird presented award

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Lady Bird Johnson Friday was presented the third annual Damon Woods Memorial Award by the Industrial Designers Society of America for her "conspicuous contributions to the betterment of the environment."

The award was presented by IDSA Vice President F. Eugene Smith in ceremonies shortly after noon. Smith cited the former First Lady for her "successful efforts in drawing national and international attention to the manmade visual pollution—for leading the way and encouraging everyone to become involved in correcting the problem."

"Count me in with those on the front line of any war on ugliness," Mrs. Johnson said in accepting the award. "I applaud the efforts of the Industrial Designers Society of America in their campaigns and hope we can all look forward to the combined efforts of industrial designers, architects, and landscape architects for a more beautiful total environment."

Previous winners of the award were the American Institute of Architects and the state of Vermont.

End asked for syphilis study

WASHINGTON (UPI) —A citizens' panel recommended Friday —and the government promptly agreed —to end immediately a Public Health Service study of the effects of untreated syphilis among Alabama black men which resulted in at least 28 deaths.

In its first report to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the nine-member group headed by Dr. Vernal G. Cave, director of the New York City Bureau of Venereal Disease Control, also urged that the estimated 125 survivors of the 40-year-old study be treated for syphilis if required.

"The study of untreated syphilis in black males in Macon County, Ala., now known as the Tuskegee Syphilis Study, should be terminated immediately," the panel said in a preliminary report two months after it was appointed by HEW.

Dr. Merlin K. Duval, assistant HEW secretary for health and science, issued a statement promising that "we will do everything within our power to implement this first recommendation as rapidly as possible."

Autopsies to determine the effects of untreated syphilis were discontinued several months ago, effectively ending the controversial study.

When it began in 1932 in rural Alabama, the study involved more than 400 black men with syphilis and another 200 who did not have the disease and were used for comparisons. An estimated 50 of the survivors were in the noninfected group.

During the experiment at least 28 men are known to have died of syphilis, and possibly as many as 100.

The panel, appointed Aug. 24, was asked to determine by the end of the year whether the study was ever justified, whether it should have been continued when penicillin became available, and whether present federal policies governing use of humans in medical research are adequate.

Duval had asked the panel to "recommend whether studies should be continued...and if not, how it should be terminated in a way consistent with the rights and health needs of its remaining participants."

Signs 18 bills

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Nixon signed 18 bills Friday, including three major measures covering defense appropriations and a military spending authorization.

He also signed the appropriations bill for the State Department, Commerce and the Judiciary and the American Bicentennial Commission appropriation bill plus a measure to provide expanded protection for foreign officials.

Most of the other bills dealt with historic landmarks and certain conservation projects.

The President's chief domestic adviser, John D. Ehrlichman, said Nixon was working on a backlog of 132 bills Congress sent to the White House just before it adjourned. He said actions on more bills will be announced.

Significant

SAIGON (UPI) — The Oct. 31 date picked by North Vietnam for signing a treaty to end the Vietnam war is doubly significant for the people of South Vietnam and especially President Nguyen Van Thieu.

Thieu was sworn into office on Oct. 31, 1967, for the first of his two four-year terms.

The last day of October has been inauguration day for all Vietnamese leaders since the overthrow of Ngo Dinh Diem in 1963. Diem's last day in office was Oct. 31.

GIANT PUMPKINS: Each year the Men's Garden Club of America sends out free pumpkin seeds to children to encourage them to take a greater interest in horticulture. It's a great idea as it helps to educate youth about the art of growing plants as an aid to ecology.

We'd like to know what size pumpkins you raised. The present contest record has stood since 1968 when Lynn and Susan Price of Marietta, Ga., won with a whopping 235-pound Hungarian squash.

The largest pumpkin I've seen weighed 192 pounds. Getting giant pumpkins to the weigh-in station is no easy task because it takes a couple people to lift one and a pickup truck to haul it. Let's hear from our pumpkin fans.

Often it runs along the ground sending up short leafy shoots. Poison ivy spreads by roots and seeds from clusters of waxy white berries.

The most distinguishing characteristic of poison ivy is its three leaves.

CONTROL: A few stems can be eradicated by hand pulling. USE RUBBER GLOVES. Do not burn the vines as the smoke is toxic. Aerosol preparations are availale for small patches.

Some gardeners drench the vines with old motor oil or kerosene. An efficient weedkiller for completely killing the poison ivy is Amitrole, sold under many common names such as Amino Triazole, Amitrol-T, Amizol, etc.

ORANGE TREE CARE: Are the leaves of your orange or other citrus plants shedding? This often happens after the plants are brought indoors. Usually the air is too hot and dry and the plants do not adjust themselves to the new environment.

All citrus plants like cool temperaures from 40 to 50 degrees at night during the winter months. They also need full sun and an air location. Dropping of buds, flowers and small fruits can also be due to a lack of light, improper watering (too much or too little).

Seedlings of all citrus are capricious as to time of blooming, some taking 10 years or less. Grafted types bear and flower indoors, where as those started from seed will flower but do not bear heavily. If fruit is borne on plants started from seed its very sour.

Grow the ponderosa lemon (Citrus limonia ponderosa), a fine house plant with large edible fruit weighing over a half-pound.

WEATHER KILL BUGS? Does a drought or unusually cold winter weather kill off insects? Unfortunately, weather is not a reliable means of insect control.

Hot dry sun might kill off some tender newly hatched insects, but usually they can weather it out. And cold weather has no effect.

Tests show that cold weather as low as 25 degrees below zero cause little or no harm to insects in plant debris near or in contact with the soil, nor to those overwintering in the soil.

It should be mentioned that weather might play a role in insect control locally. For example, if the weather turns cold, windy and rainy during or immediately after the hatching period, some pests might not survive.

BROWN SYCAMORE TREES: If the leaves of your sycamore tree turned brown and dropped in early spring, this is a reminder to gather any leaves on the ground and burn them. Sycamore anthracnose, a fungus disease, is responsible for the burning and dropping of leaves in spring.

FIRE THORN BERRIES BLACKENED: We've had many reports of late dealing with blackened berries of the fire thorn or pyracantha. This handsome evergreen shrub is susceptible to a fungus disease called scab.

First, leaves get a dark, sooty appearance, then they turn yellow and drop. Also the berries turn black and drop.

Control: Since the fungus overwinters on twigs and leaves, you should use a dormant spray of lime sulfur just before growth starts in spring and just before the blooms open.

By the way, you can start new plants from your fire thorn bush. Next summer take cuttings 2-5 inches long, and insert them close together in a cold frame. Water them well and shade them from hot sun.

Cuttings will be ready for potting in early October. Some people take cuttings now and put them in a cold frame, but the percentage of takes is not so high as when you take cuttings in August.

PRESERVING BERRIES: If you want to cut bittersweet and other berries for indoor arrangements a simple spray will prevent the fruits from shattering.

Mix up some clear or white shellac with an equal amount of alcohol, either wood alcohol or the kind sold in paint stores for thinning lacquer. Shellac alone can be used, but alcohol cuts it enough to make the coating almost invisible on stems and berries. Dip the berried branches in the mixture and hang them up to dry. Colorless nail polish works just s well but it costs too much. Also some women use hair spray and it works great for holding berries.

QUESTION BOX

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: E. D. of Twin Falls: "We raised a lot of sage this year but now wonder what can be done with the leaves."

Some people think that sage is our most popular herb. Old timers tell you that it is the herb of health and of the aged. An old French saying goes: 'Sage helps the nerves and by its powerful might, palsy is cured and fever put to flight."

The Chinese use it to strengthen the gums and to whiten teeth; also we're told it was used as a wash to darken gray hair.

One reader of this paper writes; 'Years ago I was troubled with boils. I went to several specialists but they couldn't cure me. One day a friend told me about sage tea made by adding a few leaves in a quart of boiling water. I took a tablespoon before breakfast for two weeks and it cured my boils, I'm 80 years old and have never had a boil since that time."

You can use leaves of common sage in sandwiches, souffles, stuffings, or dried in sausages, pork and poultry.

A. E. of Declo: 'We have a prayer plant which is different from the one our neighbor has. Please tell us how to care for it."

There are two plants often called "prayer plants." One is called Calathea, with leaves rather broad and pointed at the tip. They have a rhyzome-like root system with leaves arising from the crown.

The other prayer plant is Maranta, a close relative of Calathea. At night the leaves fold up, hence the common name of prayer plant. One Maranta has rows of brownish to dark green blotches in a row, hence the common name of "rabbit-track plant."

Culture for both is same. They like a light, humusy soil (one-third each sand, peat and loam), warm room temperature both day and night (about 70 degrees). Keep soil uniformly moistened, never soggy. Also avoid temperature drop below 50 degrees since these plants are tropical. Start new plants by dividing the tuberous roots in spring.

Cheap lottery

SAN JUAN (UPI)—For 48 weeks a year residents of Puerto Rico can participate in the government-operated lottery for as little as 25 cents. This buys a fraction of a $20 full ticket that can win as much as $100,000. But for four weeks of the year the drawing is called "The Big One," with fractions costing $1 and a full ticket $80. The top prize is $400,000.

DARCIE HOLBROOK
. . . displays poster

Students give opinions on favorite candidates

TWIN FALLS — It won't be until the 1980 presidential election that 27 sixth grade students at Lincoln Elementary School in Twin Falls can vote.

But the youngsters, mostly 11 years of age, have been studying the presidential election process and, except for one middle of the roader who thinks "they're both good," the kids have definite opinions about who should be the next president of the United States.

Out of the class of 27 instructed by Mrs. Joy Wright, 19 are for President Richard M. Nixon's re-election, while seven favor George McGovern's candidacy and one is undecided.

Mrs. wright has included study of elections and presidents of the United States as a diversion from regular classroom studies this year and she said the children are "very interested" in it.

They all have made posters boosting their favorite candidate or urging people to get out and vote.

Each of the students was asked to cast a mock vote for his favorite candidate and then tell why he would vote in that manner if he were presently 18 years of age.

Many of the youngsters who favor McGovern seem to feel the Democratic candidate will have most, if not all, U. S. servicemen serving in Vietnam home within 90 days.

Another candid young woman just simply doesn't like much at all about President Nixon. "Nixon has a big nose and I don't like people with big noses. He hasn't done the world any good," wrote Elsa Rodriguez.

Becky Massie feels McGovern is a "real good man and he said he would have all the troops out of Vietnam in 90 days and I think he's going to promise us that."

Richard Bullock feels McGovern should "have a chance because he said he would have all men out of the war and I think he will do it because I believe him . . . because he wouldn't lie to the people of the United States."

Kelly Tankersley is in favor of Sen. McGovern because he has said he would get everybody who was capable of working a job. "Welfare costs a lot of money," Kelly said.

Steven Williamson also believes McGovern can do "wonders for welfare." He believes it costs $3,000 to run welfare. McGovern would run welfare through the internal revenue. Everyone that could work would or they wouldn't get paid a cent."

Mike LeClair is one of the 19 children which weighed the class' ballot count in favor of President Nixon. He would vote "for Nixon because McGovern wants us to go to school all the time."

Angie Holland would vote for Nixon for president because "I think he will do his job. He went to China to talk and went to other countries. He got some of the men home from war. This is what we want . . . and to be free for evermore . . . and to have a chance to vote."

"I would vote for Nixon because I think he is trying hard to impress the world and I think he is doing a good job of it," said Robert Lancaster.

"If I were 18 I would think that Nixon would be more better than McGovern. Since I am 11," said Shelley Doty, "I think that Nixon is more better."

Shauna Stephans said she would vote for Nixon because she is a Republican and "I think he would be a good president."

Susan Sweet also is in favor of re-electing the President. "I believe he can bring back our prisoners of war and can find for us world peace."

Many of the pro-Nixon contingent in Room 11-N of Lincoln school ranked their favorite's honesty as a key point. "I think he is a very honest man and will really change things now" . . . "I think he would do what he said, that he would be trying to bring most of our men back in 90 days" . . . "he has made many promises and I think he will keep them, at least most of them" . . . "because he cares about us and keeps his promises."

Book Review

By ARLAN CALL
Twin Falls Librarian

TWIN FALLS — The novel "August 1914" by Alexander Solzhenitsyn is most likely his greatest work to date.

And, we are told, it is merely the first installment in a 20 year, multi-volume work which is to review the development of Soviet Russia.

Solzhenitsyn was awarded the 1970 Nobel Prize for Literature. His earlier major novels have all been realtively recent views of post World War II Soviet Russia.

"One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich;" "Cancer Ward," and "First Circle."

Here, in his first real departure from that pattern, he limits attention to a two-week period in August of 1914.

The novel vividly portrays the panorama of a nation being thrust toward change as Tsarist Russia becomes embroiled in World War I.

Though numerically superior, it is apparent from the beginning that the Russian war effort must fail.

Staggering Russia losses (20,000 killed and 70,000 wounded-captured in the battle for Tannenburg alone) result as entreaties to God and Mother Russia prove to be too little for an outmoded system of warfare and government.

The bungling of an inept, overrated command structure serves to speed the carnage along.

Solzhenitsyn's omnipresent (though fictional) character, Colonel Vorotyntsev, provides us with firsthand and historically accurate, views of the rotten core of an entire army's hierarchy.

He flits from command post, to battlefield, to general headquarters.

His audience finds itself highly sympathetic to his plight as he attempts, individually, to correct and reverse the mounting folly of his several principle officers.

One suspects that we will hear considerably more of Vorotyntsev and of several other potentially fascinating characters briefly introduced but not disposed of in this novel.

If Solzhenitsyn does live long enough (and is allowed to continue) to add to this "first fascicle" of 600 pages, the total work will rival Tolstoy's "War and Peace" as the pre-eminent Russian historical novel.

Widespread predictions are already being voiced that Solzhenitsyn may prove to be the most important writer of the 20th century.

The quality of this work and the long-range intent of the author cause this reviewer to look anxiously for further installments.

CHAIRMAN of the Twin Falls Altrusa Club's international living committee, Marie Sanders, right, welcomes Margrit Jenny, Switzerland, to the club's Thursday meeting. Miss Jenny, featured speaker, is in the United States on the Youth for Understanding program and resides with the Roger Vincent family in Filer.

TWIN FALLS — Members of the Twin Falls Altrusa Club were taken on an armchair tour of Switzerland during their Thursday meeting at the home of Adele Stoddard.

Narrating the tour was Margrit Jenny, Switzerland, Youth for Understanding student residing this year with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Vincent and family, Filer.

Miss Jenny showed slides and told of her family, customs, schooling and country. Miss Jenny noted she is a senior at Filer High School, but will have two more years of high school when she returns to Switzerland.

She plans to go on to college and become a pediatrician.

Several money raising projects were discussed, with a contest between two club teams slated on napkin sales ending in January. Carolyn Pence and Marie Sanders will head the two teams.

A board meeting is set Nov. 9 at the home of Virginia Bancroft and the regular dinner meeting Nov. 14 at the Colonial House at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Bancroft, president, was in charge of the business session, with Faye McGuire as co-hostess.

Raise funds

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI)— Sigma Delta Chi, the professional journalism society, has launched a nationwide campaign to raise legal funds for newsman Peter J. Bridge, who was imprisoned for 20 days for failing to divulge news sources.

Dick Fogel of the Oakland Tribune, chairman of SDX's Freedom of Information Committee, said Thursday that several chapters and individuals "already got the jump on us" in proving financial aid to Bridge, reporter for the defunct Newark News.

Fogel commended Bridge for having the courage to stand up "against the coercive power of contempt" in defense of press freedom.

At the time of his arrest, Bridge said, "It's time somebody took a stand. I cannot betray my own principles."

Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am so happy about a recent victory, I have to share it with someone.

About two years ago I started taking "diet pills" to control my appetite. They made me feel so great. Too great. That was the trouble. Before I knew it I was taking so many I stopped counting. I was hooked and didn't know how to get off them and still function daily. [I am a registered nurse and should have known better.] I was averaging four to five hours of sleep at night and I was ruining my family life with my impatience, irritability and tenseness.

'High' on being free

Finally one morning my head was reeling from exhaustion and too many pills and I couldn't remember whether I had bathed the kids before I put them to bed. I knew I had to have help, and then I did something I hadn't done in years. I prayed. And by God [literally] somehow I found the courage to take those pills and flush them all down the toilet.

I'd be lying if I said the next few weeks were easy. More than once I was tempted to get more pills, but I prayed for the strength to keep me from it.

It's been months since I've taken a pill and I feel like a new person. I am "high" on being free from artificial stimulation which has to end in a depression.

I know this is too long to print, but please try to find room in your column for some of it, Abby. I'm sure there are others who are hooked as badly as I was, and if I can kick the habit with prayer, so can they. Thank you.

BORN AGAIN IN LOUISVILLE

DEAR BORN: Your inspiring message is well worth fitting into my column. The power of prayer can move mountains.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old girl, but my mother calls me a "baby elephant." I don't know how much I weigh because I'm afraid to get on a scale. I've tried to stay away from sweets and fattening things, but I always fall back in my old ways.

I asked my mother to send me to a doctor who would put me on a diet and she said, "I am not laying out money for any doctor. You are not sick, you are just a big pig, and all you need is willpower.

Abby, I know my willpower is weak, but I just have to do something about my weight. All my girl friends have boys walk them home from school and call them up and I don't have anybody. And it looks like I'm never going to get anybody the way I am. Can you help me? FATSO

DEAR FATSO: For openers, I respectfully disagree with your mother. The only sensible and safe way to lose weight is to go to a doctor for a complete physical and a prescribed diet. My advice to you is to offer to pay for the doctor's visit. You can earn the money baby sitting or doing chores if you really want to. Good luck. And I want a progress report from you.

DEAR ABBY: Grandfather was worried because his 5-year-old grandson was flying alone by plane from one coast to the other. He said, "the boy needs more than a couple of stewardesses who do nothing but grin at him like a couple of Cheshire cats."

Has he ever seen Cheshire cats deal with skyjackers, bomb threats, or passengers who are sightless, hard-of-hearing, crippled or drunk? Has a Cheshire cat ever given oxygen or dealt with any number of medical emergencies such as heart attack, seizure, or the premature birth of a baby? Has he ever seen a Cheshire cat carry luggage, change diapers, warm bottles and play games with children, or relieve the anxiety of an elderly passenger on her first flight?

It's my opinion that the boy would be safer in the care of a stewardess than with his grandfather. Or hasn't grandpa got all his marbles? STEWARDESS

DEAR STEWARDESS: Grandpa probably has all his marbles, but he doesn't have all his facts. Thanks for filling him in.

Problems? Trust Abby. For a personal reply, write to ABBY, BOX 69700, L. A., CALIF. 90069 and enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

Becky Shebley, Chandler marry

TWIN FALLS. — Becky Shebley became the bride of Tim Chandler in an Oct. 14 ceremony at the Carillon Wedding and Reception Center.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an empire styled gown made for her by Debbie-Robbins. The dress featured a satin bodice and sleeves. The three-tier gathered full skirt was of satin with a miramist nylon overskirt trimmed with embroidered lace.

Mrs. Clifton Shebley, Twin Falls, stepmother of the bride, played contemporary wedding music on the organ. Sherry Shebley, Clarkston, Wash., sister of the bride, was soloist.

Rachel and Judith Shebley, Clarkston, Wash., sisters of the bride, were candlelighters. Heidi Shebley, Twin Falls, sister of the bride, was flower girl.

Mrs. Randy G. Powell, Renton, Wash., was matron of honor, and Debbie Robbins, Twin Falls, was maid of honor.

Mark Huston, Filer, was best man and Randy Shank, Filer, was groomsman. Ushers were Mike Chandler, cousin of the bridegroom, Greg Lanting and Warren Lassen, all Filer.

Arlene Garrison, Buhl, was in charge of the guest book. Danna Clark and Sherry Shebley carried and displayed gifts.

Guest tables were covered with white lace over blue and were each centered with a blue daisy floating in a brandy snifter encircled with yellow net.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith, stepfather and mother of the bridegroom, hosted a rehearsal brunch at their home in Filer.

Special guests attending from out-of-town included Mrs. Lillian Shebley, mother of the bride, and Sherry, Rachel and Judith Shebley, sisters of the bride, all Clarkston, Wash., and Thomas L. Chandler, father of the bridegroom, Costa Mesa, Calif.

Other out-of-town guests attended from Renton, Wash., Boise and Pocatello.

Visit country friends

By MARJORIE LIERMAN
Times-News writer

FILER — Why not visit one of your friends in the country this Halloween?

Our town, like most others, has an avalanche of small "trick or treaters" swarming down its main streets on Halloween eve.

Many hosts and hostesses run out of treats early in the evening and must make repeated trips to the store for reinforcements.

At the same time, in many country homes, plates of homemade goodies stand practically untouched as very few small visitors stop by the homes.

I have had a number of young mothers tell me that each year they eagerly wait for Halloween, hoping they will have a good share of small goblins and ghosts stop by to demand treats, only to be disappointed when very few, if any, do come.

Of course the children get larger bagsful of candy and treats by stopping at only the town houses but most of them end up with more than they can eat anyway.

Why not compromise this year? Take the children to town for a short time to get their treats and then drive out to several country friends' homes too.

They will enjoy seeing you.

Opening lead — ♣ 8

By Oswald & James Jacoby

We are indebted to Eric Jennersten for this beautiful play, which is best described as a three-suit, criss-cross squeeze.

You don't have to approve of the bidding if you don't want to but you do find yourself in six hearts against a club lead. You also remember that East put in a vulnerable overcall and it looks as if he will hold all the high cards.

You have 11 easy tricks and a 12th if diamonds break 4-3, so you take dummy's ace of clubs and ace of diamonds, ruff a diamond and lead a trump.

East is in with the ace and leads a third diamond. You ruff this high and get the bads news about that suit.

Don't give up. If East holds the king of spades he belongs to you. You enter dummy with the queen of trumps, discard one spade on the king of diamonds, ruff a club and run off all your trumps but one to leave dummy with the ace of spades, seven of diamonds and queen of clubs while you hold queen-five of spades and one trump.

East has to hold the king of clubs and a high diamond. He must chuck his 10 of spades.

Now you simply lead a spade to dummy's ace, dropping East's king. That leaves your last trump and spade queen good for the last two tricks.

Campus equality prevails

United Press International

Women are marching toward equality on campus this fall to a hup-two-three-four cadence.

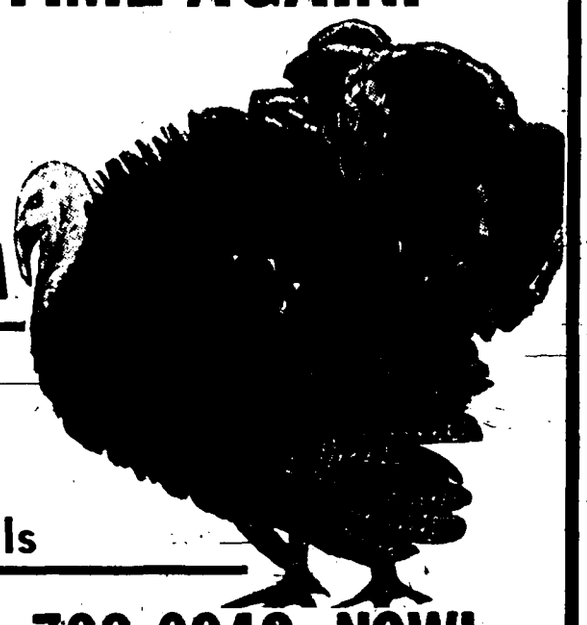

For the first time in its history, the Army ROTC has enrolled coeds on 10 of the 293 campuses on which its military science curriculum is offered.

More than 200 coeds so far have joined up, and the figures are not yet complete. If the girls stay with the program they will be eligible for the scholarships—and the Army commissions—until now reserved only for male students. The Air Force has had ROTC women for several years and Army ROTC units had auxiliaries, "cadets" or mascots who participated in part of the program but were not eligible for scholarships and commissions.

The Army ROTC speaks of its coed program as a "limited test for women." An ROTC spokesman in New York explained that his organization wanted to "get the feel of input and output"

MV trick or treat for UNICEF slated

A member of the Nobel Committee made the remark when UNICEF was awarded the Nobel Prize for Peace in 1965.

Magic Valley young people of through college ages will participate in the annual Halloween "Trick or Treat for UNICEF" drive again this year. In addition to groups which have taken part in the past, Circle K, a College of Southern Idaho service club will participate for the first time.

Other young people's organizations participating will be the First Baptist Youth Fellowship, the Valley Christian Church Youth, the Episcopal Young People, the Methodist Youth Fellowships of Twin Falls, Kimberly and Murtaugh, the United Presbyterian Youth of Twin Falls. Twin Falls High School and Robert Stuart Junior High School Future Homemakers of America Clubs, the Twin Falls Key Club, the Interact Club, St. Edward's Third Grade CCD Class, Troop 511 Cadet Girl Scouts and the Lincoln School Sixth grade.

Students will be collecting in some areas on Sunday and in other areas on Halloween evening.

Most UNICEF assistance is in the form of needed equipment with over one third of its aid supporting the training of local teachers, health workers and other personnel.

Responsibility is shared by UNICEF and the developing country receiving assistance. On the average, the assisted nation spend $2.50 for every dollar UNICEF spends on its child care programs.

Through the sharing of responsibility and because UNICEF selects projects which can serve as models for more extensive national efforts, UNICEF aid acts as a catalyst, stimulating programs the countries can carry on for their own children.

For over 25 years, the funding for these programs has been entirely voluntary — by governments and private organizations and individuals who support UNICEF. The trick or treat collection on Halloween has been an important and growing source of income with nearly $3.5 million collected last year.

Jewelry makers are jubiliant about fall's shorter hairstyles. The short hair calls for more frequent wearing of earrings. The jewelry people are saying "happy ears are here again."

Coffee hour

EDEN — Mrs. Orval (June) Hansen will attend a coffee hour at 10:30 a.m. Monday at the country home of Mrs. Henry C. (Eunice) Jones.

Anyone in the Jerome County or surrounding areas is welcome to come to meet with Mrs. Hansen.

The Jones home is located three miles east of Eden on Highway 25. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Bill Detweiler, Mrs. Emil Martens, Mrs. Calvin Jones and Mrs. Don McFarland.

Increase home 'living power'

BURLEY — See your home in a new light, urges Mrs. Joan Parr, extension home economist for Cassia County.

You can increase the "living power" of your rooms by careful lighting, she adds.

Lighting must be planned primarily for function. You need one watt of general lighting per square foot of floor space, Mrs. Parr explains. This means an average living room 12 by 20 feet should have at least five lamps if eacn provides 50 watts of light.

Arrange your lamps to distribute light evenly throughout the room. Lamp wattage should be flexible to provide high intensity lighting when needed.

A reading corner needs a lamp which gives 150 to 200 watts of light. The light should originate at reader's eye level about 15 inches to one side of the center of reading matter.

Fancy That

By Norma Herzinger

TWIN FALLS — The household can sure change when one of the brood moves away from home.

It seems strange now — when only a few short weeks ago my house was alive with activity — constantly — constantly — constantly. College-age young people in and out of the house, someone on the telephone continuously, the television, radio and stereo all on at the same time, and the bathroom always occupied.

At one time we even had quite a game going. As I look back on it now — it really was kinda fun. I don't know where we first heard about this game if we read it somewhere, or someone told us, nevertheless, we decided each one had to take her turn at being a nobody.

I lived through years of nobody wearing my last pair of pantyhose without asking. I endured nobody leaving the faucet running in the bathroom. I have seen many times when nobody ate the last cracker in the box and put the empty box back on the shelf.

Nobody turns the thermostat up and forgets to turn it down at night. Nobody leaves the lid off the toothpaste. Nobody loaned my good blouse to her friend. Nobody shoved things under the bed when sweeping the bedroom floor. And lo and behold, nobody leaves the garage door open.

It was always very obvious that nobody did these things, but never quite as easy to determine just which nobody it was. So, we decided we would take turns each week. When it's your turn, you take blame for everything.

My youngest daughter, Susan, really caught it her first week when the car was backed over the water hose and broke it — and she doesn't even drive.

That same week the garden tools were left out in the yard; the lid was not put on the garbage can and a dog scattered trash all over the lawn; a "wash by hand" shirt was put in the washing machine, and the freezer door was left open.

She assured us "we would get ours." And we did. Mysterious things happened all the time. But we did learn something. What could have been real argument provoking situations became very amusing — simply because nobody did it.

Cassia hospital sponsors breakfast

BURLEY — Burley doctors' office workers met Thurday at a breakfast sponsored by Cassia Memorial Hospital to discuss hospital procedures and patients' needs.

An instructional meeting, directed by Gerald Anderson, hospital comptroler, included a demonstration by Mrs. Clara Pickinpaugh, hospital business manager.

She listed steps to be taken by those entering the hospital including completion of a pre-admission and insurance claim forms.

Patients not having approved insurance must pay an admission deposit, Mrs. Pickinpaugh said. At admission all patients must sign a statement of financial responsibility, she said.

Workers were also instructed to inform patients that they should bring personal toiletries to the hospital.

TF woman, Boise man play leads

MARY WALKER
. . . plays Carmen

TWIN FALLS — Mary Walker, Twin Falls, and Samuel Thompson, Boise, will sing the title roles in the Opera, "Carmen", slated for Nov. 3 and 4 at the CSI Fine Arts Center.

Mrs. Walker will sing the title role of "Carmen," a beautiful and sensuous woman who plays at love when ever it is expedient or when someone takes her fancy.

Once she has hopelessly snared Don Jose (and caused the ruin of his career), she finds him dull compared to the exciting toreador, Escamillo.

Thompson will sing the lead male role of Don Jose, a handsome young Spanish guardsman who is attracted to the gypsy, Carmen, who is being held for arrest by him for a stabbing.

He frees her and later follows her to a mountainous hideout where she and her friends are acting as lures for a band of smugglers. His childhood sweetheart, Micaela, finds her way to him and begs him to return to his mother who is dying.

Mrs. Walker was born and raised in New York. She attended the Juilliard School of Music and the Baden Conservatory in Germany.

Before marrying the local attorney, Lloyd Walker, she was a professional singer. She has worked in all mediums as a singer on Broadway, in television and opera.

Locally, people have seen Mrs. Walker in such Dilettante productions as "Annie Get Your Gun," "South Pacific" and "My Fair Lady."

In Boise she has sung with the Boise Philharmonic doing Beethoven's "Ninth Symphony" and the lead of Mimi in "La Boheme."

She also sang a pops concert with the Boise Philharmonic. Besides singing locally, she teaches voice and keeps busy raising the Walkers' four children.

Thompson, tenor, has gained acclaim both here in the United States and abroad. Many operatic successes were scored in Europe by the Idaho-born tenor.

He appeared on numerous opera stages including some of the largest in Germany. He sang 20 performances of the opera, "Faust."

Thompson is well known throughout Southern California, having sung with many of the opera companies, including the Los Angeles Opera Co.

He has done numerous performances in concert, oratorios, opera and light operas throughout U. S. and Canada, Mexico and Europe.

He has been a Metroplitan Opera Auditions Regional Winner saveral times.

He holds a B. A. degree from BYU, he did graduate work at University of Southern California and holds an M. A. degree from the Claremont Graduate School.

In Boise he performed the Boise Philharmonic and sang the leading role in the Opera Guild's production of "Cavelleria Rusticana." He recently moved to Boise and resides there with his wife and four children.

"Carmen" will open at 8 p.m. Nov. 3, with the second performance at 8 p.m. Nov. 4. There will be a student matinee Nov. 6 at 1:30 p.m.

The opera is sponsored by the Twin Falls Music Club, an affiliate of the National Federation of Music Clubs, and the College of Southern Idaho. Tickets are on sale now at all the music stores for the evening performances. The student tickets are on sale at all schools throughout Magic Valley.

Idaho State stays unbeaten in Big Sky

Bengals erase 16-0 deficit for 20-16 win

BOZEMAN, (UP) — Idaho State's Bengals jumped into the driver's seat of the Big Sky conference Saturday afternoon with a come-from-behind 20-16 win over Montana State's Bobcats.

The Bobcats dominated the first half and led 16-0 at the intermission on a nine-yard touchdown run by wingback John Hotchkiss, a two yard run by Don Bagley and a 34-yard field goal by freshman Pat Bolton.

	IdahoSt.	Montana
First downs	18	16
Rushes-yards	52-120	51-186
Yards passing	147	121
Return yards	47	27
Passes	10-27-3	8-18-3
Punts	6-32	5-35
Fumbles-lost	0	2
Penalties-yards	50	38

The second half was all Idaho State as the Bobcats committed four turnovers, two fumbles and two interceptions to give the Bengals ideal field positions.

The Bengals' scores came on a one-yard run by Rene Garnett, a 30-yard pass from quarterback Tom Lee to wide receiver Tom Rischer off a fake field goal attempt and two field goals by Steve Bellar.

The Bengals Dave Banko cemented the Bengal victory with an interception in the end zone in the final 16 seconds.

Quarterback Zoonie McLean had driven the Bobcats from their own 32-yard line in the final minute and a half only to see the drive killed by the interception at the five-yard line.

Idaho State is now 5-2 over all and 3-0 in the conference. The Bobcats are 5-3 overall and 4-1 in the Big Sky play.

Frosh helps Irish rip TCU 21-0

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI)— Freshman halfback Art Best ran 57 yards for a touchdown Saturday, his second long scoring dash in two games for Notre Dame, to spark the Irish to a 21-0 victory over Texas Christian in an error-riddled contest.

It was the fifth win in six starts for Notre Dame, ranked 15th nationally this week after a 30-26 defeat by Missouri a week ago, and the defeat was the second against four wins for Texas Christian.

But the Irish couldn't rest comfortably in the match until Best's touchdown scamper midway through the third period when he sailed down the left sideline.

Washington defense beats Cal

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)— Washington's defensive units set up three touchdowns and scored another as the Huskies defeated California, 35-21, Saturday in a wild Pacific-8 football scramble.

Washington capitalized on California's mistakes to score three touchdowns in the second period.

Tony Bonwell intercepted Steve Bartkowski's pass on the Bear 42 and returned it five yards to the 37. On the next play, Husky quarterback Greg Collins passed 37 yards to Scott Loomis for the first score.

Later in the second period, Husky end Murphy McFarland blocked a California punt and Washington took over on the Bear 10. Collins quickly passed 10 yards to halfback Luther Sligh for the touchdown.

Mich. St. and Iowa draw 6-6

IOWA CITY, Iowa (UPI)— Harry Kokolus kicked two field goals Saturday to salvage a 6-6 tie for Iowa with Michigan State.

Both teams suffered from fumbles and interceptions and failed to capitalize on scoring opportunities after the Spartans jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the first quarter.

But Kokolus, who has experienced difficulty in crucial situations throughout the season, converted field goals of 20 and 26 yards to even the score.

The Spartans, who lost five second half fumbles and had a 90-yard punt return nullified by a clipping penalty, opened the scoring on the second series of the game when reserve quarterback George Mihaiu capped a sustained drive on a 9-yard sweep around left end for the score.

Nate leads Kings to win

BUFFALO (UPI) — Nate Archibald scored 34 points Saturday in leading the Kansas City-Omaha Kings to a 113-102 National Basketball Association victory over the Buffalo Braves Saturday night.

The 6-0 graduate of Texas-El Paso started slowly with only four points in the first period, but finished the first half with 12 and added 22 after intermission.

The victory snapped the Kings' two-game losing string and extended Buffalo's skein of setbacks to five. Kansas City-Omaha has a 3-4 record and the Braves now stand at 2-7.

Wildcats top Indiana on bomb

EVANSTON, Ill. (UPI)—Jim Lash caught a deflected pass and went in for an 81-yard touchdown play in the third quarter—the longest completion in Northwestern's history—to boost the Wildcats to a 23-14 victory over Indiana Saturday.

Indiana's Quinn Buckner, a freshman safety, appeared set to intercept the Mitch Anderson pass, but it bounced off his hands at the Hoosier 35-yard line and Lash grabbed it in mid-air without breaking stride.

The play put the Wildcats ahead to stay 17-14 as they scored their first Big Ten victory of the season in the regionally televised game.

Purdue defeats Illinois

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. (UPI)—Fred Cooper returned a punt 74 yards for a touchdown and Frank Conner booted his first two collegiate field goals Saturday to key Purdue's 20-14 Big Ten victory over winless Illinois.

It was Purdue's fourth straight victory and kept the Boilermakers tied for the conference lead. Illinois absorbed its seventh loss in a row.

But the Illini, on the passing of veteran quarterback Mike Wells to split end Garvin Roberson, fought back from a 17-0 deficit in the second half to move to within a touchdown of the Boilermakers.

Utah belts San Diego

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)— The Utah Stars, with big Zelmo Beaty providing the spark when it was needed, ran away from San Diego in the fourth quarter Saturday night for a 132-110 American Basketball Association victory.

The Conquistadors had outplayed Utah in the third quarter and closed what had been a wide Stars lead to just nine points.

Cold but happy

Snow, wind and pretty good hunting greeted Magic Valley hunters when they turned out Saturday to open the 1972 pheasant season.

The snow came along towards 2 p.m. in the afternoon in a general swing from the southside, creeping into the northside around the Eden-Hazelton country and continuing through Minidoka County. But the snow was no real problem. The wind had the birds nailed down in close cover and it took a lot of work or a good dog to get things going.

The north Minidoka project again attracted the big crowds although field checks by over a dozen officers reported heavy pressure throughout Magic Valley. The Idaho Fish and Game Department conducted only one checking station — at Acequia — and the results were again good. A total of 319 hunters with 498 birds came through the station for a 1.5 birds per hunter or one bird per three hours hunting.

Field checks in all other parts indicated success was about one bird per man or slightly above. Those figures indicate a good population and hunt.

The Minidoka checking station also catalogued the hunters and found only 36 of the 319 were from out of state. However, department personnel opined the ratio would go up some Sunday when non-residents staying in campers started coming out.

Overall the department said the pressure was "significantly" up from the past two seasons as was non-resident pressure. This could be traced to a large degree to the opening of Utah's deer season a week ago. Last year the Utah deer and Idaho pheasant seasons opened on the same day with the result that, through the Cottrell station, the number of Utah hunters decreased 50 per cent.

Conservation Educator Stu Morrell ran his 100-mile sign route Saturday, 50 miles on the southside from Twin Falls to Burley and 50 miles on the north from east of Rupert through the Hunt project. He noted no hunting signs jumped from 74 to 165 on the southside, a direct indication that farmers were seeing more birds during the year and expecting more hunters. Only 31 were "by permission" signs. Another factor was considerable poaching by teen-aged or slightly older boys. The department has been hard pressed to keep enforcement officers available for the past two weeks. On the northside, no-hunting signs went from 67 last year to 76, an insignificant increase. But "by permission" signs dropped from 76 to 32, which was significant.

Dunkley scores on two long runs as Boise drops Minico

RUPERT — Bill Dunkley exploded two 80 yards runs for touchdowns to give the Boise Braves a 14-6 dicision over the Minico Spartans Saturday night.

The game, played in cold weather with a skiff of snow on the gound, was basically one of defense as fumbles hampered both sides. The victory kept Boise's faint hopes for an SIC title alive at 5-2 while Minico went to 4-3 in the league and 5-3 overall.

In other SIC action Saturday night, the Highland Rams knocked Capital out of a share of the lead with a 36-29 decision. That leaves Borah, Highland and Meridian tied at the top with a loss each and two games to paly. Minico meets Highland in the minidome next week.

Boise got both its touchdowns in unexpected situations as Minico three times turned the Braves back inside the 20-yard line. The first break came late in the second period when Dunkley turned the corner on a sweep and siled 80 yards.

Minico opened the second half with an onsides kick and Spartan Bill Hedrick recovered.

The Spartans then stuck basically to the ground and used up almost the entire period in moving 50 yards to score — but even that came hard. The Spartans fumbled at the on-yard line but tackle Carl Bair fell on the ball in the end zone for the six points. The conversion attempt failed.

But Dunkley gathered in the ensuing kickoff at his own 20-yard line and went 80 yards up the middle to clinch the Boise victory.

Minico managed two threats in the final five minutes. It moved from its own 31 to the Boise 20 with 23 of the yards coming on a Brad Hadden draw run. A penalty hit the Spartans and then a fumble, which Boise recovered. The Braves had to punt out and Minico came back on passes. But the Braves intercepted at the 11-yard line with six seconds left to snuff out Minico's last hope.

Warriors top Hawks 122-107

OAKLAND (UPI)—Forwards Rick Barry and Cazzie Russell combined for 57 points and triggered a torrid first-quarter outburst Saturday night that boosted the Golden State Warriors to a 122-107 National Basketball Association victory over the Atlanta Hawks.

The win moved the Warriors into first place by percentage points over the idle Los Angeles Lakers in the Pacific Division. The Warriors have a 5-2 record, compared to the Lakers' 6-3 mark.

Barry, who scored 23 points, hit three straight jump shots as Golden State cracked a 2-2 tie with an 8-0 spree that made it 10-2.

Tennessee rolls past Hawaii 34-2

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)— Tennessee defensive halfback Conrad Graham intercepted a pass on the first play of the game Saturday and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown and 16th-ranked Tennessee went on to defeat Hawaii 34-2.

Defensive back David Allen also scored on a pass interception and tailback Paul Careathers scored twice for the Vols. Kicking specialist Ricky Townsend hit on field goals of 34 and 38 yards and added extra points after each touchdown to round out the Tennessee scoring.

Hawaii's only score came in the second period when Tennessee quarterback Gary Valbuena fumbled in an attempted pitchout at the Tennessee 18 and both squads chased the ball into the end zone.

Pistons fire Earl Lloyd

DETROIT (UPI) — Detroit Piston head Coach Earl Lloyd was fired late Saturday night and replaced by assistant Coach Ray Scott.

Lloyd, who has been unable to muster more than two wins in seven outings since the regular season began, was released after a meeting in Portland, Ore., between Scott, Lloyd and General Manager Ed Coil. The Pistons play Portland Sunday night.

"Something had to be done," Coil said. "Things have not been going the way they should for us."

Coil decided on the action after the Pistons' 130-118 loss to Houston Friday night.

'Bama batters Southern Miss.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)— Running back Steve Biseeglia scored two touchdowns Saturday night—one the first of three third quarter scores—to lead Alabama in a 48-11 romp over underdog Southern Mississippi.

Managing only a four point 7-3 halftime lead over the stubborn Southerners, the Crimson Tide opened the third period by forcing a fumble, recovering it at the Southern 31-yard line.

Six plays later Bisceglia ran 12 yards for the score. His first TD of the game came on a two-yard run with 35 seconds remaining in the first period to cap a 91-yard Alabama drive.

Fellow Tide running backs Wilbur Jackson and Paul Spivey also scored in the third period on runs of 16 and 5 yards respectively. Substitute quarterback Gary Rutledge hit end Wayne Wheeler with a 64-yard scoring pass in the first minute of the fourth period to freeze out the scrambling Southerners.

Junior cornerback Robin Cary intercepted a Buddy Palazzto pass in the waning minutes of the game and ran 18 yards to add six points to the Tide total. The third Alabama quarterback to play, Robert Fraley, passed 13 yards to Pete Pappas with 14 seconds to play to complete the Crimson Tide scoring.

Bill Davis was successful on six of seven extra point attempts.

Texas batters Rice in 45-9 decision

HOUSTON (UPI) — Fullback Roosevelt Leaks bolted 39 and 27 yards for touchdowns to lead 11th-ranked Texas to an easy 45-9 victory over error-prone Rice Saturday night.

Leaks, a 5-11, 205-pound sophomore, ripped off 154 yards in 15 carries in the first half to spark Texas to a 31-9 lead and then rested the second half.

Halfbacks Donald Ealey and Tommy Landry each went one yard for two other Texas touchdowns, Don Burrisk went two yards for another and linebacker Randy Braband returned a pass interception 34 yards for the other one. Mike Dean kicked a 50-yard field goal and Billy Schott converted all six times.

Rice scored all its points in the second quarter on a one-yard pass from quarterback Bruce Gadd to halfback Gary Ferguson and when Texas quarterback Alan Lowry was tackled in the end zone by Richard Hollas and Steve Pruitt.

The victory gave Texas a 5-1 record and a 3-0 mark in the Southwest Conference, leaving the Longhorns the only undefeated team in SWC play. Rice is 2-3-1 and 0-2 in the conference.

Rice moved the ball well the first three quarters, but had eight turnovers, losing four fumbles and suffering four interceptions. In addition to Braband's return of a Gadd pass for the first quarter touchdown, Texas converted another interception and a fumble into other touchdowns.

Texas' third score in the first quarter came after tackle Doug English recovered a Ferguson fumble on the Rice 36. Two plays later Leaks burst up the middle for 39 yards and his first touchdown.

Gadd's second interception was returned 47 yards by linebacker Glen Gaspard to the Rice 23 to set up Landry's TD. Dean's field goal also came after Rice punter Mark Williams was unable to get off a punt because of a poor snap from center, giving Texas the ball on the Rice 19.

Arizona defeats UTEP 45-22

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI) — Arizona ran the opening kickoff back 95 yards, setting the pace for a 45-22 rout of Western Athletic Conference for Texas-El Paso Saturday night.

The win gave Arizona a 3-0 conference record. For the Miners, it was their sixth loss in seven outings and their first loss under new head Coach Tom Husdpeth, who took over last week upon Bobby Dobbs' resignation.

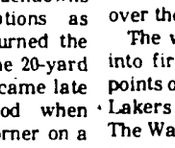

Sophomore Willie Hamilton began Arizona's scoring with his long return of the opening kickoff. Fullback Marty Shuford added six points minutes later on a seven-yard plunge.

The Miners got on the scoreboard in the first period on a four-yard pass from quarterback Gary Keithley to halfback Paul Adamian. The play was set up on a 74-yard run by Al Barrett.

The first quarter scoring ended on a 46-yard field goal, an Arizona record, by Charlie Gorham. Gorham also converted all Arizona point- after attempts.

Giant-killing Missouri shocks Colorado 20-17

COLUMBIA, Mo. (UPI)—Greg Hill kicked a 33-yard field goal with six seconds to play Saturday, boosting giant-killer Missouri to a 20-17 victory over seventh-ranked Colorado before a stunned but jubilant crowd of 55,500.

Missouri, which knocked Notre Dame from the undefeated ranks a week ago, apparently had muffed its chance for victory when Hill missed a 22-yard attempt with 1:38 to play. But the Tigers got the ball back with 52 seconds to go and using all their timeouts, moved 38 yards to the Colorado 17 with 11 seconds remaining.

Hill's field goal signaled Missouri's first Big Eight Conference victory in two years after nine straight league losses.

Quarterback John Cherry ran 19 yards and Tommy Reamon 12 in the winning march.

Hill was mobbed after the winning field goal, both by his teammates and fans who poured out of the stands. The game was delayed until the field could be cleared. Colorado received a kickoff and got off one play before time expired.

Tailback Charlie Davis, held out with a bruised shoulder in the first half, entered the game to lead Colorado's comeback. The Buffaloes scored all their points in the second half after trailing 10-0 at halftime.

The Buffs drove 61 yards for a touchdown on their first possession of the second half, Davis scoring from the three. Fred Lima tied the game with a 22-yard field goal with 1:12 left in the third quarter.

Missouri refused to fold under the pressure, rambling 58 yards in seven plays for the go-ahead touchdown with 13:44 remaining in the game. Big play was a 36-yard run by Reamon to the Colorado seven. Cherry passed seven yards to Jim Sharp for the touchdown.

But Colorado, conqueror of Oklahoma last week, retaliated with a 70-yard drive. Davis had an 18-yard run and Ken Johnson passed 24 yards to Gary Campbell in the drive. Bo Matthews scored from the one with 7:48 to play. Lima's kick tied the game at 17-17.

Missouri showed its determination early after John Moseley fumbled a fair catch at the Tigers' 43. Colorado drove to the 16, but Lima's 33-yard field goal attempt was wide with 13:47 to play in the second quarter.

The Tigers then marched 60 yards, thanks to a 26-yard run by Jimmy Smith and a 13-yard pass from Cherry to Sharp.

UCLA drops Washington State 35-20 to stay in loop chase

LOS ANGELES (upi)—James McAlister scored two touchdowns and Mark Harmon passed for another pair Saturday as the ninth-ranked UCLA Bruins defeated Washington State 35-20 to remain undefeated in the Pacific-8.

Washington State dominated play in the first period but the Cougars gave up the ball four times on fumbles in the game to nip numerous drives. UCLA began rolling in the second quarter, running up a 21-0 lead, and the Bruins were never in danger thereafter.

The Cougar's offense was highlighted by the play of tailback Ken Grandberry who ran over one score and caught a 17-yard touchdown pass.

Washington State quarterback Ty Paine completed 17 of 26 passes for 225 yards while Harmon made good on five of eight for 145 yards.

UCLA needed only seven minutes to score its three touchdowns in the second period. After Rich Gunther recovered Steve Hamilton's second of three fumbles, the Bruins drove 52 yards with McAlister scoring from the two.

The next time UCLA got the ball, Kermit Johnson broke loose for 42 yards and McAlister followed with a 22-yard run to score.

Harmon then took to the air on the next UCLA series, hitting Reggie Echols with a 40-yard pass and followed that up with a 13-yard pass to Bobby Ferrell for his team's third touchdown.

With only two minutes left in the half, Paine completed six of 11 passes, including the touchdown throw to Grandberry, in an 84-yard scoring drive.

The Cougars opened up with a passing attack in the third period as Paine threw a 52-yarder to Grandberry. He passed seven yards to Hamilton to bring his club to within nine points of UCLA at 21-12.

But Brad Lyman got behind the Cougar defenders on a 53-yard pass play from Harmon for the fourth UCLA touchdown.

Southern California blanks Oregon 18-0

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Sophomore halfback Anthony Davis ran 48 and 55 yards on back-to-back Southern California offensive plays in the third period Saturday to lead the top-ranked Trojans to an 18-0 victory over Oregon.

The Pacific-8 Conference game was played on rain soaked Astroturf.

Oregon, a four-touchdown underdog, fought USC to a standstill in the first half and still was in a scoreless ballgame when Dan Fouts, star Oregon quarterback, suffered a knee injury midway through the third period. He did not return to action.

Two minutes later, Davis, who gained 206 yards in 25 carries, went around left end and down the sidelines for his first score.

After Oregon failed to gain and punted to the Trojan 45, Davis, on the first play from scrimmage, again found daylight on a pitch to the left end and romped 55 yards into the Oregon end zone.

Stanford limps by Ore. State

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI)—John Winesberry, returning to action after an ankle injury sidelined him for two games, ran 10 yards for the winning touchdown midway through the third quarter Saturday as heavily favored Stanford struggled to a 17-11 victory over Oregon State.

The Beavers, a 26-point underdog, led 3-0 at the half on a 36-yard field goal by Ken McGrew. But the Cardinals rallied for two touchdowns and a field goal during a six-minute stand of the third quarter for all their points and the victory.

The triumph was Stanford's sixth in eight games and left the Cardinals at 2-2 in Pacific-8 Conference play. The loss was the fourth in as many league games for the Beavers and their seventh in eight overall starts.

Winesberry played for the first time at the start of the second half and his running set up Stanford's first touchdown—an 11-yard pass from Mike Boryla to Miles Moore. Then he spurted on his 10-yard touchdown run after Gordon Riegel recovered an Oregon State fumble at the 23 and Rod Garcia capped the Cardinals scoring with a 37-yard field goal.

Fla. State passer held by Auburn

AUBURN, Ala. (UPI)—Tailback Terry Henley, the Southeastern Conference's leading rusher, plunged for three touchdowns and his defensive teammates picked off four Gary Huff passes Saturday as the 12th ranked Auburn Tigers downed Florida State 27-14.

Henley, who went into the game averaging slightly over 100 yards per game rushing, scored on runs of one, four and two yards. Sophomore quarterback Randy Walls, who set up two of the Henley scores with long passes, passed 29 yards to wingback Tom Gossom for another TD.

Even though Heisman Trophy candidate Huff had a good day passing, hitting on 25 of 41 passes for 241 yards, FSU did not get on the scoreboard until the fourth quarter when the senior quarterback directed an 80-yard march capped by a nine-yard run by Mike Davidson. Huff hit wide receiver Mike Allen for a 13-yard scoring pass late in the game to give the 18th ranked Seminoles their second score.

Nebraska shuts out Okla. St.

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Johnny Rodgers scored two touchdowns, but the offense of fourth-ranked Nebraska sputtered against Oklahoma State and it was the defense which dominated in the Huskers' 34-0 whitewash Saturday.

Rodgers scored once on a 19-yard pass from Dave Humm and again in the fourth period when he flashed 17 yards on one of his patented skirting runs.

But even though Nebraska was never in trouble and led 13-0 at the half, the Huskers frequently found the going tough when they got close to scoring territory. They couldn't mount the scoring outbursts which have netted them 211 points to only 14 for their opponents in their previous five victories.

Nebraska's defense took up the slack. Oklahoma State's deepest penetration in the first half was to the Nebraska 31.

Michigan humiliates Minnesota

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UPI)—Ed Shuttlesworth rattled off four touchdowns Saturday to lead steadily-improving Michigan to a methodical 42-0 destruction of Minnesota.

Dave Brown also went 68 yards with a pass interception and quarterback Dennis Franklin scored from one yard out to help the fifth-ranked Wolverines win their seventh game without a loss, four of them in the Big Ten. Minnesota has won only one game in seven tries.

Minnesota never really had a chance to win back the Little Brown Jug it lost in 1966. Gophers quarterback Bob Morgan kept finding receivers, but only three of his seven passes were caught by Minnesota players.

Miss. St. surprises Houston

STARKVILLE, Miss. (UPI)—Mississippi State exploded for three touchdowns in the closing minutes Saturday to upset the Houston Cougars 27-13 with sophomore quarterback Rocky Felker passing for two Bulldog touchdowns and running for another.

The Cougars had taken a slim six-point lead on a five-yard run by sophomore Reggie Cherry in the final quarter but the extra point attempt was blocked by State's John David Calhoun.

The Bulldogs put together a 32-yard drive to tie the game at 13-13 with Felker hitting Bill Buckley on a four-yard scoring pass with five minutes and 44 seconds showing. The kick by Glenn Ellis was no good but the fired up Bulldogs refused to settle for a tie.

Felker scored on a 10-yard keeper with 2:10 remaining to climax a 45-yard drive. Then Billy Southward intercepted a Cougar pass and fullback Wayne Jones plunged over from two yards out with only five seconds remaining.

Wood River, Jerome, run one-two for B state run title; T.F. second in A

IDAHO FALLS — The Wood River Wolverines, in a surprisingly strong showing of strength and headed by a one-two finish from Monte Brothwell and Rick Ward, steamed easily into the class B state cross country championship Friday.

The Wolverines, expected to have a dogfight for the title with Jerome, had five men in the top 13 and, in fact, had all five men home before the first Jerome Tiger hit the finsih line. Wood River wound up with 36 points, while Jerome still took second with a surprisingly high 118-point total.

Magic Valley runners rather dominated the thing. Brothwell set the course record of 13:14 in finishing ahead of Ward while Gooding State's gold dust twins, Steve McCalley and John Hunter, were third and fourth. Kevin Swigert was eighth for the Wolverines with Mike Lapp 12th and Jim Brothwell 13th. Brothwell had the record only momentarily as Mike Gregory of Blackfoot knocked two seconds off it in leading the Broncs to the A crown.

But junior Doug Larsen, who figured to finish in the top 12 or so, said Friday morning his foot hurt too much to run. Junior Dave Lawley became the Bruin fifth man in 37th place, his effort giving Twin Falls a stunningly big lead over Borah and Highland, who defeated the Bruins in the Southern Idaho Conference meet.

Borah was third at 103 while Highland, the SIC champion, came apart and finished at 126.

Sooners wallop K-State

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI)—Oklahoma halfback Greg Pruitt scampered for touchdowns on runs of 4, 3, and 22 yards Saturday to pace the Sooners to a 52-0 victory over Kansas State.

The fleet-footed Heisman Trophy candidate rushed for 121 yards to bring his career total to 2,396, the second highest in Sooner history. Oklahoma gained 37 first downs to tie a Big Eight Conference record.

Pruitt made his two short yardage scoring bursts in the waning minutes of the first half to give the Sooners a 17-0 margin at intermission. His 22 yard tromp came at the beginning of the final period.

Iowa State rolls over Kansas 34-8

LAWRENCE, Kan. (UPI)—George Amundson passed for three touchdowns, two to receiver Willie Jones, and ran for another Saturday as 14th ranked Iowa State crushed Kansas 34-8.

Amundson called on 195-pound tailback Mike Strachan most of the Big Eight Conference game to grind out yardage that set up the scoring plays. Kansas generally shut off the inside run, but Amundson used slants, sweeps and option to control the ball.

The Cyclones jumped ahead on their first play. Amundson found Jones behind two Jayhawk defenders at the Kansas 20 and Jones glided in for a 49-yard scoring play.

Ohio State outlasts Wisconsin

Madison, Wis. (UPI)—Third-ranked Ohio State, with Greg Hare and Harold Henson running with awesome power, scored every time it got the ball in the first half and held off Wisconsin 28-20 Saturday.

The Buckeyes got the ball only four times in the opening half, but took advantage of their chances on a 37-yard touchdown pass from Hare to Richard Galbos, two one-yard plunges by Henson and an eightyard jaunt by Hare.

They were shut out in the second half by the stiffening Wisconsin defense playing before a record Badger football crowd of 78,713 at Camp Randall Stadium.

Hare finished with 118 yards on the ground and Henson, the game's top rusher, had 122.

T.F. raps Meridian from unbeaten ranks

McKain-sparked defense saves 14-13 victory

The Twin Falls Bruins, continuing their Jekyl and Hyde role, reached out of a 4-3 year to stun previously undefeated Meridian 14-13 Friday night and send the Southern Idaho Conference chase back into a four-way scramble.

The Bruins, using walking wounded in the backfield and a hard-nosed defense anchored on senior linebacker Mark McKain, ran the ball through the SIC best ground defense for 150 yards and the decisive points in the first half. Then the defense turned back two fourth-quarter bids by Meridian.

McKain was all over the field, making a pretty no-gain tackle over two blockers on a screen pass for perhaps his best play and he batted aside Meridian's last real chance to pull out the victory.

Coach Norm Thomas, his trailback ranks thinned, had to go with three but got yeoman work from all three. Junior Pat Keegan, in his first starting role, sparked the Bruins offense early when he picked up 57 yards in four carries. But a recurring knee injury was aggravated on the fourth play and he left the game for the night. That brought on usual starter Gary Scott, the team's leading rusher, who is nursing a shoulder injury. Scott carried 22 times for 62 yards before reinjuring the shoulder and Bill Woodson took over, running for two key first downs late the fourth quarter that helped eat up four minutes on the clock.

Meridian went down hard. The Warriors held Twin Falls to 27 yards in the second half as the Bruins went quite conservative. Meanwhile, big fullback Dave Bertch and quick Mike Mallard ran for big yardage. But Twin Falls never gave them good field position for starting points. Junior quarterback Jerry Parks impressed with his passing, hitting 10 of 23 for 146 yards and was betrayed four or five times by dropped passes.

The Warriors also had trouble in the first half staying onsides defensively and they contibuted some key yards to both Twin Falls' marches.

The game opened in a punt exchange with Twin Falls getting its second possession at the Bruin 20-yard line. Keegan opened with a 38-yard scamper and came back with a key first down on a 13-yard sprint — the same play in which he was injured. Scott replaced him and carried six straight times, finally scoring from the two after Mike Sturgill had sneaked for five yards. Pat Charlton then tacked on the first of the two decisive extra points.

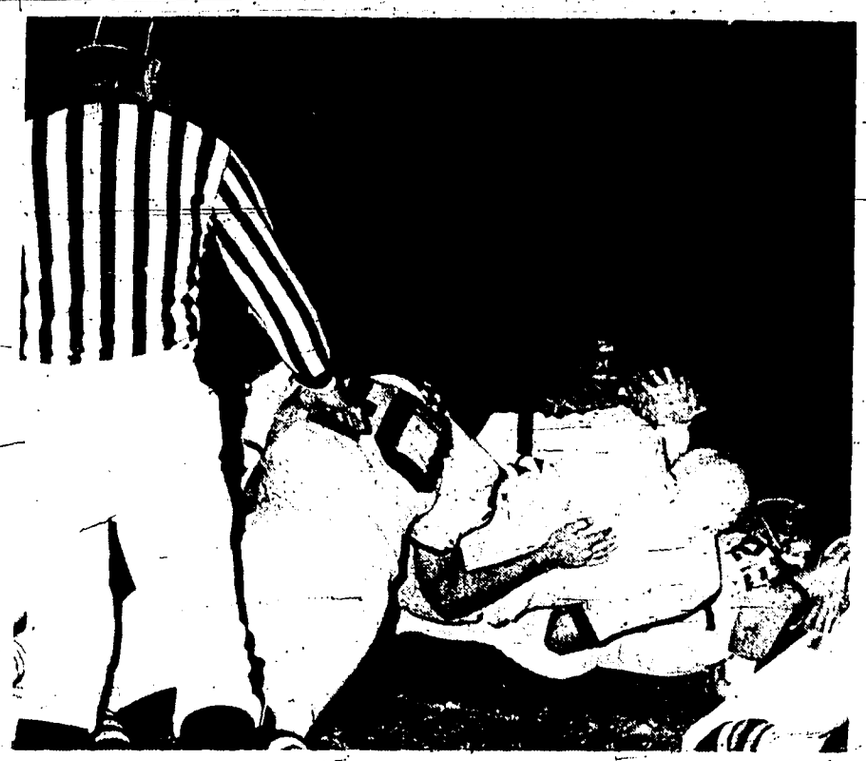

Meridian roared right back with Bertch doing most of the work. Rayme Wilmot added 18 yards before Bertch went in from the two.

Scott's 27-yard kickoff return and a third down 13-yard strike to Kandy Haynes got the Bruins going immediately after. On third and seven, Mike Beck, on his first carry of the year, ran an end-around up the middle, shaking off a tackler at the 20, and went 31 yards.

Eight plays later Meridian had to punt but Twin Falls was called for roughing the kicker and on the first play of the second chance, Parks hit Bertch on a 41-yard pass and run bomb. But the point-after kick strayed right.

The best field position Meridian had in the second half — for a starting point — came after a short Bruin punt to the Meridian 42. The Warriors, in six plays drove to a first down at the Twin Falls 30 and on third and nine Mike Mallard sprung loose for what appeared to be a first down at the 20. But he he fumbled when hit and the ball was kicked into the end zone where Twin Falls recovered.

Woodson then ran for the big first downs that carried out to near midfield before Twin Falls had to kick the ball away. Bertch's running and Parks' passing quickly carried Meridian to a first down at the 23. At that point Parks threw a long pass into the end zone which was dropped by the receiver. Suddenly a Meridian coach was standing in the middle protesting interference. That cost the Warriors 15 yards and, after one 16-yard pass, McKain batted down the fourth-down attempt.

Hitting paydirt

SPINNING IN for Twin Falls' second touchdown, Bruin Gary Scott (22) scored from two yards away despite the efforts of the Meridian Warriors. The Bruins nipped Meridian 14-13, ending the Warrior's undefeated boast and sole possession of the Southern Idaho Conference lead.

Jerome stifles Burley 14-0 to clinch share crown

JEROME — The Jerome defense all but completely shutoff the Burley Bobcats as the Tigers picked up a 14-0 victory Friday night and clinched at least a share of the Cross State Conference title.

The Tigers, who last win clinched a tie for the South Central Idaho crown, now face the Indians at Buhl Nov. 10. A Jerome win would give the Tigers sole possession of both crowns and a crack at the SRV-A league champions from the Boise area — probably Bishop Kelly. However, a Buhl win could throw the SCIC into a three-way tie and coin-flipping time.

Jerome had the best of it statistically with the Tiger stats showing the Bobcats with 62 yards rushing net and 78 passing yards. The Tigers rambled for 227 yards on the ground and added 67 more in the air.

Jerome took the lead late in the first period when Rich Watson and fullback Lance Johnson hooked up on a 35-yard pass and run play. Dave Peterson ran the two-point conversion over.

Jerome used up most of the closing second quarter minutes with a long drive which Stacy Camp culminated on a two-yard dive. The point-after conversion was stopped.

Griff-led Filer tops G.F. 40-12

FILER — Ron Griff's 182 yards rushing offset a 190-yard passing attack by Glenns Ferry's Jody Allen and the Filer Wildcats romped off to a surprisingly large 40-12 victory Friday night.

Filer marched for touchdowns on its first two possessions. The first covered 65 yards in five plays with the big gainer being a 53-yard bootleg by soph. quarterback Steve Thaete to the Pilot two. Bruce Lincoln went in from there. Minutes later, the Wildcats went another 67 yards, this time Lon Thaete scoring on a 12-yard cutback on the 11th play. Lincoln plunged for the points-after.

In the second period, Glenns Ferry recovered a fumble at the Filer 29 and six plays after that Allen went in on a fourth and six-inch situation. But before halftime, Griff pounced on a Pilot fumble at the 21 and on the fourth play thereafter, Lon Thaete scored from the three to make it 20-6 at intermission.

Glenns Ferry came out passing in the third period and went to the Filer 18 before running out of downs. Filer punted out and when Glenns Ferry's turn came to kick the pass from center was bad and Andy Loughmiller downed the would-be punter at the 21. Four plays later Lon Thaete went in from the two. Griff capped an 87-yard march early in the fourth period by getting the last yard and Steve Thaete bootlegged the two-pointer. Three plays after the kickoff, Dan Kay picked off a Pilot pass at the Glenns Ferry 31, setting up the last Filer score. Griff got it on a 38-yard stomp.

Allen then hit three straight passes for 35, 14 and eight yards to set up his own 12-yard scoring scamper.

Trojans nip Wolves 8-7 for playoff berth, title share

MALTA — The Raft River Trojans maintained their four-year-long "showdown" mastery of Castleford Friday night, nipping the Wolves 8-7 and clinching a share of the Magic Valley Conference championship.

In addition, the Trojans cemented a playoff berth and will represent the league as champion in a doubleheader playoff against fifth district champions, either Grace or Westside. Raft River shares the title with Murtaugh but gets the No. 1 designation for playoff purposes on basis of beating the Red Devils 22-0 during the season.

Friday night's game was a matter of quarter, Castleford dominating the first and third and Raft River holding sway in the second and fourth.

The Wolves struck first, starting a drive late in the first period and winding it up when Randy McCoy bootlegged 17 yards for the touchdown. Bowers booted the point-after.

But Raft River took the ensuing kickoff and used up almost all the quarter in a grinding march. Kent Cooper burst in from the seven for the touchdown and quarterback Leon Paskett got the decisive two points when he faked to the fullback, then followed him through the line into the end zone.

But on the final play of the half, Castleford hit on a long bomb that Raft River stopped at about the one-foot line.

Castleford played most of the third period in Raft River's end of the field, its best chance being stopped by less than an inch for a first down at the Trojans two and one-half yard line.

The Trojans finally tucked the game away when they ground out five successive first downs from its own 20 to the Wolf 25. Castleford stopped it but the drive had wasted the clock to almost nothing.

Mushers end second undefeated season

FAIRFIELD — The Camas County Mushers ended their second straight undefeated season and ran their winning streak to 17 Friday afternoon when they exploded past the Rimrock Raiders 72-9.

The Mushers, who haven't lost since Oct. 30, 1970, now are pointed toward a playoff against Long Pin Conference champion New Meadows at 1 p.m. Saturday in Fairfield. Camas County has won two straight playoffs against Long Pin foes.

The Mushers split their scoring evenly between the halves. Layne Osborne scored from the 10 to open it with Bill Baldwin converting. Baldwin then plunged in from the two and Osborne converted.

In the second period, Baldwin romped 17 with Osborne converting and minutes later Brent Geisler scored from the five. Geisler then wound up the first half on a 50-yard scoring pass to Osborne. Rimrock replied with a 25-yard field goal by Smith.

Geisler threw for two third-quarter scores, the first a 65-yard bomb to Osborne and the second a 60-yard pass to Larry Lee. Before the period ended, Garth Packham intercepted a Raider pass and returned it 45 yards. Chris Peck, Geisler and Osborne for the points-after.

In the final quarter, Osborne shook loose on a 45-yard punt return and Larry Ivey hooked up with Lee on a 65-yard pass play. Rimrock's touchdown came on Smith's 15-yard run.

Dave Prock and Garth Packham, the only two senior starters, concluded three years at starting guard and turned in fine performances.

Hansen shuts out Oakley

OAKLEY — The Hansen Huskies whirled 89 yards in four plays and then scored on a pass interception Friday afternoon to defeat the Oakley Hornet 14-0 Friday.

Hansen's big march started with the second period after the first 12 minutes had provided little fireworks. On the first play, Marty Shepherd threw a little flare pass out to Ralph Hopkins who legged it into a 56-yard bomb. Shepherd then hit Ron Mothershead for 17 more yards and Hopkins wound it up with a 16-yard burst up the middle. Roger Sievers caught Shepherd's two-point conversion pass.

Both teams had trouble with turnovers, Hansen losing the ball seven times, four on fumbles, while Oakley lost a fumble and three passes.

Tigers hit early, top Devils 12-8

RICHFIELD — The Richfield Tigers struck for two touchdowns in the first quarter, then held off the Dietrich Blue Devils for a 12-8 victory Friday afternoon.

Hubsmith put the Tigers on the board early when he turned in a fine 35-yard run, slipping a couple of tackles along the way. Before the period ended, Rick Brown scampered in from 15 yards away.

Dietrich, which had a TD nullified by a penalty in the second period, drove with the second-half kickoff. Dan Weiss plunged in from the two and Ken Meservy ran for the points-after.

Dietrich wound up 4-4, marking the first time since 1965 a Blue Devil team had reached that many victories.

W.R. nips Wendell in last 20 seconds

HAILEY — The Wood River Wolverines scorched the Wendell Trojans for 80 yards on a broken play Friday afternoon to swoop from behind in the final 22 seconds and claim a 28-24 victory.

The last-minute heroics capped a wild fourth period that saw both teams scored a pair of touchdowns. Trailing 24-20 and back on their own 18, the Wolverines called a pitch back to the fullback. However, the pitch got away and was rolling around when Wolverine quarterback Jim Hurst picked it up, only to drop it again. He secured the ball a second time and then got a key block from Dave Bergin. Hurst, now back at about his own five, started up field, saw John Rooney and hit him with a long pass. Rooney legged it to the two-yard line and Hurst sneaked in from there.

The first three quarters didn't give an indication of the wild windup. Wendell scored first on a 65-yard pass play to Kip Dennis with Wood River coming back in the second period with a long drive. Hurst went in from the one and converted to make it 7-6.

In the third quarter, Wood River scored on al 11-yard burst by Bergin but on the ensuing kickoff, Dennis sailed 70 yards to nullify the effort.

The Trojans then held Wood River and received the punt. On the first play, Dennis motored 80 yards on a screen pass to give the Trojans an 18-14 lead. That lasted quickly with Randy Collier breaking a 51-yard sprint on a dive play with the Wolverines missing the point-after.

Wendell replied with a quick drive, Matt Bunn smashed in from the seven to make it 24-20. Wood River had to kick the ball away with 4:26 left, then got it back on a fumble to set up the decisive broken play. After Hurst's last touchdown, he threw to Rooney for the two-pointer. With 20 seconds left, Wood River, fearing Wendell's return game, went with an onsides kick, recovered it and let the clock run out.

Troxel-led Montana stuns Boise 42-28

MISSOULA, Mont. (UPI) — Freshman quarterback Van Troxel triggered the University of Montana Grizzlies to a 42-28 win over Boise State today and kept the Grizzlies' hopes for a Big Sky Conference title alive.

Troxel, the son of the head track coach at the University of Idaho, made his first start of the year and went all the way, throwing a 26-yard touchdown pass and running for two more in the offensive battle before a chilled homecoming crowd of 6,000.

The victory gave Montana a 3-1 conference record and eliminated the Broncos from title contention with a 1-2 record.

The Broncos brought sophomore quarterback Jim McMillan off the bench in the second quarter to complete several passes, including a pair for touchdowns. Boise State's starting quarterback Ron Autele completed three of eight passes with two interceptions before he was jerked.

Montana rushed for 381 yards and Troxel passes added 129.

Boise State picked up 137 yards rushing and added 355 through the air.

Troxel's 26-yard touchdown pass to Warren Kottke came as the second Grizzly tally with only a minute gone in the second quarter.

Troxel scored for Montana with five minutes left in the half on a 12-yard keeper, and Kottke took a pitchout four yards for another Grizzly tally with 1:28 left.

The Broncos drove 80 yards the first time they got the ball in the third quarter and an eight-yard McMillan-to-Hutt pass made the score 28-14.

Troxel scampered four yards on a keeper late in the third quarter for another Grizzly touchdown.

The Broncos tallied in the fourth quarter on a 14-yard pass from McMillan to Chester Gray following a 92-yard drive.

Montana's Glen Welch ran 13-yards on an end-around play for the final Grizzly score.

A McMillan-to-Gray pass covering six yards was the final tally for the Broncos.

Millionaire waived

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — The Memphis Tams placed Johnny Neumann, their million-dollar rookie of last season, on waivers Saturday.

During that sophomore season, Neumann led the nation in scoring with a 40.1 average.

In his first season in the American Basketball Association, Neumann became involved in a feud with his coach, Babe McCarthy, which ended in McCarthy leaving the team at the end of the season.

During his pro debut last year, Neumann averaged 18.3 points and 4.3 rebounds a game.

This season, under new coach Bob Bass, Neumann has been used sparingly and has averaged 9.8 points a game.

The move Saturday came after holdout Wilbert Jones agreed to terms and was added to the Memphis roster.

Neumann is signed to a multi-year contract which is reported to be about a million dollars.

UOP ruins Idaho's homecoming 22-7

MOSCOW, Idaho (UPI) — As the band played "White Christmas" and "Jingle Bells", tailback Mike Mangrum ruined homecoming for the University of Idaho to lead the Pacific Tigers to a 22-7 win Saturday.

	Pacific	Idaho
First downs	9	13
Rushes-yards	50-195	43-142
Passing yardage	15	150
Return yardage	96	33
Passes	1-9-0	13-25-5
Punts	10-39.6	7-40
Fumbles-lost	4-3	6-3
Penalties-yards	5-37	3-45

Mangrum scored Pacific's first and last touchdowns on runs of two and 22 yards as the Tigers drove through dark and snowy skies for the victory — their sixth in a row.

Pacific jumped on top late in the first quarter on a 10-play drive that went 79 yards. The big play was a penalty. Idaho had held on Pacific's 29, but got a roughing the kicker penalty, and that kept the drive alive.

Six plays later, Mangrum dove over from the two. Kicker Mark Pash missed the point-after attempt and the Tigers led 6-0.

Idaho came back to go ahead, 7-6, on the first play of the second quarter when running back Jerry Hall scored from one yard out, capping a 90 - yard drive in 11 plays.

Pacific went ahead to stay late in the third quarter when linebacker Steve Lebherz picked off a pass by Idaho quarterback Rick Seefried on the Vandal 22 and romped in to score.

Pash again missed the PAT, but added a 29-yard field goal just seconds into the fourth quarter. Mangrum got his second touchdown with two minutes left in the game after Idaho lost its fourth second half interception — this time off the arm of freshman quarterback Dave Comstock.

The win was Pacific's sixth this year against two losses. Idaho is now 2-5 for the season.

Fumbles help Utah drop New Mexico

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — Utah turned three first quarter fumbles into a trio of unanswered touchdowns to race away from New Mexico, 59-14 in a Western Athletic Conference football game Saturday.

Junior quarterback Don Van Galder, with the Ute defense giving him the ball eight times, ran for two tds and passed for 150 yards and a third score to direct the Utah attack.

The defensive team came up with six fumble recoveries, to tie a team season record of 23, and intercepted two Lobo passes to stifle New Mexico's powerful running game.

Safety Steve Marshall was the star of Utah's aggressive defensive unit, recovering two fumbles in the first half to set up two scores, and intercepting an Eddie Dunaway pass in the third quarter.

Duke stops 2-point run by Navy

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — Duke dropped Navy quarterback Al Glenny, who was going for a victory instead of a tie, behind the line of scrimmage with 90 seconds left Saturday to budge the Middies 17-16 in the 26th annual Oyster Bowl.

Navy scored in the rain on a five-yard pass from Glenny to Jack Forde and chose to go for the winning two points instead of the tying one point conversion kick. Duke defenders poured through the middle and senior Melvin Parker stopped Glenny before he could get rid of the ball.

Duke was led by the running of senior tailback Steve Jones, who churned out a total of 148 yards and scored the Blue Devils' first touchdown.

Duke broke a 7-7 halftime tie after five minutes were gone in the third quarter on a nine-yard run by quarterback Mark Johnson.

Air Force upsets Ariz. St.

TEMPE, Ariz. (UPI)—Rich Haynie hit flanker Frank Murphy for three touchdown passes to lead Air Force to a 39-31 upset of 13th ranked Arizona State Saturday.

The Falcons — recovering from their only loss of the season to Navy last week—overcame a 23-21 halftime deficit for the win, which was aided by seven Arizona State turnovers.

Mark Prill and Jerry Olin each had a fumble recovery and pass interception for the Falcons.

Haynie's scoring passes to Murphy covered 29, 61 and 26 yards. A fourth scoring aerial by Haynie went to Bill Berry for 64 yards. Joel Carlson plunged for another Falcon touchdown after a pass interference call gave Air Force a first down at the one, and Dave Lawson added a 27-yard field goal in the final minutes.

Bucks outlast 76ers 96-92

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The Milwaukee Bucks had to hold off a late Philadelphia rally to outlast the winless 76ers, 96-92, in a National Basketball Association game Saturday night.

Leading by 11 points at 93-82 with 2:21 left, the Bucks saw their lead cut to 93-92 when Philadelphia's Fred Boyd made a jump shot with 19 seconds remaining. Kareem Abdul Jabbar then was fouled deliberately by the 76ers with 18 seconds left and made one of two free throws to make it 94-92.

Philadelphia's Fred Carter missed a jump shot that could have tied the game with 11 seconds left, and Oscar Robertson made two free throws with two seconds remaining to close out the scoring.

Adams and Utags drop Wyoming

LARAMIE, Wyo. (UPI)— Utah State quarterback Tony Adams threw touchdown passes of six and 28 yards Saturday and ran seven yards for a third to lead the Aggies to a 35-23 victory over Wyoming.

Utah State also had touchdowns on a two-yard run by running back Jerry Hughes in the first quarter and on a 44-yard run by Butch Sawyer in the third quarter.

Tom Forzani, who was the nation's leader in receptions per game with a 7.3 average before Saturday, caught seven passes for 94 yards against the Pokes. Adams completed 16 of 32 passes for 256 yards as the Aggies wrapped up 424 yards in total offense.

Adams hit Forzani for his six-yard touchdown and Sawyer for the 28-yard score.

Reed sparks Knicks to win

NEW YORK (UPI) - Willis Reed, playing his most effective game this season, scored 18 points in leading the New York Knicks to a 94-90 victory over the Baltimore Bullets Saturday night.

Reed, who has been ailing, didn't start. He entered the game late in the first period and scored 10 points in the second period. He also had 12 rebounds in his 32 minutes of action including 20 of the 24 minutes of the second half.

BYU belts Colorado State 44-8

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (UPI) —Bill August threw for 123 yards and two touchdowns in the first quarter Saturday to ignite Brigham Young to a 44-8 Western Athletic Conference victory over winless Colorado State.

Fullback Steve Stratton ran 28 yards for BYU's first score and then August, who passed for 215 yards in three quarters, threw 24 yards to Logan Hunter and 41 yards to Lynn Zwahlen to stake the Cougars to a 21-0 first quarter lead.

BYU added touchdowns on a 1-yard run by Pete Van Valkenburg, a 56-yard interception return by Craig Crompton, and a 53-yard pass from reserve quarterback Dave Terry to John Betham. John Monahan hit six extra points and CSU second-string quarterback Mark Driscoll got caught in the end zone for a safety.

Knudson ups Sahara lead to 3 strokes

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)— George Knudson, the cool Canadian who won last weekend's Kaiser International, moved into a three-stroke lead Saturday after three rounds of the Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament.

Knudson started the next-to-last round one shot back of Arnold Palmer, Lanny Wadkins and John Mahaffey, who were tied for first at 134, eight under par.

Knudson shot a 66, five under par at the Sahara-Nevada Golf Club and had the low round of the day. His previous rounds were 65-70 and his 54 hole total was 201, 12 under par.

In second place was the 22-year-old Wadkins, who shot a 70 for a 204 nine under par at the Sahara-Nevada where par is 36-35—71.

Arnold Palmer, at 43 pressing for his first win in 15 months, slipped to par 71 after rounds of 65-69 and had a 205 total.

Tied at 206 were 48-year-old Art Wall with a 71, Lee Elder with a 67 and Hale Irwin also with 67.

Defending champion Lee Trevino departed abruptly after nine holes of the third round. He offered no explanation to PGA officials and may be fined or suspended. Trevino complained of slow players on Friday and said he had not been feeling well.

"My attitude is bad," he said.

Knudson, 35, wears dark glasses at all times and never seems ruffled. He played in a threesome with Wadkins and 24-year-old Mahaffey, who slipped to a 73 and landed in the 207 bracket with Gay Brewer, who shot 67, and Bobby Mitchell, who had a 71.

"I putted pretty well," said Knudson. "I just played good and steady. It was tough playing with those young fellows."

Knudson had five birdies and no bogeys on his 34-32—66 card. His birdie putts were 15 feet, 35 feet, 15 again, 12 and 2.

Jack Nicklaus, who is aiming for first prize of $27,000 to put him over the $300,000 mark in earnings for the year, slipped to a two-over-par 73 and was at 208 for 54 holes.

Palmer seemed relaxed but said he drove badly on three holes and that cost him three strokes because he had bogeys on each one.

Rule to play out option

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Center Bob Rule announced Saturday he was rejoining the Philadelphia 76ers and would play out his option with the team this season.

Rule had not joined the team at the start of the season because of a salary dispute with the National Basketball Association club.

General manager Don Dejardin said Rule would not be removed from the club's suspended list until the team "deems him ready to participate in NBA action."

Declo cops win over Kimberly

DECLO — The Declo Hornets broke on top with a 99-yard march in the second quarter Friday night and went on to defeat the winless Kimberly Bulldogs 23-14.

Declo scored early when Kimberly fumbled the ball away on its first possession. Two plays later Randy Brackenbury optioned to Scott Priest who sailed 45 yards. Kelly Taylor booted the point-after.

Before the period ended, Kimberly punted Declo into a hole, then pounced on a fumbled at the four-yard line. Jim Tail went in from there and added the go-ahead two-pointer.

In the second period the Bulldogs rammed to a first down at Declo's eight but four plays later had to give the ball up at the six-inch line. Declo then went for the decisive points. The Hornets ran the ball out to the 50-yard line and on the next play Brackenbury went the distance on a quarterback draw. He also added the two points that sealed Kimberly's doom.

The Bulldogs bounced back to within one in the third period when it recovered a fumble at the Declo 40, then shook loose on a 35-yard reverse. Tail burst in from the five, but Declo stopped the point-after.

Early in the fourth period, Brackenbury and Rob Riding hooked up on a 50-yard pass play to the Kimberly six and Brackenbury scored two plays later. Priest got the two points.

Indians tip Pirates in last half

SHOSHONE — The Shoshone Indians erupted for 19 points in the second half Friday night to put down the scrappy Hagerman Pirates 19-6.

A fumbled punt early in the game set the Pirates up at the Indians 25 yard line and Gilbert Hafen made it payoff on a five-yard scoring burst.

Hagerman protected that 6-0 lead until the third quarter when a bumble set Shoshone up at the 30. On the third play Gary Kinghorn shook loose on a 20-yard run, but the point-after kick went wide.

After forcing a punt, the Indians moved to the Hagerman 20-yard line before the Indians went to the flea-licker. Kinghorn threw a quick pass to Mike Sorenson who lateralled to trailing back Mark Anderson who sailed into the end zone. With two minutes left in the game, Lee Williams capped scoring when he bulled in from the three-yard line. Randy Bryant converted.

O'Leary sweeps Stuart series

O'Leary completed a clean sweep of four football games against Stuart this week, but had to take the ninth-grade heavyweight title in the final seven seconds.

The eighth grade lights won 30-6 and the heavyweights 44-6. The ninth grade lightweights took a 22-0 decision with the frosh heavies winning 22-4.

A Simba to Elk 10-yard pass and Gene Turley's two-point run sent O'Leary ahead in the third quarter of the feature. Stuart came back on a 36-yard pass from Jeff Osborn to Mike Allison, who got the tying conversion.

Elk untied it with a 50-yard burst up the middle with Stuart coming back on a 50-yard pass to Givens that set up Allison's short dash off tackle. O'Leary won it with seven seconds left when Gleed threw to Cunningham on a 30-yard touchdown play. Elk added the two-points.

Boosters see game film

Fashion designers want wool; sheep ranchers count losses

RAWLINS, Wyo. (UPI)—The New York fashion designer and Wyoming sheep rancher have a mutual problem: One cries for more wool, while the other cries over lost sheep.

The demand for durable fiber by the apparel industry is on the upswing, but the president of the Wyoming Wool Growers Association says increased stock losses to predators also is moving up.

"I think the people were disappointed in the total polyester picture, and it looks as if the apparel people are anticipating a world-wide shortage of wool," said Vern Vivion of Rawlins. "We think it's bound to have an upward price trend on lamb and wool because of demand for it."

Vivion said the demand factor is complicated by spiraling stock losses, primarily from predators such as coyotes.

"We have no way of keeping the population down," he told UPI.

Hands tied by federal prohibitions on predator controls, stockmen in most western states are considering implementation of a bounty program to help kill off the coyote population.

"The effective tools of predator control have been taken away from us by the administration and the EPA, and we have to resort to the use of the bounty system to curtail some losses," said Bob Bledsoe, association executive secretary in Casper.

At the root of the stockmen's problem is the presidential order banning the use of toxic chemicals and the Environmental Protection Agency's action prohibiting interstate shipment of chemicals and other poisonous control agents.

Bledsoe said all states "west of the Mississippi" had the problem. Major wool producers like Wyoming and Texas were hardest hit. Wyoming ranks second to Texas in national wool production, with an annual income of more than $70 million.

"In the past toxicants have kept the coyote population in check and this allowed ranchers to seek out the individual killer coyote, when he had time," Vivion said from his Rawlins ranch. "We had a smaller population and could do it on an individual basis."

Both men hope the bounty system will equalize the situation.

"There will be an attempt to interest the cattle people, but the sheep people will bear the brunt of it," Vivion said.

Bledsoe says it is "virtually impossible to predict the amount of money needed for the program," which is expected to begin around the first of December and pay anywhere from $15 to $25 per head on the coyotes. Surveys from the summer indicated losses were considerably higher than a year ago and heavy enough to put some sheepmen out of business.

Vivion said the greatest losses occur between birth and two weeks when lambs are extremely small and susceptible to predators.

Sheepmen attribute losses to bans on such devices as the coyote "getter," a spring-loaded stake covered with scented wool which emits a cyanide-pellet when the coyote pulls on it. It was used until the presidential ban made it illegal.

Other alternative measures are trapping and aerial hunting. But the biggest problem to the sheep rancher, whether large or small, is financial.

"We have no recourse through insurance, nor can the loss be deducted from income tax," Vivion said. "It's been widely advertised that we can deduct loss, but it's not true: It is a loss in income to the rancher."

Business

Mind Your Money

When something goes wrong with your TV set, car or medical insurance – do you know how to complain?

I don't mean griping, I mean crafting a complaint that gets action. Since I started this column three years ago, I've encouraged readers to send me their questiions and complaints. I've received more than 18,000 letters and have answered almost all of them.

I say "almost all" because some readers don't give an address. Some don't even give a name — just initials. It's frustrating, especially when I have the answer they desperately need or have a manufacturer all softened up to "fix it or pay for it."

Then there are others I have to write back for more information. This takes time and readers may lose money and their sanity while waiting for action.

When you write me (or anybody else), here's what to include:

NAME, address and, if possible, phone number. This should be clearly typed or printed on the letter and envelope.

FACTS, such as place of purchase, date of purchase, serial numbers and warranty information.

DESCRIPTION of what happened, set down clearly in chronological order – long on facts, short on passion. A little "outrage" is okay.

COPIES of receipts, contracts, correspondence, labels, packaging — anything that would serve as evidence. You can get photostatic copies made at local libraries, schools and commercial establishments. Also make copies of your complaint for future use (you don't have to write it all over again).

You should send documented complaints to the president of any company you feel did you in. Names and addresses can be found in "Poor's Register of Corporations, Directors and Executives." Most libraries, lending institutions and brokers' offices have a copy.

An increasing number of industry associations are also helping resolve consumer complaints against members. Here are some of the better ones:

1 – Direct Mail Advertising Association; 968 National Press Bulding; Washington, D.C. 20004. Vice president John Jay Daly "guarantees" action on mail order complaints against any of DMAS's 1,600 members. Even complaints against nonmember mail-order houses are handled with some success.

2 — Direct Selling Association; 1730 M. St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. J. Robert Brouse, president, says member companies must respond to complaints or face "hearings" and even possible prosecution. Write for a list of members, who sell directly in homes, and the "Comsumer Protection" booklet on how the system works.

3 — Major Appliance Consumer Action Panel; 20 North Wacker Dr.; Chicago, Ill. 60606. Ask for leaflet on how MACAP has handled more than 5,000 complaints about refrigerators, washers and so forth, with only a handful that are still unresolved.

4 — International Fabricare Institute; 909 Burlington Ave.; Silver Springs, Md. Write for names of member dry cleaners and laundries in your area. IFI handles complaints against members with laboratory tests on garments to see who's at fault — cleaner, manufacturer or consumer.

Sending a self-addressed, stamped, business-size envelope along with your complaint or request for information always speeds up things and is greatly appreciated.

Idaho firm asks change in bounds

BOISE (UPI) — The Idaho Water Co. has submitted an application to the Public Utilities Commission for authority to amend its certificate of convenience and necessity.

The application requests approval for an amendment of the certificate to include customers presently being served within an area around Coeur d'Alene and Kootenai County. It states there are no other water utilities adjacent to or contiguous to the proposed boundaries of the firm.

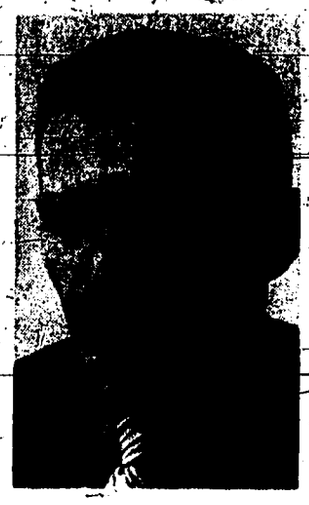

In a news release Friday, the Idaho PUC said it will place the application under modified procedure for 20 days to allow written protests, if any, to be filed protesting the application.

Lumber earnings increase

Earnings per common share for the forest products firm were $1.70, up from $1.10 in the first nine months of 1971.

Sales totaled $1.2 billion, a $265 million increase from last year. Net earnings were $116 million, a $40 million increase, and cash flow increased by $65 million to $216 million.

For the third quarter, earnings per common share were 65 cents, as compared to 33 cents in the strike-depressed third quarter of 1971. Sales were $436 million, up $113 million from last year, and net earnings were $43 million, up $23 million. Cash flow for the quarter was $80 million, up $31 million from 1971.

The company recently declared a year-end extra dividend of three cents per common share, in addition to the regular quarterly dividend of 20 cents per common share.

In commenting on the results for the period, President George H. Weyerhaeuser said "Our profit margins, while still below those of the late 1960s, have strengthened materially, and we have achieved a much larger sales base by expanding and adding to our production capacity. The result is a major improvement in net earnings."

TF ice dealer attends meet

TWIN FALLS — Robert Cantrell, Twin Falls, attended the first national meeting of Tour Ice dealers in Denver, Colo. this past week. The firm, based in Loveland, Colo., has more than 70 ice dealers throughout the United States.

Rogers reports sales increase

IDAHO FALLS — Rogers Brothers Co. has reported increased sales and improved earnings for the fiscal first quarter ended Sept. 30.

Net income for the three months ended Sept. 30 rose to $31,600, or five cents per share, compared with a loss of $18,500, or three cents per share, in the prior year first quarter. Sales for the period rose to $4.88 million from $4.6 million.

Robert MacLean, president, said the improvement in financial and operating results reflects steady growth for Rogers' potato division as well as the return to profitability for the processed vegetable division.

"Cost reduction programs instituted last January will have a beneficial effect on overall profitability in fiscal 1973," said MacLean. He also noted that due to the seasonal nature of Rogers Brothers' business, the majority of earnings are historically realized in the second half of the fiscal year.

Rogers brothers is a leading food processor and developer and producer of quality vegetable seeds. Production facilities are located in Idaho, Washington, California and North Dakota.

Soft drinks and candy will be provided costumed children, and parents accompanying them will receive a free cup of coffee.

Gem Demo rates high with votes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Only eight Senators, Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, among them, got perfect scores on a senatorial rating sheet prepared here by the National Farmers Union (NFU) for the recent session of Congress. Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, came close.

No members of the Senate got zero scores in the ratings, which were based on how closely lawmakers follow NFU recommendations on 10 bills or amendments. Sen. Wallace R. Bennett, R-Utah, ranked lowest by taking eight "wrong" stands against only two "right" votes.

The eight Democrats who voted or "paired" in line with NFV recommendations on all 10 test votes selected for analysis by the farm group were: Mike Gravel, Alaska; Adlai E. Stevenson, Ill.; Harold E. Hughes, Iowa; Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn.; Walter F. Mondale, Minn.; Quentin N. Burdick, N.D.; Moss; and Warren G. Magnuson, Wash.

The NFU, a frequent critic of Administration policy, listed only three "farm issue" votes among the 10 it used for rating senators. It recommended "aye" votes on approving agricultural appropriations and repealing hifr rcpoty vonytold, snf iy hsf uthrf s "no" vote on an amendment to kell a proposed rural development bank.

The complete a perfect score on following NFU recommendations, senators also had to vote or "pair" as follows:

Against tabling a national voter registration bill; against an amendment allowing federally aided railroads to use dividends for non-rail purposes; for a cutoff of funds to keep U. S. forces in Vietnam after Oct. 1; against shelving a no-fault auto insurance bill; for an amendment liberalizing lunchroom equipment aid to needy schools; for a $5.2 billion health care bill; and for an amendment boosting the amount of money old people can earn without loss of full Social Security benefits.

In addition to the eight Democrats listed with perfect 10 "right" stands, the rating showed seven other Democrats took pro-NFU positions on between five and nine of the issues without casting any "wrong" votes.

All of these seven, however, were recorded as absent or not voting on at least one of the test issues. They were Sens. Daniel K. Inouye, Hawaii; Birch Bayh, Ind.; Vance Hartke, Inc.; Mike Mansfield, Mont.; Lee Metcalf, Mont.; Fred Harris, Okla.; and George S. McGovern, S.D.

A total of 16 senators — 15 Democrats and Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill. — were listed as having cast or paired no more than one "wrong" vote out of a possible 10. The Democrats were Sens. Allen Cranston, Cal.; John V. Tunney, Cal.; Lawton Chiles, Fla.; Frank Church, Idaho; Edmind S. Muskie, Maine; Edward M. Kennedy, Mass.; Philip A. Hart, Mich.; Harrison A. Williams Jr., N. J.; Clairborne Pell, R.I.; Ernest F. Hollings, S.C.; Henry M. Jackson, Wash.; Robert C. Byrd, W. Va.; Gaylord Nelson, Wis.; Gale W. McGee, Wyo.; and J. W. Fulbright, Ark.

On the other end of the ratings — from the NFU viewpoint — Bennett's leading total of eight "wrong" votes or pairs was followed by seven senators who each had seven "wrong" stands and 11 who had six "wrong." Only one Democrat — Sen. Sam Ervin, N. C., with six "wrong" votes — was among this group.

The list included: with seven anti-NFU votes — independent Harry F. Byrd Jr., Va.; Conservative James L. Buckley, N.Y.; and Republicans Paul J. Fannin, Ariz.; William V. Roth Jr., Del.; Carl T. Curtis, Neb.; Norris Cotton, N.H.; and William E. Saxbe, Ohio.

STILL A familiar sight to any Magic Valley resident who frequents the area's main highways, this band of sheep is being brought from the summer pasture in the mountains to lower elevation for the winter. Occasionally tourists become agitated when their car is surrounded by animals, but veteran Idaho drivers take it in stride.

Moving down

Boxcar jam seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A "major crunch" in moving grain to central storage areas and ports may develop in December or late November, a grain industry task force warned Friday.

The task force, which met with officials of the Association of American Railroads and the Interstate Commerce Commission, said the potential tie-up in ports and along overcrowded rail lines was looming because of vast grain sales to Russia.

The total volume of U. S. grain moving to all export destinations this year is up 40 per cent from the 1971-72 season, the group said in a statement.

Task force members said the shipments to Russia have been moving more slowly than expected because of Soviet delays in chartering and supplying ships.

The group said its greatest fear is that once a steady supply of ships becomes available to pick up the Soviet grain, the supply of rail cars to move grain to ports may become critically short.

"The more delay there is until a steady supply of ships is available, the more critical the problem is likely to be," a task force statement added.

Ruggedness is the key feature of the ZIMMATIC. From pivot to end gun, the ten guage galvanized pipe coupled to the sturdy under-truss design gives the system a strong back bone necessary to work over rough and hilly terrain.

The highly dependable electric drive of the ZIMMATIC makes it completely independent of weather conditions. It can be operated "dry" while being moved forward or backward. Want to reverse it? Just push a button! No other adjustment needed.

Mr. Farmer: You Can't Afford Not To Fertilize This Fall

7 scientific reasons you should fertilize this fall:

1. you will be sure of the quickest crop response in the spring with fertilizer already in the soil, dispersed evenly, immediately available to root systems
2. The danger of seed damage at germination will be minimized.
3. You will be assured of maximum late fall and early spring growth on many crops you'll utilize every day of the growing season
4. Winter-kill will be reduced by increasing root reserves
5. Decomposition of crop residue will be hastened adding additional nutrients to the soil and improving tilth (Undecayed residue often interferes with seedbed preparation and planting too.)
6. You'll be getting necessary N into fruit tree root zones at bloomtime when they need maximum fertility for early fruit maturity
7. Fall fertilization plus plow-down organic matter will conserve moisture and aid in disease control

And 7 practical reasons fall fertilization pays:

1. You can take advantage of good fall weather and not have to worry about those spring storms which often delay fertilization for weeks
2. You'll even up the spring rush work load both in manpower and machinery
3. You'll save time, labor and money by combining fertilization with fall tillage
4. You'll avoid compaction and rutting of the soil which often occur in the spring if fields are wet and boggy (the kind that bog down your tractor, too!)
5. You can take advantage of fast, economical broadcast application
6. Soil tests are easier to take in the fall, with results returned more quickly allowing your Simplot dealer to give you better service. Fertilizer stocks are complete too, and fast delivery is assured
7. And remember that fall fertilization expenses are deductible on this year's income tax return, even though the benefits will apply to next year's crop!

When not to fall-fertilize

There are several instances in which fall fertilization is not recommended.
Do not fall-fertilize steep, bare or frozen fields where topsoil might wash off or erode.
Do not apply N in the fall to coarse, sandy soils.
Do not fall-fertilize areas which water-log or pond in the spring when temperatures are warm.
Do not fall-fertilize areas which slope more than 12%.

Wet spring weather is noted for bogging down trucks and tractors as well as procuring deep, compacted ruts. But the soil is dry and firm in the fall, wheels rarely get stuck and winter freezing takes care of what little compacting does occur.

How much fertilizer should be applied?

The amount, type and rate of fertilizer to apply in the fall depends, of course, on such variables as the kind of crop, soil deficiencies, moisture level, management practices-in short, your individual situation.

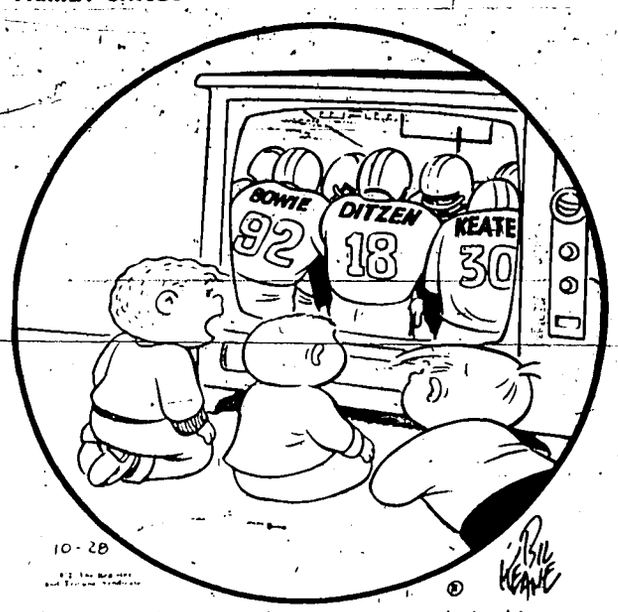

Fortunately, you do not have to try to figure out the technical details. You have a friend who will do it for you, gladly- your Simplot dealer. He will discuss your requirements, help you test your soil, evaluate the results, and then, custom-plan a fall fertilization program for you, with YOUR crop, YOUR yield, and YOUR profit in mind.
See him today!

Sports early are particularly helpful here.

Client asks if a gorilla like King Kong ever actually broke loose in New York City. No gorilla like King Kong. But the record shows a zoo gorilla did once escape from its cage there. Emergency squad boys eventually flushed it out of a dark cellar with firehoses. But not before they tried to lure it into the open by throwing bananas at it. The gorilla threw the bananas back. For about an hour. With remarkable accuracy, too, I'm told.

HARDLY anything drains the pain out of a bee sting quicker than a little bit of kitchen meat tenderizer. Dissolve a pinch in a teaspoonful of water. Rub said solution into the skin around the sting. Appears to neutralize the venom in nothing flat. Or so says Honolulu dermatologist Dr. Harry Arnold, Jr., in the American Medical Association Journal.

QUERY

Q. "What's the exact definition of a jalopy?"

A. Any car that's over seven years old, according to those financial experts who set loan values.

'WASN'T until right after the Civil War that readymade clothes really got popular. All those tailors who had made uniforms for soldiers realized most men take standard sizes.

NO SINGLE girl in the city should overlook these statistics. Young ladies in small towns tend to marry before they're 20. But the women in the major metropolitan areas are apt to go to the altar somewhat later.

TAX

Only four federal taxpayers out of every 100 get it right. That is, they owe no more than they paid, nor can they expect a refund. About 24 out of 100 have to pony up an additional $585. Approximately 72 out of 100 can claim a refund of $265 each. Such were the averages at latest report.

THREE presidents since the Civil War have won their elections by more than 60 per cent of the vote. Warren Harding, Franklin Roosevelt and Lyndon Johnson. This comes up because a client asks which president in the last 100 years drew the largest percentage of the popular vote. It was Johnson. With 61.1 per cent.

MISTER, did you ever turn down a million dollar proposition? Think nothing of it. Lot of renowned fellows have done likewise. Mark Twain, for instance. He declined to help old Alexander Graham Bell with that nonsense called the telephone. Commodore Vanderbilt flat out rejected an invitation to invest in some foolishness invented by a gentleman named Westinghouse. And Chauncey Depew blocked his family from putting $5,000 into Henry Ford's funny little firm.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Serious problems influence Hanoi

LONDON (UPI)—Serious political considerations and military setbacks far more painful than North Vietnam has acknowleged prompted the haste in Hanoi's sudden insistence on an immediate Vietnam peace settlement.

Qualified diplomats who have close contacts with the North Vietnamese ascribed the unprecedented haste to a variety of considerations in Hanoi following its recent close review of the future Vietnam strategy.

The military situation has been presenting growing problems lately, they said. The American bombing has been causing very serious damage and disruptions on a scale not experienced in past years of the heaviest fighting. The American blockade of North Vietnamese ports has cut short necessary supplies and those that are getting through are limited.

Moreover, an important political factor in these considerations has been the issue of the forthcoming U.S. presidential election, according to these diplomats.

Hanoi has been weighing the chances of a defeat of President Nixon and on the basis of latest polls has evidently come to the conclusion that his re-election is a virtual certainty in present circumstances.

Furthermore, Hanoi has been calculating that Nixon might offer better terms closer to the election date, but not after he is re-elected.

Now Hanoi was said to worry lest a delay may make things tougher and that terms could be more exacting after the election.

Undoubtedly, Hanoi has exploited the current situation by prematurely disclosing the proposed peace terms to embarrass the Nixon administration, to put pressure on the President, to mobilize world opinion against the United States and not least to convey the impression that the whole peace accord stemmed from a North Vietnamese initiative.

But, diplomats appeared in no doubt that Hanoi is anxious to get a settlement as quickly as possible for fear that a new situation after the U.S. presidential election could cause delays, and a possible change of heart.

In this sense there has been a marked change in Hanoi's overall approach, according to the diplomats.

What is no less significant is the proviso in the leaked peace terms for form of coexistence, or even cooperation between Vietnam and the United States, with American help towards postwar reconstruction.

Significant also in this context is China's and Russia's hurried backing of the published Vietnam peace terms, underscoring recent reports that Peking—along with Russia—advised Hanoi to settle without much further delay.

While it was held that the Communists could go on fighting and probably even stage some major battles, the chances of an all-out breakthrough to military victory were reportedly rated by Hanoi presently as very slim short of a political collapse of South Vietnam which has not occurred.

Make list

NEW YORK (UPI)—Two-thirds of working women in one study said they go to the store with a shopping list. They make up their lists by checking their supplies on hand (86 per cent), checking advertising for specials (79 per cent) and asking the family (58 per cent).

They study was done for the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Collector readers of the column will be interested to hear about the 15th Annual Southern Idaho Coin Show.

The show will be held Nov. 3-4-5 at the Downtowner Motel, Boise.

This show is held every year and is well worth your attendance. There will be some 25 dealers at the show, besides a great many exhibits. There is no charge and the show opens at 10 a.m., each day.

Also, for those of you who have not heard of recent coin auctions, it might be of interest to know that a coin recently broke all records for auction material. The Hydeman specimen of the 1913 Liberty Head nickel sold for $100,000 on Oct. 3, and a copy of the 1804 silver dollar went for $80,000 at the same sale.

It is interesting to note that neither of these coins is a regular issue coin of the United States. The 1913 Liberty Head nickel was struck in six copies, by an employe of the mint, and was not a legal coin.

The 1804 dollar is also a copy struck the same way — yet collectors are willing to pay dearly for them. This is a good example of what inflation has done to a formerly pleasant pastime.

From W. W., Hailey: I have a peculiar looking dollar I would like to ask about. It has a female figure sitting on a rock, on one side, with a shield and the word "Liberty" on the shield.

Also, she has what looks like a butterfly net in one hand. There are 13 stars around her and the date 1860.

On the other side is an eagle, facing toward the front. Around the eagle for the words "United States of America" and underneath "One Dol." There is a small "O" under the eagle.

The coin is not new, but everything is readable. Is this a real dollar, and, if so, what is its value?

Answer: You have what is known as a "Liberty Seated" dollar and it is a coin. This coin was struck from 1840 until 1873. The "O" under the eagle signifies the New Orleans mint. Most of the Liberty Seated dollars are scarce in new condition, but the 1860-O is the largest mintage (515,000).

Your coin, from the description, would grade very good ($15) or fine ($17.50. We cannot tell you more without seeing the coin.

From T. D. A., Burley: I have several silver dollars I would like to know about. One is 1878, one is 1880, one is 1921, and the other is an Eisenhower dollar, dated 1971. What can you tell me about these?

Answer: Very little, since I do not know what grade they might be. In spite of the age of the first three, they are common dates and not hard to buy. The 1921 could be either a Liberty Head (Morgan) or a "Peace" dollar.

The 1921 Morgan dollar is perhaps the commonest of all silver dollars and could bring from $1.80 up to $3 — depending upon condition. The 1921 Peace dollar is somewhat scarcer, and in very fine condition could bring about $7.

Poorer condition coins are worth less. The other two coins are common, and might bring from $1.80 up to $3, depending upon condition.

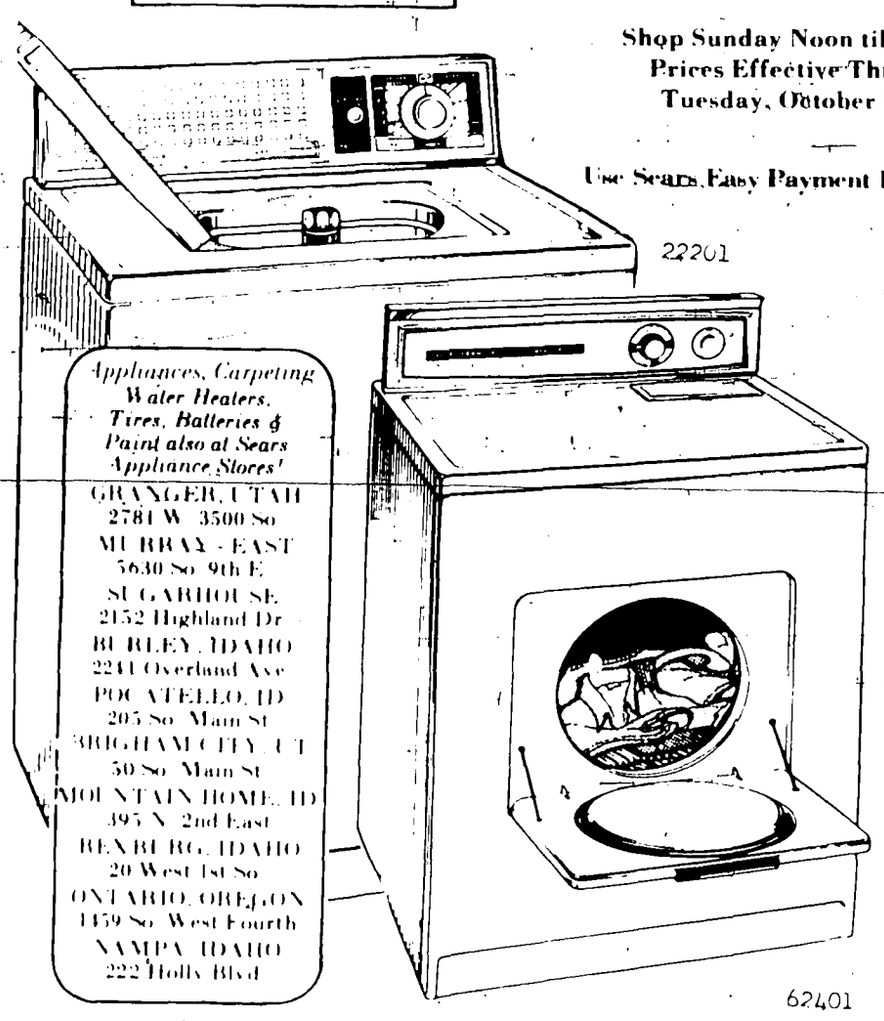

The Eisenhower dollar is not silver — it is made from copper-nickel, and if you want more of them you can get all you want from any bank. They are worth $1 apiece — although the actual metal value is below 14 cents, I believe.

Time proves McGovern right, Sen. Church says

By RANDY LE BLANC

BOISE (UPI) — Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, said Friday a Vietnam compromise settlement identical to the one presently being negotiated could have been reached "at least" four years ago.

"When George McGovern and I were speaking out against the war in 1965, it was considered the rankest form of heresy," Church told a news conference in his Boise office. "But time has proved us right."

"Public memory is short," the Idaho Democrat added. "It is George McGovern, not President Nixon, who has been right all along about the outcome and settlement of the Indochina War."

Asked if he thought the present negotiation developments were politically timed, Church answered there "is always that possibility," but said he hoped President Nixon was "more dear than politics."

He called the Nixon administration's "wind down the war policy" an "obvious failure" and said the U. S. offensive begun six months ago proved Vietnamization was a failure.

Church told newsmen there is a possibility a Nixon landslide victory may take place Nov. 7 especially with the latest peace developments, but said such overwhelming support would prove dangerous to the national interest.

"In view of the tremendous concentration of power to the President, the people must think twice before maintaining the unfettered use of executive power," he said.

Commenting on recent charges of political sabotage and espionage leveled against the Nixon administration by the Washington Post, Church said the White House reaction to the charges was "typical of the fact that the administration has accounted for its actions."

"The people haven't demanded any accountability from the President to answer to situations that have been developing all summer, from the Watergate to now," he said.

"The President of the United States has the most powerful office on earth, that he feels he doesn't have to answer anything is subversiion of the worst kind," he added, saying the present administration has "the makings of a monarchy."

In response to a question about Ralph Nader's report on Congress, the 48-year-old legislator said he was pleased with its contents and called it a "very ambitious" enterprise.

Demo aide crime link charged

By United Press International

Republican National Chairman Bob Dole charged Saturday that Lawrence F. O'Brien, Sen. George S. McGovern's campaign director, met secretly with the president of a firm allegedly linked to organized crime shortly before a congressional hearing on the company was halted.

O'Brien called Dole's allegation "a desperate and despicable lie" and denied he had any secret meeting with Jeremy Jacobs, head of Emprise Corp., a race track concessionaire firm.

Dole claimed in a statement that O'Brien met with Jacobs and his attorney in mid-September when a House subcommittee investigating crime links with horse racing planned to re-question Jacobs, the Emprise president, and his brother. He claimed that after that, the hearings being conducted by Rep. Claude Pepper, D-Fla., were "mysteriously called off."

"It should be of great interest to the American people to find out how the Jacobs' managed to get the crime hearings turned off just before the presidential election," the GOP chairman commented. "It is also of great interest to know of Larry O'Brien's role in helping to get those hearings turned off when many questions remained unanswered as to the extent of Emprise's operations."

Pepper, reached by UPI at his Miami law office, said Dole's implication that the hearings were called off because of O'Brien's intervention was "a falsehood fabricated out of the whole cloth."

He said he had never talked to O'Brien, that the hearings had never been firmly scheduled to resume in September, and that Dole had never talked to him about the allegations before making them.

"I resent any insinuation or inference that we have done anything whatsoever in relation to such a matter," Pepper said. "We have not. This is utterly unfounded."

Pepper said the Jacobs brothers had been "fully cooperative," appearing willingly without subpoenas, and had agreed to come back in the fall for more questioning.

Complaint

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — Television station KXTV reported that 58 women and two men called in to complain when "Love of Life" and part of "Where the Heart Is" were knocked off the air by presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger's briefing on Vietnam peace negotiations.

Business index edges up

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government's index of leading business indicators edged up slightly in September after an August rise which the Commerce Department said Friday was the biggest in 10 years.

The closely watched index which often signals future economic trends rose a modest 0.4 per cent in September. That was noticeably less than the 1.3 per cent average monthly gain since the index began its current upward push in October, 1970. October 1970.

But using late-arriving data, the department revised August's impressive 2.2 per cent jump upward to 2.6 per cent. This was "the largest monthly increase in the composite index in over a decade," the department said.

The index samples action in 12 diverse areas of the economy and produces a composite total computed on a 1967 base of 100. For September, the index was at 146.2 compared with 145.6 in August and 141.9 in July and 113.6 in October, 1970, the beginning of the current expansion.

In another development, the Labor Department announced that labor costs per unit of output in the private non-farm economy decreased in the third quarter of this year for the second consecutive three-month period.

The department's Bureau of Labor Statistics also said that compensation for each man-hour worked increased at an annual rate of 5.9 per cent during the July-August-September period, but output per man-hour for productivity, rose even more at a 6.2 per cent yearly rate.

This resulted in a 0.3 per cent annual rate of decline in unit labor costs in the third quarter on top of a 0.5 per cent rate of decline in the second quarter. These were the first drops in unit labor costs in the private non-farm economy since the third quarter of 1965.

Hempleman okays constitution plans

TWIN FALLS — Lynn Hempleman today joined a growing list of Democratic legislative candidates, to endorse constitutional revision of state government.

Hempleman, seeking one of the representative positions in district 25, said government organization is "a good beginning more for economizing," adding Idaho's tax dollars need to be put to work where they are needed and can do the most good for the peope of Idaho."

A referendum on the Nov. 7 ballot, if approved, would limit the number of state agencies to 20, and provide for reorganization of government by the beginning of 1975.

The referendum, SJR 132, has been heavily promoted throughout the state, and has the strong support of Democratic Gov. Cecil D. Andrus.

Earlier in the campaign, Mrs. G. W. (Jerry) Creed, candidate for representative, and Melvin Lucas, candidate for state senator in district 25, had voiced their support of the referendum.

Key to learning

NEW YORK (UPI) — Most first-year piano students learn so little that they lose interest, says Dr. Robert Pace, educational director of the National Piano Foundation.

"If they were encouraged and allowed to learn to their fullest capability, they would not pressure parents and teachers to let them quit," he said.

US airbases not affected

BANGKOK (UPI) — Agreement to settle the Vietnam War is expected to have little immediate effect on U.S.-occupied air bases or the approximately 45,000 American servicemen here.

The agreement announced by Radio Hanoi and confirmed by presidential adviser Henry M. Kissinger Thursday provides for a withdrawal of all U.S. forces from Vietnam within 60 days after it is signed.

There is also a provision calling for respect of the "neutrality" of Laos and Cambodia, but no mention is made of forces in Thailand or at sea off the coast of Vietnam. There are an estimated 100,000 U.S. servicemen in Thailand and with the U.S. 7th Fleet.

The United States currently has about 500 fighter-bombers, B52 bombers and other strike aircraft stationed at seven air bases in Thailand, as well as support planes such as air-to-air refuelling tankers.

U. S. officials here declined to make any comment about the status of the bases.

Merry Pet

Linda Merry, DVM

Question: Upon reading your column I was wondering if you can answer a question for me. Is there any possible way dog hair could harm children, as I take care of children and am licensed?

They are trying to have me put my dog away from children. The parents don't want me to as they want to teacher their children how to handle a dog or any other pet.

Answer: There are some POSSIBLE ways dog hair could distress children. How likely they are is something you'll have to arbitrate with the licensing board.

Hair from a healthy dog can raise havoc with an allergic child. Hair on a not-so-healthy dog could transmit ringworm, mange, lice or fleas, plus a few miscellaneous bacterial and fungal maladies. Perhaps we should point out that hair from a not-so-healthy child can be equally damaging to the dog and other children.

Question: My sister sent me clippings of your replies to people's questions. So, I wanted to write you about my little 3 pound chihuahua.

My trouble with her is that she was so attached to my husband and she always slept with her 14-year-old great-great grandmother. My husband passed away last October. The old dog grieved so, wouldn't eat or drink. Three weeks she didn't eat and got so thin that the vet said he knew I would have to put her away.

Now Poke, missing my husband, then her grandma, is confused. She won't eat things she used to. Yet, when I go over next door where a fellow lives that has a poodle, Poke eats Mitzie's food (same kind I've been trying to get her to eat). The vet said I should get another dog for her, do you think I should?

I would get a tea cup poodle if I did. Would that solve the problem? I hope you can understand what my trouble is.

Answer: Dogs do love deeply and dogs, like people, can grieve. If there is room in your home and your heart for another dog, I think it would be marvelous for both of you.

Question: We have a male dog of mixed breed, golden Lab and collie, about 1½ year old. Unless kept on a chain he has a tendency to roam. I am wondering about having him "altered," if this would change his disposition. At times he is rather nervous when on the chain.

Answering: Alter, or castration, does not change a dog's personality. It will cut down on nervousness and roaming if your dog spends his time chasing the lassies. It probably will make him more content with being chained when there are dogs in season nearby.

But if, like some chaps, he just trots along sniffing the daisies, Mrs. Jones' trash, and the latest cat's path, it won't help much. His sense of smell won't be affected.

If you have a question about your pet, send it the The Merry Pet column, care of the Times-News.

THE OPEN DOOR POLICY

SOME PEOPLE THINK BOTH PARTIES ARE ALIKE . . .
. . . BUT THERE IS A DIFFERENCE!

The very reason that a candidate is listed as a Republican or a Democrat is that he or she ascribes to the basic political philosophy for which their party stands . . . and there is a difference!

Man and Society.

Cornerstone of Republican philosophy is the belief that each man is an individual who is responsible for his own place in our society. He is encouraged to work to secure the benefits of that society for himself and his family as well as for those who are unable to care for themselves.

Democrats are much more willing to subordinate the individual to the group. They assume that society is collectively responsible for each of its members and they place less emphasis on individual enterprise and initiative.

Government and the Governed.

Republicans believe that government should be limited to doing for people only those things which they cannot do for themselves. The GOP is convinced that government functions best at the local level where citizens can have an effective measure of control over their own problems.

Democrats contend that growing urban and national needs are making local and state governments obsolete. They say power must be concentrated in big, centralized government to solve modern problems.

Economic Policies.

Republicans believe that the free enterprise system is the key to individual and national prosperity. They seek to protect the system against unwarranted government regulation and feel that artificial means of controlling the economy should be used only when there is a clear need.

Democrats maintain that the economy is too complicated to be left to free enterprise alone and must be constantly managed at the federal level. They are generally much quicker to use economic gimmicks such as wage and price controls, tax increases and cutbacks, surcharges and the like.

Foreign Policy.

Republicans believe that America's foreign interests are best served by a strong defense posture and sound national economy. Whenever possible, they believe in encouraging other countries to solve their own problems.

Democrats often seem overly concerned about America's image abroad and are prone to become involved in the affairs of foreign countries. It is a fact that the four major conflicts of this century — World Wars I and II, the Korean War and the Vietnam conflict — were entered into by Democratic administrations.

Government Spending.

Republicans constantly strive for fiscal responsibility in government and look for ways to cut back or eliminate unnecessary and overlapping federal programs. They believe in retaining more tax money at community and state levels where it can be directly applied to local problems.

Democrats, by the very nature of their dependence on big government, are forced to seek more taxes to pay for large, less efficient federal programs. Because they don't believe many problems can be solved at the state and city levels, they try to funnel more dollars to the federal government.

Farm Programs.

Republicans believe that farmers must not be constricted by unwise government controls. The GOP maintains that producers of food and fiber should be permitted to operate as their own masters, rather than as wards of the federal bureaucracy.

Democrats, since the days of the New Deal, have tinkered with the farm economy by imposing quotas and setting prices. In the process they have produced a maze of government controls which have resulted in needless bankruptcies and lower profits for both large and small farmers.

The Environment.

Republicans believe that renewal of our environment is one of the great challenges facing this generation of Americans. Nothing so touches all citizens and the quality of their life than the air we breathe, the water we drink, and the condition of the land on which we live and work.

Despite this vital dependence upon the environment, we have allowed a serious imbalance to arise between man and nature. Technological progress meant a better life for all Americans but it also brought profound changes in the environment. For too long we have not adapted to these changes, and the evidence of neglect is all around us — in air and water and noise pollution, in traffic jams, in the breakdown of many of the systems that make up our daily life.

Environmental quality has become a vitally important issue. Government is now acting to solve the problems of urban sprawl, foul air, polluted water, and land abuse.

Under a Republican Administration, for the first time in our history the environment is a national priority. A special agency, the Environmental Protection Agency, has been established with Cabinet position to solve our neglected ills.

The Democrats have expressed their concern and maintain they are the Party that realized the people's needs, but it is the Republican Party that has recognized and responded to the Nation's problems.

Republican or Democrat?

America has prospered under the two-party system because one party has always served to check the excesses of the other. Republicans believe the time has come to reverse the trend toward bigness in government.

Aside from the mismanagement and waste of over-centralized administration, Republicans recognized a greater danger in big government. Once a people lose the feeling that they control their own destiny, when they come to depend on "the government" to solve all their problems, then they also lose spirit. And a people without spirit can never be a great people.

Many governmental functions must be returned to states and cities and enough tax money retained at those levels to adequately support them.

This is the Republican Way. The Democrats would solve America's problems with more money, more programs and more big government.

Republicans believe people should not be treated as a mass but as individuals. They believe the invididual working, by himself or through well-managed programs, within a society for the good of all is the key to a great America. Republicans believe in people . . .

Yes, there is a difference!

Blaine chief fired

HAILEY — Charles L. Clark has been relieved of his duties as superintendent of the Blaine County School District.

According to district trustee chairman, William B. Mallory, Clark will be retained by the district, but will be re-assigned to other areas of responsibility. Asst. Supt. Ray Jefferson will serve as acting superintendent, he said.

The main reason for the unanimous decision by the board was "Lack of communication between Clark and the district principals and faculty members," Mallory said.

When contacted Saturday, Clark said he had no comment at this time, pending further information on the re-assignment from the board of trustees. A statement will be released at a later date, he said.

Mallory said Jefferson will continue to serve as acting superintendent until about mid-winter, when the situation will be reviewed.

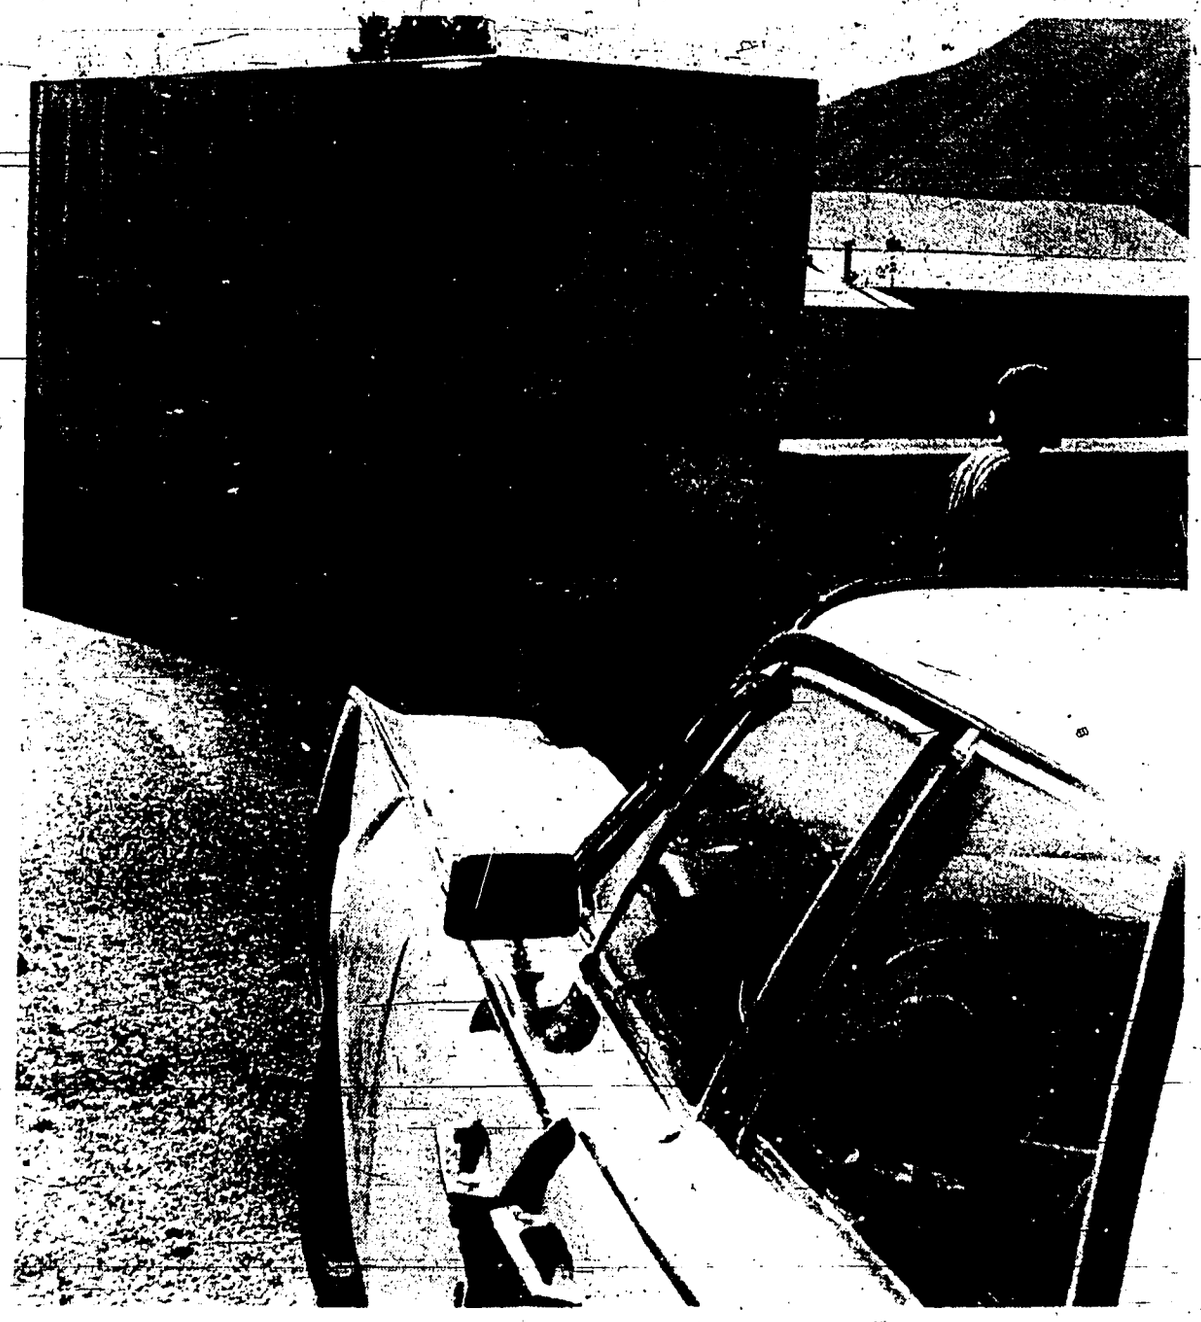

Burley hunter wounded

BURLEY — Samuel L. Roberts, 24, Burley, was dismissed from Cassia Memorial Hospital Saturday morning following surgical treatment of a gunshot wound.

Roberts and his brother, Wesley Roberts, had been rabbit hunting and stopped at a gravel pit six and a half miles southwest of Burley at 4:45 p.m. Friday for some target shooting, according to Glen Loveland, Cassia County deputy sheriff.

Roberts had taken his .22 caliber pistol from the holster on his right side, and as he removed his hand from the weapon, it discharged, Loveland said. The bullet hit Roberts in the right thigh, traveling down his leg and lodging in the calf of the leg, just under the skin.

Roberts was taken to the hospital by his brother. The bullet was removed in surgery Friday evening. Officers were notified after the Roberts brothers reached the hospital.

Fatal crash

COLLISION OF this automobile, foreground, with the rear end of a sheep transport truck, Friday morning, in north Hailey, resulted in the death of the car's driver, Joe Cenarrusa, 83, Hailey, father of Secretary of State Pete Cenarrusa.

Hansen boys get practice

HANSEN — Boy Scouts of Troop 43, Hansen, had some unplanned first aid training early Saturday morning when their leader fell while hiking in Snake River Canyon.

Boys of the LDS Church troop had gone on a hike along the canyon trail in Jerome County just west of the Hansen Bridge when the leader, Vernol Harper, 50, slipped on a rock and fell about four feet, breaking his right leg just above the ankle.

Sheriff Paul Corder and several deputies, assisted by a Jerome County deputy and Jerome Police Chief Howard DuBois, assisted in rescuing the injured man.

Officers in Twin Falls said it was necessary to carry the Scout leader from the canyon by stretcher where he was placed in an ambulance and taken to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital.

Hospital attendants said he was treated and released later in the day. Officers said the Scouts and the leader and assistant leader, Elmer Stevenson, Kimberly, were walking near the bottom of the canyon when the accident occurred.

Harper was injured about 8:20 a.m. and was out of the canyon about 11 a.m. Officers said the incident occurred about one quarter mile west of the Hansen Bridge and a fairly good trail leads to the canyon rim at that point but it is rocky and rough for carrying a stretcher.

GOP hopefuls visit Jerome on Monday

JEROME — Republican hopefuls, Rep. James McClure, and Rep. Orval Hansen, will be in Jerome Monday morning.

Clair Ricketts, Jerome GOP committee chairman, said today that Hansen, who is running for representative in Congress from the second district, and McClure, who is seeking election to the U.S. Senate, are expected to arrive in Jerome at 10:55 a.m. Monday and leave about 12:15 p.m.

Ricketts said the two candidates will be at Republican campaign headquarters on South Lincoln to meet with the voeters and answer questions.

The chairman said Mrs. Hansen will be a guest at a 10:30 a.m. coffee hour at the home of Mrs. Henry Jones, Eden.

Valley Briefs

SHOSHONE — The Rev. John W. Sears, Jerome, will be the guest speaker at the 11 a.m. worship services today at the Shoshone First Baptist Church.

A thought for the day: U.S. writer Henry David Thoreau said, "There are a thousand hacking at the branches of evil to one who is striking at the root."

Shoshone man not involved

TWIN FALLS - Mrs Lamont Mansky said Saturday that her husband, Lamont Mansky, 40, Twin Falls, was in no way connected with an altercation at Shoshone Oct 19

Although Mansky was charged with disturbing the peace in Shoshone, he was not connected with the altercation in which a Pocatello man, Raymond Cook, 51, was injured and the charge was not in connection with that incident

Cook was later hospitalized in Pocatello Shoshone police said a third man, who was not identified by officers, was there

Group has waste report

SHOSHONE The Wood River Resource Council of Governments, meeting in Shoshone Thursday, heard a presentation by the Heil Co on handling solid waste

Homer Stewart, Truck Equipment Sales Co, Blackfoot, presented a 20-minute film describing a trash reducing machine which would effectively reduce the volume of solid waste by grinding

The machine would reduce most types of solid waste into a uniform, packable material that would need only a minimun of earth covering

The method would eliminate voids and cavities resulting from large bulky items that plague current methods of compacting trash

Council of governments chairman Don G Fredericksen said the method would be studied as a possible solution to the four-county waste problem

Fredericksen announced the appointment of Dell E Taylor, Gooding, as planner-in-charge for the Wood River Resource Area Region 4 County Comprehensive planning effort

Taylor, formerly Gooding County Farmer's Home Administration office manage, comes to the Wood River Resource Area with many years planning experience

The Taylors will continue to reside in Gooding, where he will be stationed

The council received guidelines for the composition of the project plan and it should be ready for the printers by the first of the year

Work on the Blaine County portion of the west side road to Magic Reservoir has begun, according to Jack Bennett, Blaine County commissioner and chairman of the Wood River Resource Area subcommittee working on the project

Bennett said that Blaine County and Shoshone Road District have made commitments to widen and prepare the roadbed for oiling

No completion date for the project has been set.

Idaho contracts arouse concern

Hours after he assured newsmen everything was on the up and up, Hough put out a press statement that the governor had ordered a halt to film contract awards pending a study of procedures.

This was at 10 p.m. on Oct. 18. Within a few days — possibly even before this dispatch is published — the Andrus administration is expected to announce a policy governing motion pictures.

At this writing such a policy does not exist. Until Andrus' Oct. 18 executive order state agencies were free to hire whom they desired to produce informational films for them. They had no guidelines on contracts, rate schedules or other data pertinent and often necessary to contracting for films.

Attorney General W. Anthony Park, who is working with the administration on the problem, has issued an opinion that filmmaking is a "service" and does not require a bidding procedure. In fact, Park told State Purchasing Agent Dan Pilkington that contracting for such services is outside Pilkington's control.

Personally, however, Park believes some sort of guidelines should be developed. So, it appears, does the governor. Andrus indicated he was unaware there were no such guidelines until newsmen began asking questions about the procedures.

Inquiries by UPI indicate these officials may have a point. Thousands — eventually even millions — of federal dollars may be available for spending by the state on informational films.

Within the past year, state agencies have contracted for at least $58,460 worth of such films. Other agencies were negotiating for production of approximately $37,500 worth of additional films when Andrus' order halting such contracts came out.

Under a program of the Federation of Rocky Mountain States approximately $4.5 million in federal health, education and welfare funds may become available for use with an educational satellite program now planned for 1974.

This money would be used throughout the Rocky Mountain region.

Hansen to get mobile homes

HANSEN — Mayor Harold Miller, Hansen, said Saturday word has been received of approval of financing for a 60-unit mobile home park here.

Miller said the new facility will be located within the city limits of Hansen on 12 acres of ground at the north edge of town. It will be a deluxe mobile home park and is being built by Northwest Crane and Riggins Co., Twin Falls, owner of the property.

Keith Sligar, manager, plans to start construction immediately. The start of work has been held up pending final approval of the financing, Miller said.

Miller said construction of the park will bring additional people and revenue to the town of Hansen. He said banking interests apparently have faith in the growth of Hansen and have approved the financing on this basis.

Queen

HOMECOMING queen at University of Idaho, Moscow, is Bonnie Sue Trounson, 18, Wendell, who was chosen Friday night. She is a freshman home economics major and the daughter of Wes Trounson, Wendell. Miss Trounson is a 1972 graduate of Wendell High School.

Accomplishments listed

TWIN FALLS — First year accomplishments of the Twin Falls County Resource Planning committees have been reported to county commissioners.

Commission Chairman William Chancey said the various committees have made some outstanding progress and there are many new developments on the verge of reality within the county.

In a first year report meeting Thursday night, chairmen of the committees reported on inventory studies and recommendations.

Ralph Olmstead, chairman of the transportation committee, said it was determined transportation needs are closely linked with land use throughout the county and the transportation committee will meet jointly with the land use committee to coordinate inventory and recommendation reports.

Don Kramer, Castleford, chairman of the land use committee, agreed with the coordination proposal and said his group has met with land use committees in the three adjoining counties to work out similar coordination so conflicting uses would not meet at county lines.

Pollution control committee chairman Joe Fehrenbacker, Buhl, told the commissioners his committee is currently attempting to set priorities for pollution control including such matters as solid waste, headed by old car body problems, and water pollution involving streams and Snake River.

Water resource studies were illustrated by Al Peters, Twin Falls. He presented a map and reported on surveys completed on available water supplies.

He said interesting developments are anticipated by means of new lands irrigated from water now classified as run-off or waste water from existing irrigation projects.

Paul Ostyn, recreation chairman, presented a lengthy report on recreation facilities as they now exist and those which could be developed.

Numerous county park sites have been surveyed and are suitable for development if acquired by the county.

His report also covered municipal recreation, winter recreation, fishing and hunting and the county fairgrounds potential.

Dr. Ernest Ragland, education chairman, told the county officials there is no apparent need or demand for further school consolidation at this time. He reviewed existing educational facilities indicating increasing use of college programs by all communities.

Jennings Pierce, information chairman, said he has had difficulty obtaining information from the various committees for coordination and public reports. He asked chairmen to keep his committee informed as to developments.

County zoning administrator, Ed Woods told the group R. P. Fasolino, professional planner, expects to have a county-wide comprehensive plan ready for a final report by late November.

He said this is a different type of study than that being worked out by the resource committees, but the information will give county officials a complete review of the county when used in connection with the resource planning surveys.

Chancey said a meeting will be called when the Fasolino report is ready for delivery.

Church hits presidential 'monarchy' in Burley

By DAVID HORSMAN
Times-News Writer

BURLEY — A "scandal-ridden" Washington and the presidential monarchy" were prime targets of Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, here Firday.

But the Senator, displaying the rhetorical form that earned him the Tag of "classic orator" in a recent Ralph Nader congressional study, saved his condemnation of national Republican politics for an emphatic conclusion at a Democratic rally.

He opened with a blanet endorsement of all the Democratic candidates in attendance at the Ramada Inn dinner.

Church made clear his wish that Democratic Senate candidate William E. (Bud) Daivs join him in Washington.

Stressing the compatibility that Sen. Len Jordan, R-Idaho, and he had achieved in protecting and promoting Idaho's interests, he said he could not anticipate such a relationship if Davis' opponents, Rep. James McClure, R-Idaho, is elected.

Davis' legislative future as a freshman senator was suggested when Church hinted that he might get a seat on the important Agriculture Committee.

The committee assignment was probably discussed when Davis met whith Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., at a Democratic rally in Idaho Falls Friday morning.

Noting several co-appearances with Gov. Cecil Andrus, Church said the governor had facetiously remarked that, of all the candidates, "Bud Davis is my choice for governor." Church had said earlier that "happiness is having Cecil Andrus as governor of Idaho."

Willis Ludlow, Second Congressional District candidate, received Church's praise as a spirited campaigner who started with few resources and limited support and has become a serious contender.

"And he's done it with the most innovative methods that I know of," Church said, citing Poor Willie's Almanack, a weekly pamphlet that Ludlow uses as a political forum.

Ludlow's Almanack frequently attacks the incumbent congressmen, Rep. Orval Hansen, R-Idaho, for his refusal to engage in public debate, and Church echoed this charge when he said, "Hansen has been as hard for Willie to find as Dick Nixon has been for George McGovern to find."

Stumping for local Democrats, Church asked that voters "make an extra effort for Cecil Andrus to give him a legislature that he can work with."

State Senate candidate W. F. (Bill) Whittom and house hopeful Robert Guffey in district 21 and Sen. Robert Saxvik and representative candidates Clarence Parr and William McKean in district 26 were said by Church to be essential to a progressive legislature.

Church then assailed President Nixon and his administration.

He noted that a cease fire in Vietnam is reportedly close to settlement and said a comparable agreement could have been reached four years ago "without the loss of 20,000 American lives and the maiming of 100,000 more" and without $75 billion in defense spending "blown to smithereens."

He said, "Sen. McGovern and I spoke out on the same day (Feb. 4) in 1965 for a negotiated settlement in Vietnam while Nixon was a cheerleader for the war."

But Church said he supported the present negotiations because he "holds peace more dear than politics."

"The evidence of scandal in Washington is irrefutable," Church said. He cited claims that International Telephone and Telegraph contributed $400,000 to the Republican campaign in return for special treatment in anti-trust investigation.

He attacked the recent U. S. wheat sale to Russia because some exporters capitalized on advance information concerning the deal. "The Russians got the wheat and the farmers got the chaff," he said.

The Watergate affair (linking attempts to bug Democratic headquarters with the Committee to Re-elect the President) was also subjected to Church's ire.

"The Justice Department investigated and found itself innocent," he chided.

The Senator lamented the "embellishments" that have been added to the presidency. "It (the Presidency) now has all the trappings of a monarchy,) he said.

Church typified the undue presidential prestige by citing a recent White House dinner which he attended. A new routine had been added to ceremonies marking the entrance of the President, according to Church.

Heralding the chief executive's appearance were trumpeters adorned with black velvet flags that identified them as "the President's own." Church said, "When 'his worship' arrived, you didn't know whether to genuflect or kiss his ring."

"The presidency is now a unanswerable and unaccountable monarchy," he said, and warned the voters not to be psyched out" by big money and flamboyant advertising.

McGovern will adopt the Truman credo of "The buck stops here," according to Church. But he urged that, if McGovern is not elected, a Democratic legislature be maintained to provide a check-and-balance government.

PRESIDENTIAL candidates were painted by Norman Rockwell, whose personal preference is beside the point as he stands between his paintings at Stockbridge, Mass. Rockwell was commissioned by Ladies Home Journal to do the paintings. (UPI)

MANTI, Utah (UPI) — Dixie Thompson of Ephraim showed up her male hunting companions near here by killing two deer with a single shot.

She said one deer was behind the other, out of view, and she was surprised when two animals fell as she fired.

Indian plight told at Burley meet

"Indians of Southern Idaho" was the topic Mrs. Crane presented to the women. She reported the Shoshone Indians lived on the poorest land which is now northern Nevada and Utah and southern Idaho.

The Shoshone Indians worked the year around to survive. Their diet was rodents, roots, seeds, berries, rabbits and birds. It was a great feast and celebration when the Shoshone were able to kill a deer, reported Mrs. Crane.

They used the stones to grind the seeds and berries. A special harvest was the camas roots in the area known today as Camas Prairie.

It was not until in the 1799's that the Shoshone Indians got their first horses from the Spanish. Then they hunted the buffalo which roamed southern Idaho, until this herd was extinct.

After having buffalo for some time the Shoshone then rode into the Blackfoot nation to hunt buffalo and risked their lives for the buffalo.

The Shoshone lodged in caves and were the least warlike of all the Indians. They were the first Indians to help the white man, according to Mrs. Crane.

Several books about Indians were on display along with several stone artifacts which were found by Keith Crane, in Conner Canyon.

The program was arranged by Mrs. Eddie Karlson.

During the business meeting which was conducted by Mrs. Ransom Brown, president, information was read in regard to the state Valentine queen contest held in February in Boise. The members selected Mrs. JoAnn Karlson as Valentine to represent Xi Omega Chapter in the contest.

Mrs. Robert Larsen, social chairman, reported on plans for the costume party Saturday at the home of Mrs. Rex Weech. Husbands of the chapter members will be guests.

Special guests were Mrs. Barbara Parker, Rupert; Mrs. Clarretta Jones and Mrs. Delta Jones, both Burley. The women viewed a display table which included scrapbooks, magazine, jewelery and other items.

The aims and purpose of Beta Sigma Phi were outlined in reports by Mrs. Glenn Bailey, Mrs. Rodney Murphy, Mrs. LePage Layton, Mrs. Larsen, and Mrs. Joe Adams.

Chapter members viewed the "Uncle Art's Coloring Book" which is being used in the elementary classes in Minidoka and Cassia counties school systems along with the film titled "Art Linkletter Talks to Kids." This is a drug education project. The Xi Omega Chapter has purchased 400 of the coloring books and buttons as a service project.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Fink and Mrs. Bernice Rehn, co-hostesses.

The next regular business meeting will be Nov. 9 at the home of Mrs. Bailey with Mrs. Layton as co-hostess. Cultural lessons will be given by Mrs. Manuel Gutierez.

Medic tells of replacing diseased artery

PORTEAND, Ore. (UPI)—A Portland surgeon Thursday described "a very simple 15-minute operation" in which a diseased artery is replaced by utilizing the body's ability to grow a new blood vessel around a silicone tube.

"Any surgeon with training in vascular surgery is quite capable" of performing the needed operations, said Dr. Charles H. Sparks.

Sparks, 50, said nearly all of the 15,000-30,000 artery replacements made each year could use the new technique which he said he has been working on for nine years.

The physician said the initial surgery is the 15-minute operation in which a flexible silicone rubber tube, wrapped in a loosely knit dacron cover, is implanted at the site of the diseased artery.

"Then the patient goes home and goes about his business for five to six weeks while a tube of the patient's own tissue grows," Sparks said. "Then he comes back to the hospital and we remove the silicone tube and hook up the ends of the tissue tube where we want it."

The second operation is more complicated than the first, requiring about two hours to remove the silicone tube and sew the ends of the new tissue tube to healthy ends of the natural artery.

Sparks said the central element in the new technique is a three-piece kit just released by its manufacturer, Edward Laboratories of Santa Ana, Calif., for general use throughout the country. The kit is used in performing the surgery which initiates the growth of the arteries.

The technique has been used on about 100 patients at 11 medical centers around the nation, Sparks said. However, he declined to name the centers without their permission.

The initial surgery involves using "a tunneling device"—a sharp hollow metal tube to slice through tissue. The silicone tube with its knitted cover is then pushed through the metal tube and the metal tube is removed.

In the second procedure, only the silicone tube is removed. The patient's tissue has grown in around the knitted dacron. Sparks said the artificially grown artery "is stronger than a normal artery."

He said without the mesh lining an artery of the patient's tissue would not be strong enough to last and would collapse if the patient's blood pressure dropped.

He said in the 5-1-2 years he has been performing the surgery on dogs and the 4-1-2 in which he has performed the operation on human patients he has "seen no deterioration" of the new arteries.

Two of his own 21 patients have died, one of a heart attack and one of lung cancer. The surgery was unsuccessful in a third patient for reasons he was not able to determine.

Average age of patients growing their own arteries is 63 with the youngest 50 and the oldest 74. Most of the grafts involve arteries of the legs and arms but some have been in the lower trunk and Sparks is trying to develop a Y-shaped tube for use on an artery leading from the heart.

"We don't have the problem of rejection," he said.

Sparks said some work is being done in attempting to adapt the technique to growing a trachea (windpipe) and he himself is working on heart valves.

Nixon to veto ban on taxes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon said Friday he would veto legislation that would have outlawed local head taxes on airline passengers.

The head-tax ban was part of legislation that would have pledged nearly $1 billion more in federal funds for airport development. In vetoing the bill, Nixon said it was too costly and too narrow in scope.

Only five airports in New Hampshire and one in Florida would have been exempted from the head tax ban, and then only temporarily.

A growing number of communities have levied the per-passenger tax to boost airport revenues and many others are planning it. But congressional critics of the practice said there was no uniformity in the taxes or in the method of collecting them.

The biggest city spared by the veto was Philadelphia, which slapped a $2 head tax on both arriving and leaving passengers—which many have refused to pay.

The proposed ban was included in a bill boosting minimum authorization levels for federal grants-in-aid for airports across the country to expand or modernize in the next two fiscal years.

Under it, the minimum grant levels for air carrier and subsidiary airports would have gone from $250 million to $312.5 million; for general aviation airports from $30 million to $37.5 million and for airport development grants from $840 million to $1.68 billion.

POLLY'S

DEAR POLLY—I used to have trouble keeping garlic fresh until the owner of an Italian delicatessen gave me this pointer. Peel and cut cloves of garlic into tiny pieces, put in a small jar, cover contents with oil and cover the jar. Whenever I need garlic in spaghetti sauce I use both the oil and the garlic from the jar and it really works great. —DOROTHY

DEAR POLLY—After raking the yard I use a snow shovel to put the debris (leaves, sticks and grass) into trash bags. A snow shovel is easy to handle and holds quite a lot. I also stay cleaner —ETTA

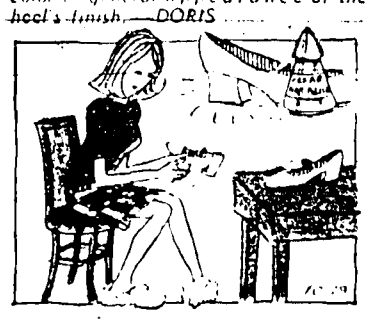

Polly pays $1.00 for every idea used Send them to her, c/o this newspaper.

DEAR POLLY—We have pulled a travel trailer through nearly all the States, and everything in the cabinets used to slide all around. Finally I bought several plastic dishpans, filled them with cookware, cleansers, groceries and so on, and put the pans on the shelves. They do not slide, and that scramble is ended —MRS. G. T. W.

DEAR POLLY—Do save those old tissue dress patterns. They make wonderful packing paper when moving, or when mailing something.—LYNDA

DEAR POLLY—When you have two decks of cards with the same design on the backs and one gets worn-looking, keep the old deck so that if one card is lost from the newer-looking one you have a substitute.—VICKY F

DEAR POLLY—To prevent the heels on my shoes from getting scuffed I apply a thin coat of colorless nail polish before wearing them the first time. Polly's Note—Try a tiny spot first to be sure the polish does not affect the color or general appearance of the heel's finish.—DORIS

DEAR POLLY—The birds that kept flying against our sliding glass doors were often killed so we put pretty flower decals on the doors. They keep the birds away and are also very attractive.—JENNIFER

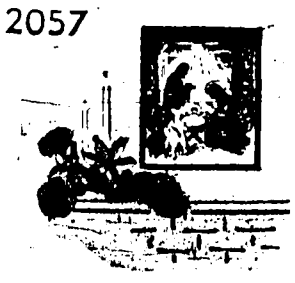

DEAR POLLY—Those who have umbrella-like clotheslines in the yard might like my Pointer. I hang out the clothes and, if it looks like it is going to rain, I throw an oversize piece of plastic over the entire clothesline.—MISS V. J. H.

DEAR POLLY—Here's a clip-and-save for springtime: Use halves of eggshells that are in fairly good condition, fill with rich soil, put flower seeds in them and a bit more soil on top. Water daily and, when large enough to move outside, plants are easily put in the ground. While they are in the house, the half of the egg carton with indentations makes a good holder —ABBY

DEAR POLLY—Old toothbrushes make good doll hair brushes, and the tiny hangers men's ties come on make good dress hangers for the doll.—JENNIFER

FOR EVA GABOR

I understand you own a Rolls-Royce. Do you drive it yourself?—L. Freeman, Los Angeles, Calif.

● Yes, and I am a menace to the highways. I have an old Rolls-Royce, and I drive it like a truck. I don't drive very fast. Once I collided with a little Volkswagen. There was barely a scratch on it—the Volkswagen, I mean. And the woman who drove it jumped out and screamed at me in a very heavy accent. I don't like accents! I told her so and she screamed back, "Look who's talking!" And then she sued me for $40,000! I am a lady of principle, and I thought she was unjustified. The insurance company finally settled for $100, or something like that. But I had to go to court for it, and I remember that someone came to me and said something about a court stenographer and I said, "Please—no pictures!" Then it turned out that the stenographer isn't a court photographer—so I guess my English isn't perfect yet.

FOR JAMES A. MICHENER, author

In "The Drifters," you talked about the running of the bulls in Pamplona, Spain. Did you ever actually run with the bulls?—Mrs. Daphne Morgan, Shedd, Ore.

● I've run with the bulls at Pamplona as many as two dozen times. At age 66, I don't run as far as I used to, but last time I tried it two men were killed right next to me. It's a crazy occupation, but men of all nations engage in it. I have never been able to explain why satisfactorily, except that the thrill of being in the streets in the early morning with the bulls thundering past is surpassed by none other I know.

FOR CLORIS LEACHMAN, actress

In the "Mary Tyler Moore Show" you play Mary's neurotic neighbor Phyllis Lindstrom. Is there any similarity between Phyllis and yourself in real life?—R. B., Beatrice, Neb.

● I don't know if neurotic is the right word for Phyllis, at least the way I am playing her now. She can be both irritating and lovable, but both of us are busybodies, opinionated, enthusiastic, energetic, positive, bossy—and we expect everyone to agree with us.

FOR DALE EVANS

I know that you and your husband have lost children in tragedies. What is the size of your family, and what are you doing now?—M. J. Downey, Canton, Ohio

● We have four adopted children and one foster child. We do about ten state fairs a year together, and we just made a religious record album. Also, I make many appearances at "Youth for Christ" get-togethers.

FOR DICK CAVETT, TV star

How did you get into television? — Eugene Semansky, Trenton, N.J.

● While working as a copyboy at "Time" magazine I heard that Jack Paar was continually worried about his opening monologue. I wrote a two-page monologue, and while on my way to deliver it to Jack's office, I ran into him in the corridor. He was receptive and used some of the material that night. After I wrote a second monologue, I was appointed a comedy writer on the Paar staff.

FOR VICTOR SEN YOUNG, cook on "Bonanza"

Did being wounded in the recent hijacking of a jetliner cause you to give up air travel?—Mrs. Laurene Mills, Hobart, Ind.

● No. I have made several flights since the hijacking. But I do look to see that the airline is enforcing security measures, and if they are not, I will avoid that particular flight.

FOR MONTY HALL, "Let's Make a Deal" MC

Our family noticed that you make deals with very few black people. Does their color or race cause them to be denied? —David B. Smith, Chapel Hill, N.C.

● Never. Contestants are chosen by our writers because they appear to be good traders for our trading floor. If you watched the show regularly, you would know that there is no color barrier.

FOR ERMA BOMBECK, columnist

As a child you were a singer and dancer in Dayton, Ohio. What made you switch to journalism?—Betty Joiner, Yorba Linda, Calif.

● When I sat down at the typewriter, people laughed. When I stood up to sing, people cried.

FOR JAMES WHITMORE, star of "Temperature's Rising"

What's more important in a television series, the people or the stories?—M. Allen, Ventura, Calif.

● I say it's the people, the characters. If you like Lucy, you'll watch her, no matter what the story is. So I encourage viewers to tune in to each new program at least once. The stories may get better or worse, but if you like the characters, you'll enjoy watching them no matter what.

FACT OR FICTION?

You should avoid exercise during your period.

Fiction! The simple rules of good health are always important, especially during your period. Exercise, a proper diet and a good night's sleep go a long way toward relieving menstrual cramps or preventing them altogether. And remember, you're not "sick." So there's no reason not to follow your normal routine.

Fact. With Tampax tampons, odor can't form. Odor is noticeable only when the fluid is exposed to air. With Tampax tampons, fluid is absorbed before it comes in contact with air; therefore, odor cannot form.

Fiction! Contrary to superstition, water can't hurt you. Daily baths or showers are a must throughout your period. Shampoo your hair, too. And don't deny yourself the chance to go swimming. Tampax tampons are worn internally, so you can swim anytime.

Single girls can use Tampax tampons.

Fact. Any girl of menstrual age who can insert them easily and without discomfort, can use Tampax tampons with complete confidence. Follow the easy directions in every package.

Our only interest is protecting you.

YOUR NERVES CAN CURE THEMSELVES

once you learn how to de-sensitize them, this doctor's ingenious new way...

If You Suffer From A Single One Of These Torturous Symptoms Of Nerves, Tension Or Chronic Anxiety, THEN THE FACTS BELOW MAY BE THE MOST IMPORTANT YOU HAVE EVER READ IN YOUR LIFE!

Because they reveal, for the first time, how your nerves have tricked you into the following mental symptoms:

constant nervousness and over-irritation... indecision... depression ... loss of confidence in yourself and others... feelings of unreality ... overwhelming obsession with one or two horrible thoughts...

a hopeless feeling that your entire personality is coming apart ... that your identity is dissolving ... or that you may be helplessly drifting into a nervous breakdown!

And equally as bad—how your nerves have tricked you into the following physical symptoms:

chronic fatigue, that starts in the morning, and grows worse as the day goes on ...

"churning" stomach ... nausea ... choking feeling in the throat ... inability to take a deep breath ... tight band of pain around the head ... "ready to jump out of your skin"... strange tricks of vision ... weak spells ... insomnia, that goes on night after night after night ...

hand shaking ... panic spasms ... knots in your chest ... dizziness ... difficulty in swallowing ... vomiting ... and all the other physical tortures that turn your life into one continuous hell!

And Every One Of These Nervous Symptoms Can Be Controlled ... And Then Diminished ... And Then Eliminated—OFTEN BY AS LITTLE AS THIS ONE SINGLE INSIGHT INTO THEIR HIDDEN CAUSE!

And that insight is this:
If you suffer from any of the nervous symptoms listed above, then you must understand at once that your nerves are not ill ... they have not deteriorated ... they have not lost their true physical health in any way! What has happened to them instead is that they have simply become OVER-SENSITIZED ... "rubbed raw" by too much outside irritation ... and are now ready to discharge the emotional and physical symptoms of panic at even the slightest thing that goes wrong!

Thus, the depression ... indecision ... loss of confidence and all the other emotional symptoms you feel are all caused by OVER-SENSITIZED nerves! And the churning stomach ... palpitating heart ... never-ending headaches and all the other physical nervous symptoms you feel are—again—all caused by OVER-SENSITIZED nerves!

And therefore the way to treat ALL these symptoms is NOT with drugs ... NOT with shock ... NOT with medical formulations or hospitalizations at all! The way to treat these nerves is to change the poisonous thoughts that are rubbing them raw!

And this is done (as proven by this internationally-famed physician on thousands of patients) in four simple steps! The first of which stops nervous symptoms (both physical and emotional) from multiplying from that moment on! The second of which serves to tranquilize and quiet down those over-sensitized nerves far more powerfully (and permanently) than any drug a pharmacist could ever give you!

The third of which lets you stop fighting those symptoms (which only intensifies them in an ever-increasing spiral of sheer torment), and—instead—leave them alone in an ingenious way that lets them start healing themselves!

And the fourth of which—the great reward—brings you slowly but surely back to the person you used to be! With a new, enduring feeling of control and confidence that nothing can destroy! So much so that this doctor actually comes right out and states bluntly: "The advice given here will definitely cure you, if you only follow it"!

In Fact, Case History After Case History Proves That Cure May Be So Dramatically Quick That Your Friends And Family Will Beg You To Tell Them Your Secret!

Once again, it doesn't matter what physical or emotional symptoms you are now suffering from ... how "deeply entrenched" they are ... how long you have been plagued by them ... how "old" or "weak" or "out-of-control" you may feel today! Here is specific, step-by-immediate-step advice that will (again to quote directly from the doctor) "banish every unwelcome sensation and regain peace of mind and body"!

For example:

The two-minute self-treatment (you perform one ingenious little action with your chest) that ends sudden panic seizures on the spot—including all their side effects such as dizziness, pins and needles, involuntary stiffening of the joints, inability to breathe, and all the rest ...

That "lump in the throat that won't go away"—how to banish it in minutes ... and enjoy eating any food you wish to once again!

Physical weakness—perhaps the most dreaded of all symptoms and (surprisingly) perhaps the fastest of all to banish!

How to deal with the twin monsters of fatigue and guilt! And leave behind emotional exhaustion ... morning depression ... thoughts that once raced around and around in your mind without cessation! (And leave them all behind—for good!)

Why so many patients who tried these simple techniques actually came out of their nervous sicknesses as far finer and stronger people than they ever were before!

How to recover from chronic tension caused by an insoluable problem! The only sane way to overcome it! How to avoid unnecessary suffering, for both yourself and others! And, perhaps, actually turn your worst defeat into crowning success!

How to bring happiness back into your everyday life! Not by waiting for some great event or reward ... but simply by developing the eyes to see joy in the little things all around you!

How to beat insomnia! Again, specific, proven step by step instructions! Ten different aids that may have you waking up tomorrow morning as fresh as a baby, with eight full hours of blissful sleep replenishing every cell in your body!

And—the final goal: How to develop the kind of nervous control that automatically turns panic off the instant it starts! That frees you forever from "nerve-crutches" such as drugs or alcohol! That lets you pick up your life again from the point where over-sensitized nerves forced you to abandon it, with absolute confidence that you now have the poise and self-possession to accomplish the goals you have always wanted!

WHAT OTHERS SAY:

"... helped me so much and released me from the particular hell I have been living in since my breakdown six years ago."

"I think of Dr. Weekes with admiration and deep gratitude, as I am sure thousands of other people are doing."

"Looking back now, I am amazed at the progress I have made in such a comparatively short time."

"It would be no exaggeration to add that your book saved my life."

"The method you give for cure of nervous conditions is so effective and so simple—I cannot think why, out of all the professional people I have seen and all the books I have read in an effort to find a cure, nothing remotely like your system has been suggested to me.

"The great reassurance you give about the distressing physical symptoms of a disturbed nervous system is one of the greatest benefits to be derived from your book."

"You cannot possibly imagine what a relief it is to be able to view life normally again, instead of fear-panic all the while."

"I cannot describe the emotion I felt to find, at last, someone who really understood the problem, and to hear her say the condition can be cured ... If only this understanding person had the time to take all sufferers under her wing."

"I would like you to know that my nervous condition has so greatly improved through the advice gleaned from your most precious and invaluable book ... that all symptoms have now disappeared and I rarely need Librium or sleeping capsules."

"My physician is amazed at my progress and of course I showed him your book which he borrowed and read thoroughly and is now recommending to other patients in like circumstances."

"My wife has made a vast improvement since using your book and now feels for the first time like getting away from the hospital altogether. I'm sure if she had had your treatment in earlier years she would never have had to go into the hospital at all."

WHAT THE PUBLISHER SAYS:

HOPE AND HELP FOR YOUR NERVES has sold over 250,000 copies and has been endorsed by medical and mental-health associations throughout the world. Millions of Americans have heard Dr. Weekes on television and radio shows and have read excerpts from the book which recently appeared in Reader's Digest. If you are one of the many whose nerves are on edge and who sometimes feel panic and don't know why, this remarkable book was written for you. The reader discovers the simple treatment the author recommends for the dreaded and mystifying experiences known as "nerves" indecision, suggestibility, feelings of panic, sleeplessness, loss of confidence, unreality, depression, and countless other recognized feelings of ill health.

"What Do I Wear This Fall?"

By Rosalyn Abrevaya

For daytime (left), the sweater dress is worn with its pink-leather belt; for evening, add a fur boa, a glitter tank top, and—behold—a new outfit!

The key this fall is not to discard wardrobes but to weed out, add new touches. And it's learning to stretch clothes from a.m. to after-five. What do we mean? Plaids make points by spiking wardrobes with color and pattern. You might add plaid in a shirtdress, like the one on our cover, or make it punctuate in a topper or wrap coat. . . . Angora is coming into prominence. Since its fuzzy yarn tends to add weight, instead of buying a pullover or a dress, get a saucy hat or a fingertip-length cardigan, to wear open or tied over the shoulders. . . . Classic unlined sweater dresses mean cling. But the look is worth it. A simple seamless bra and long-line panty girdle alleviate any excess curves. . . . Pastels are setting another trend. This pale-blue sweater dress (see picture) has detachable satin collar and cuffs. It adds nighttime glamour with a glittery tank top, a rope of pearls and fur boa. [Dress by Brenner Bees in Acrilan acrylic. Tank top by Bobbie Brooks.] . . . Short-sleeve jackets are not meant to expose arms. "Fill-in" is the password, either with a print shirt or turtleneck. The newer jacket comes in two lengths—cropped at the waist or stopping at the hip. There is no problem with skirt lengths—they gravitate around the knee. Note that belts are getting skinnier, bracelets are back. And the perfect suit is soft and unstructured. (See picture.) After five, a slinky black turtleneck, mink hat and clunky bracelets set the tune. [Three-piece ensemble by Fire Islander in Monsanto's Wear-Dated Acrilan doubleknit. Shirt by Lady Manhattan. Shoes by Famolare.] . . . Fun furs in a vest or boa can add dimension to your wardrobe. They are not taboo as long as they are not on the "endangered species" list. (And it's against the law to sell those.) Rabbit, muskrat, mink are examples of furs that are all right to wear. Here, a fur vest is worn with a two-piece dress (see picture) in a wispy print knit, underlying the trend toward soft-fitting clothes. When the layers come off, the look is romantic with pearl-and-gold strands, suede accessories and a fabulous red-fox chubby jacket. [Dress by KII in Acrilan acrylic knit.]

Nighttime (left): A slinky black turtleneck, filling in the soft, unstructured suit, and mink hat set the tune. Daytime (right): Wear a punchy print shirt, ivory and tortoise bangles.

How and When to Ask for a Raise

Should you or shouldn't you ask for a raise? Yes, go ahead if you think you've earned it, but do it the right way. Dr. Ernest Dichter, a recognized expert whose latest book is "Motivating Human Behavior," suggests that you: 1) Be careful not to put the boss in a defensive position. Telling the boss that you realize he might have given you a raise anyway but with his busy schedule it's possible he hasn't gotten around to it, would be an appropriate opening. 2) Then be ready to show through actual facts that you have contributed to the business. 3) However, says Dr. Dichter, you have to look the situation over first from the point of view of timing. If business is off or the boss is under pressure, he's not going to feel generous.—By S. R. Redford

Urinary Infection: The Male Cat's Nemesis

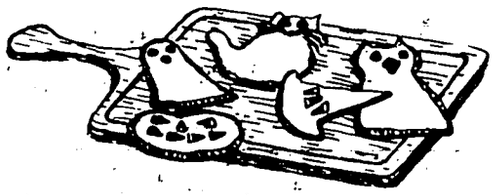

Sudden changes of temperature often trigger urinary infections in male cats, altered or unaltered. If your cat starts to strain in his litter pan, urinate on the rug or other unsuitable spots, cry while attempting to void, or spend a lot of time licking his hind quarters, he is probably suffering from some form of urinary obstruction or bladder inflammation. It can be a very serious ailment. Don't wait; hoping the condition will go away. It is much more likely to get worse. Take Puss to the veterinarian immediately. Antibiotics are of great help. Distilled water is sometimes recommended. Since this pesky disease is caused by a virus, it can reoccur. Surgery is sometimes necessary, but prompt medication can usually prevent this drastic remedy.—By Felicia Ames

People and You

Do You Push People Into Competing With You?

When your friends add something to their home, do they show it to you in a relaxed way? Or do you have the feeling that they're competing with you and your home? How about when they discuss clothes, cars and children? If you often feel that you and your friends are competing, then either you or they are making things competitive. A recent investigation supported by National Institute of Child Health and Human Development funds revealed that when one person is very competitive, he causes those around him to dig in and compete with him. It seems that people who are basically cooperative, react to competitive behavior around them by acting like the competitive people. It does not work the other way.—By Shirley Sloan Fader

Halloween Cookies

This week, Food Editor Marilyn Hansen helps her daughter make Halloween treats because: "When Ava asked if she could have a Halloween party this year, I said, 'If you promise you'll do most of the work!' So Ava did the work—and I supervised!"

MOLASSES CUTOUT COOKIES

1½ cups butter or margarine, softened
1 cup sugar
1 cup light or dark molasses
½ cup boiling water
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon ground cinnamon
2 teaspoons ground ginger
6 cups unsifted all-purpose flour or enriched unbleached flour
1 can (16½ ozs.) prepared vanilla frosting
1 can (16½ ozs.) prepared chocolate frosting
Red and Yellow food coloring
Candy corn, licorice strings, multicolored chocolate candy

1. In large bowl with electric mixer at medium speed, beat butter until smooth; gradually add sugar, beating until light. 2. At low speed add molasses and boiling water. Beat until smooth, scraping side of bowl with rubber scraper. 3. At low speed add salt, cinnamon and ginger. Add flour, 2 cups at a time, stirring with spoon until blended. 4. Turn dough onto sheet of heavy-duty foil. Wrap securely and refrigerate for at least 2 hours. (Or you can make dough 1 day and bake cookies a few days later.) 5. Make cardboard patterns for cookies. Draw jack-o'-lantern, owl, ghost, witch's hat and cat, each about 5 inches tall by 3-4 inches wide.* 6. Roll out ⅓ of dough at a time, ¼-inch thick, on a lightly floured board. A pastry cloth for the board and a stockinette cover for the rolling pin make rolling very easy. 7. Preheat oven to 375°F. Lay patterns on dough and cut out cookies. Reroll any remaining dough. If dough gets too soft, refrigerate. Place cookies on ungreased cookie sheets. Bake 10-12 minutes, or until done. Cool 1 minute, then remove from cookie sheets with spatula to wire rack; cool completely. 8. Decorate cookies with frosting. Color vanilla frosting orange with a few drops of red and yellow food coloring if desired for jack-o'-lantern. Make faces with candy corn, licorice and chocolate candy.

Makes 3 dozen cookies

*To make Halloween letters and the fence, roll dough between hands to about the width of a pencil and make desired shapes.

Jack Lord: "I've Seen It All, I've Done It All"

"I saw only one so-called 'dirty' picture, and that was 'Carnal Knowledge.' I hated it with a vengeance. I considered it exploitation garbage.... I don't believe such things should titillate the audience in the theater. I felt nothing but revulsion toward it."

The hero of "Hawaii Five-O" embraces his wife Marie. Says Jack, "A child would only bring problems."

Family Weekly: Like so many actors, you dabble in painting. Do you do it for your own satisfaction or do you make any money on them?

LORD: I don't think "dabble" is the right word. I'm very serious about it, as I'm very serious about everything I'm doing. As for making money, I've sold $42,000 worth of paintings in the last three months.

FW: Most television actors who do a series are anxious to make films during their summer break. Why haven't you made any?

LORD: I don't believe in killing myself. There is so much work involved in the "Hawaii Five-O" show that I have very little time for my wife Marie. CBS offered me a "Movie of the Week," but I turned it down. What I really want to do next is direct a picture.

FW: You've become the biggest Hawaii booster since the Hula-Hoop. Do you get paid for this?

LORD: I get paid by the privilege of living in the Hawaiian Islands. My enthusiasm is genuine to the point where I recently gave up my Los Angeles home and now consider Hawaii my only place of residence. As for being a salesman for Hawaii, it is absolutely true. I recently did a by-line story for FAMILY WEEKLY called "Let Me Show You the Hawaii I Love." I got a bigger response to this article than to any interview I have ever given. More than 5,000 letters! And you know what was interesting? Not just that people had read it, but that they thanked me for introducing them to the islands. One girl said she was filing the article away for her honeymoon. Scores of soldiers told me that after reading the article they now planned to spend their leaves with their families in Hawaii. I got one letter from an 87-year-old man who said he would fly for the first time because he wants to see the islands. And innumerable requests that I personally show them the islands which, unfortunately, time wouldn't permit.

FW: "Hawaii Five-O" is going into its fifth year. Aren't you getting tired of playing the same character?

LORD: If I thought it would be boring, I'd quit tomorrow. As for doing the part, I believe in an old Oriental philosophy: the NOW. The past is gone, the future never happened. The only important thing is what happens NOW. You savor the moment. That holds true for everything I do. I tell this to Marie all the time: "Let's savor what we have—the sunrises, the sunsets, the meals we have together." And that's the way I feel about my work. What I do today is important. Not what I did yesterday, not what I will do tomorrow. That's the way it is with my relationship with people, too. Not what I hope to do, not what I did—but what I am doing.

FW: You and Marie have been married for 20 years but have no children. Don't you feel a void in your lives?

LORD: On the contrary, it brought us closer together. Some couples need a family, but we're such self-sufficient people, so involved with one another, that a child would only bring problems. If there is anything I regret about my career it is the time it keeps me away from my wife. I often see more of the cast and crew than her. As a result, the time we have together means that much more to both of us.

FW: Have you ever thought of adopting children?

LORD: Even if I felt differently, I wouldn't want children to be brought up under the pressures we live with today. The world is too chaotic, too full of so many evils: horrible drugs, run-down morality, kids having sex too early. A world where the Pill has become supreme. No, I don't want children of my own or adopted children.

"Professionally speaking, it's pretty hard to do a police show without violence.... But, personally, I hate it."

LORD: I saw only one so-called "dirty" picture, and that was "Carnal Knowledge." I hated it with a vengeance. I considered it exploitation garbage. I am not a moralist. I've seen it all. I've done it all. I was a sailor for years. But I don't believe such things should titillate the audience in the theater. I felt

This neat little spice set is made from baby food jars. The covers are cut with a hole cutter using ½" thick cork wall tiles, and decorated with ceramic cabinet knobs. Make as many pieces as you need. A great gift idea.

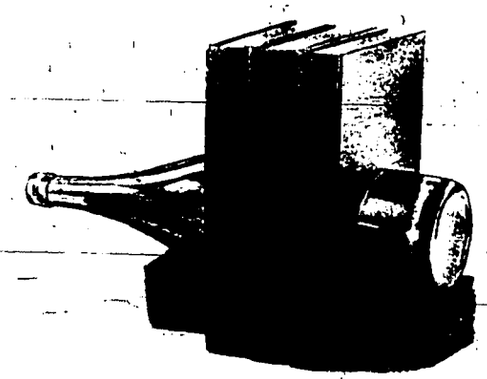

What do you do with those no-deposit, no-return bottles? Simple! Turn them into a great beverage service set, and help the ecology too. We used 10 oz. green glass soda bottles to make this group. With a little experience, you could even use fluted or embossed bottles for a real pop art effect.

Don't just use the bottoms and discard the tops! Look at the lovely vases and bowls you can make. The fruit bowl is made by cementing the top of a large salad oil jar to the bottom of a small jar. We painted the inside of our candlestick with spray enamel in bright orange color.

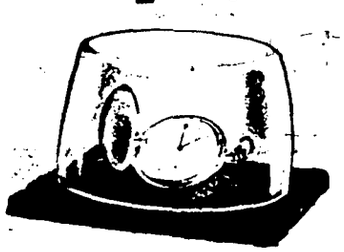

A half gallon apple juice jar easily converts into a beautiful hanging planter. Just hang it with some leather shoe laces or rope, decorate with plants and a toy bird and presto... it's sensational.

Here's a bookend with a startling effect... made from a large soda bottle that appears to pass through the books. The bottle parts are mounted to stacks of cork or wood with epoxy cement.

Now they can eat all the foods they love – including thick steaks, potatoes, bacon, scrambled eggs, fried chicken, even alcoholic drinks. This special, high speed grapefruit diet begins to work within 24 hours –even while sleeping.

Absolutely no medicines. No muscle twitching exercises and no strict starvation diets, either! Instead, dieters can fill up on scrumptious, satisfying meals. Nevertheless they shed excess poundage fast–up to 10 pounds, or more, in 10 days. DOCTORS WARN AGAINST STRICT DIETING

The United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare plus many doctors warn against restricted diets deficient in vitamins, minerals, proteins, fats, and starches. You need all these elements for abundant health. If you eliminate any of them, you get only temporary weight loss. Eventually, your body fights back and ugly fat returns, pound after pound. You enjoy a rich variety of good eating – foods you've always craved for. Just imagine, you can partake of formerly "prohibited" foods, such as ham, bacon, stews, rich casseroles, creamy desserts, etc. You certainly fill up on many delicious foods. Yet, by following this fast and easy 10 day plan, you can catabolize pounds and pounds of accumulated fat out of your body. Right up to 10 pounds (or more) in 10 days!

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Your body burns up fat very much like a car burns gas. This natural process is called CATABOLISM. After years of faulty dieting, excess fats become hardened and lazy–locked up in body tissues. Meantime your body catabolism may also slow down. Results–cholesterol fats may clog up arteries, placing life itself in jeopardy. Fats become lodged in arms, thighs, buttocks, belly, etc. You look older. You also act older.

NOW there is an easy way to wake up that lazy, sleepy catabolism! Within 24 hours, the Super "C" Diet starts to catabolize this dangerous fat out of your body. The unsightly bulges and awkward pot belly vanish. You eat your fill without regrets, yet strange but true, you lose pound after pound–even if you gorge yourself on scrumptious foods. This great diet helps you feel younger . . . act younger . . . and regain that sparkling, youthful look of long ago.

Jack, who is a Capricorn, claims not to believe in astrology. "If I did, I wouldn't have married a Leo!"

nothing but revulsion toward it.

FW: How do you feel about violence?

LORD: Well, professionally speaking, it's pretty hard to do a police show without violence. After all, if there weren't violence we wouldn't need the police. But, personally, I hate it. It never solved anything on either a personal or an international level. Violence simply begets more violence.

FW: Have you ever committed any violence of your own?

LORD: Never. The greatest violence I committed was in college football. But that was part of growing up—an initiation into manhood.

FW: Are there any traits in yourself that you don't like?

LORD: Bluntness. I have a habit of saying what's on my mind. Sometimes I am not very diplomatic about it. Yet I know that to exist in a world like ours, I must practice diplomacy. I must show concern for how other people feel.

FW: Has this trait backfired on you?

LORD: There are a lot of directors who won't work with me any more.

"She asked if I would kiss her. . . . I told her that my wife wouldn't like it."

FW: What impressed you most about your childhood?

LORD: My relationship with my father, which was very exceptional. He worked for a steamship company, and let me go to sea when I was only fourteen. He turned me over to a friend, a sea captain, who took me to South America. My father wanted me to see things, to experience life. But he also inspired me to love art—painting, writing, poetry. He would pay me a penny a line to learn poetry. I still have hundreds of poems tucked away in the back of my mind. The penny was motivation at first, and I did it mostly to please him. But gradually I learned to like it. And every night he would read Dickens to me and gradually I learned to like the classics.

FW: Did you always want to become an actor?

LORD: All of my life I wanted to become a painter, and that's why I wanted to go to sea – to get material for painting.

FW: Some people think you take yourself too seriously. Do you?

LORD: If I don't, no one else will. I can't see myself going through life flighty. I take marriage seriously. I take relationships with people seriously. I take business seriously. I take life seriously. I am serious by nature. I'm also tenacious, and loyal. I am a Capricorn.

FW: That means you believe in astrology?

LORD: If I did, I wouldn't have married a Leo! Let's say I am amused by it.

This...is the L&M moment.

RICH, RICH L&M

Warning: The Surgeon General Has Determined That Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Your Health.

Lord's first love was never acting. "All of my life," he says, "I wanted to become a painter."

FW: What has been your most embarrassing moment on your television show?

LORD: I worked on "Hotel Street" one day. When I came back to my dressing room for lunch, I found a naked girl on my bed. And just what do you say to a naked lady?

FW: What did you say?

LORD: "What are you doing here!?"

FW: And what did she say?

LORD: "I wanted to see you."

FW: And what did you say then?

LORD: I don't remember. But then she asked if I would kiss her, and I told her that my wife wouldn't like it. So she got up, put her clothes on, asked if she could have my picture, and left.

FW: You have to do a lot of flying to get to the mainland, and in helicopters for the show. Are you ever worried?

LORD: I am not concerned with negatives. I like to think positive. You can say your glass is half-empty, or you can say it is half-full. To me, it is always half-full.

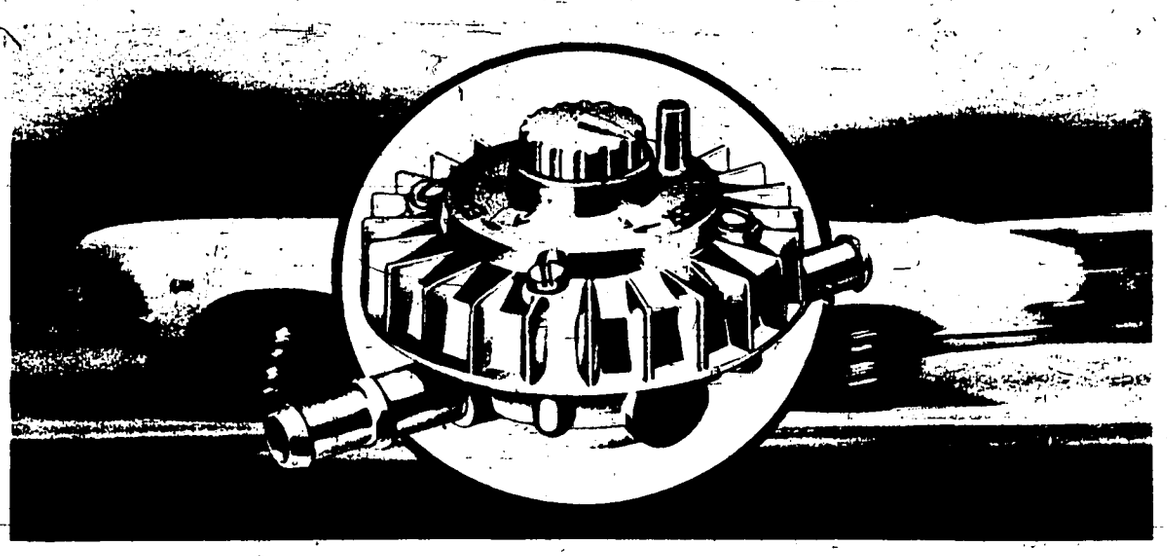

SAVES UP TO 2 GALLONS OF GAS EVERY HOUR!

. And Gives You Up To 25% More Horsepower Doing It!

How? By eliminating "Fuel-Pump Slop-Over"! And thus feeding your car up to 25% LESS gas (as much as two gallons an hour in heavy stop-and-go driving) . . . at the same exact time that it gives you up to 25% MORE Horsepower doing it! Like this . . .

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO YOU? Just this—

- Up to 8 miles MORE per gallon—INSTANTLY!
- Jackrabbit starts—INSTANTLY!
- Skyrocket passing power—INSTANTLY!
- Up to 10 miles more per hour top speed—INSTANTLY!
- And up to $100 a year savings on your repair bills alone—INSTANTLY . . . and for as long as you drive that car!

What does it cost you? Less than a new set of spark plugs! Less than five cents for every dollar you can save on gas bills THIS YEAR ALONE!

And how does it work? As simple as this—

Stops Your Fuel-Pump From Over-Feeding Your Engine One Minute . . . And Starving It The Next!

Your car, like every other car, stores its gasoline in a gas tank . . . and then draws that gas out of that tank and feeds it to your engine with a fuel pump. This fuel pump was invented over fifty years ago! It is a mechanical idiot! It has no brain—just a pump! And therefore, it always feeds your engine THE SAME EXACT AMOUNT OF GASOLINE, whether you're stopped dead in traffic . . . or spurting past another car at eighty miles an hour!

Think about it for a moment! The way gas is fed into your engine today, when you're pulled up for a light your engine is being flooded with gas that it can't possibly burn! (That's why stop-and-go driving is so incredibly expensive—because most of your gas goes right out the tailpipe.) Then when you pick up speed again to turn onto a highway, your engine is still wasting a little less gas at 20 miles an hour . . . wasting a little less gas at 30 miles an hour . . . and finally getting just the right amount of gas for top performance at about 40 or 50 miles an hour!

And then, if you go over 50 miles an hour . . . if you really want to zoom away at 60, 70 or 80 . . . or if you need "instant-muscle" to flash away from another car on a curve . . . then your "idiot fuel pump" STILL gives you the same exact amount of gas it fed you when you were going 40 miles an hour LESS—and leaves you puffing and puffing with your neck stuck out, as though that car was 20 years old and carrying a ton of cement!

IT COULD COST YOU YOUR LIFE ON A BAD CURVE! IT DOES COST YOU UP TO $100 A YEAR ON WASTED GAS ALONE! AND IT CAN ALL BE CORRECTED—IN JUST FIVE MINUTES WITH A SCREWDRIVER—LIKE THIS . . .

Now, just picture the startling difference with this ED ALMQUIST MINI-INJECTOR on your engine—

As you can see by the photo above, the MINI-INJECTOR is small enough to hold in your hand. It slips right on to your engine, between the fuel pump and the carburetor. A 12-year-old boy can put it on perfectly, using nothing more than a screwdriver, even if he never opened the hood before. But once he's done . . . and once you switch on that engine again . . . you're going to HEAR the difference—and FEEL the difference—from the very first second that engine ROARS to life again.

Yes! ROARS to life again! Because this is a NEW TYPE OF ENGINE you're driving with from now on! An engine that operates at absolute top gas-power every single driving second! THAT DOESN'T GET ONE DROP OF GAS IT DOESN'T NEED . . . AND DOESN'T WASTE ONE OUNCE OF POWER THAT IT CAN DELIVER TO YOUR WHEELS!

And this fact shows up for you the instant you start your car! Because—even on freezing mornings—your key is hardly in the switch before that engine is purring with power! Why? Because now there's no gas-flood at all. The walls of that cold engine aren't being choked up with raw gas that keeps the spark from catching fire . . . and then drains out into your tailpipe, exactly as though you poured it right on the ground!

Now at this time—YOUR ENGINE ITSELF SIGNALS TO THE MINI-INJECTOR EXACTLY HOW MUCH GAS IT NEEDS TO START! And the MINI-INJECTOR tells the fuel pump to deliver JUST THAT AMOUNT OF GAS, AND NOT ONE DROP MORE!

You're off in less time than it takes a second passenger to close the door! And you're about to take the most thrilling ride of your entire driving life!

You Would Never Have Believed That Your Engine Could Deliver Power Like This! AND ALL AT A SAVING OF ONE GALLON OUT OF EVERY FIVE!

Now pull into the street and start cruising up to the first traffic light. You'll notice instantly that your foot sits lighter on the pedal . . . that your engine sounds silken-smooth . . . that it's practically floating up to that light, even though it was stone-cold only a few short seconds ago.

There's no coughing, or stalling or bucking—even in those first few cold minutes. And when you pull up to the light, and put your foot on the brake, your engine will tone right down to a contented purr. It will be quieter than you've ever heard it before, without the slightest shiver in the rest of the car itself. Because now that engine is NOT trying to spit out excess gas! Not trying to jerk away from your brake! NOT letting you know every waiting second that you're pouring money out of its tailpipe!

Now the light changes to green. Wait a second, and then carefully place your foot back on the gas pedal. Make sure to give it LESS pressure—THIS TIME—than you ever did before! BECAUSE THAT FOOT IS GOING TO GIVE YOU MORE BLAST-OFF POWER FROM THAT CAR THAN YOU'VE EVER KNOWN BEFORE! AND YOU'RE GOING TO HAVE TO SPEND A DAY OR TWO GETTING USED TO IT!

Prove It At The Lights! Prove It On The Hills! PROVE IT ON THE HIGHWAY—BY FLOATING RIGHT PAST OTHER CARS WHEN YOU WANT TO!

From that moment on, driving becomes a totally new experience for you! Because your car suddenly acts like an athlete—instead of a fat overfed fool!

Now you're not fouling that car with too much gas 80 per cent of the time! Now you're not splashing your plugs . . . eating away your valves . . . corroding your cylinders . . . or draining power out of your engine for every mile you drive!

Now, instead, for perhaps the first time in your life, you are sitting behind the kind of lean, tough, instant-response engine that only sports-car drivers knew before! An engine that flattens hills right down at the merest touch of your foot! That takes off screaming at the lights whenever you want to . . . leaves other cars sitting behind you, choking in your dust!

An engine that simply glides past other cars at 70 . . . 80 . . . 90 miles an hour—whenever you want to walk away from them! And that has so much reserve power left that you KNOW that there's no jam you can get into on the highway that it can't zoom you right out of at the lightest touch of your foot!

And—most important of all—STILL USING EVERY THRILL-PACKED SECOND ONLY THE EXACT AMOUNT OF GAS THAT IT NEEDS AT THAT INSTANT—AND NOT ONE SINGLE DROP MORE! So that the gas savings pile up—day after day . . . week after week . . . month after month! Till you've put a $20 bill back in your pocket . . . a $50 bill back in your pocket . . . a $100 bill back in your pocket—all from a simple little "engine-brain" that costs you originally less than a single set of spark plugs!

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS!

Here's how it saves you up to one gallon out of every five—at the same time that it gives you the most power-packed ride of your life!

Think of this MINI-INJECTOR as having two main parts. The first is a "Miniature brain." And the second is an extra fuel pump connected right on to the brain.

Now, what happens when you put this MINI-INJECTOR onto your car is this: The miniature brain automatically senses the exact amount of gas your engine needs at every driving second (it does this by measuring the vacuum pressure within that engine from second to second).

Your fuel pump, on the other hand, has no such measuring device. So it never knows how much gas your engine really needs. So it simply delivers the same amount of gas to that engine, no matter how hard, or how easy that engine is working!

But now MINI-INJECTOR Takes over! And if your fuel pump is delivering TOO MUCH gas to that engine, MINI-INJECTOR blocks that extra gas with its own fuel pump, sends it back and holds it under compression until your carburetor calls for more gas!

Or, when your fuel pump is delivering TOO LITTLE gas to your engine (for example, when it's a life-or-death case of passing another car on a curve), MINI-INJECTOR skyrockets its own fuel pump into action, and shoots in that extra gas your engine needs. THE VERY SECOND IT NEEDS IT!

So you save the money you want—and you get the power you need—EVERY MINUTE YOU DRIVE!

Prove Every Word Of It At Our Risk! Far More Power On Far Less Gas From The Very First Second—Or We Send Every Cent Of Your Money Back!

And what's the cost for all this performance and all these savings? Only $11.98 complete—less than this MINI-INJECTOR can save you in your very first month!

And you try it entirely at our risk! Just slip it on, and measure the results! Either you're thrilled from the very first take-off—or every cent of your money back!

No ifs, ands or buts! It works for YOU, or it costs you nothing! Why not send in the No-Risk Coupon today!

Are You Aware of Your True Self?

People Quiz

True or False: Your sense of personal identity is easy to measure. (See number 2.)

By John E. Gibson

As one leading psychiatrist observes: "The most mysterious and obscure thing in the universe is that which is closest to us—the Self." It goes without saying that the better a man knows himself, the better he can develop his innate talents and abilities. In this quiz, we take a look at the situation.

TRUE OR FALSE?

1. It's hard to tell to what extent you are realizing your talents and abilities and expressing them fully.
2. Your sense of personal identity is easy to measure.
3. Introverts know themselves better and have better insight into themselves than extroverts do.

ANSWERS

1. False. Psychologist Abraham H. Maslow's studies provide an excellent yardstick for self-measurement in this department. He found that truly self-actualizing people – those who have developed their abilities and capacities and are expressing them—"have a feeling of belongingness and rootedness, they are satisfied with their love needs, they have status and place in life and respect from other people, and they have a reasonable feeling of self respect." To the extent you have achieved this, you are realizing your full potential.
2. True – according to the findings of psychologists James F. T. Bugental and Seymour L. Zelen, which form the basis for an established technique in exploring human personality. Briefly, in simplified form, this is how it works. Just ask yourself this question: "Who am I?", and write down the first thing that occurs to you – anything you wish. If your answer to the question is "Why, I'm me," or "Myself," or "John Jones," this indicates that you do have a strong sense of personal identity. However, if you answer "I'm a lawyer," or "A banker," or "A housewife," this strongly suggests that your personality is being submerged by your occupation—that you think of yourself as what you do, not who you are. If you answer with a nonpersonal description of yourself, such as "I'm a man," or "I'm a girl," or "I'm just a human being," etc., this indicates that you are lacking in a strong sense of identity.
3. True. The introvert has the edge here. He is more self-aware—because his thoughts tend to focus inward, on himself – than the extrovert, who is more interested in other people and in things outside himself. However, the introvert does not always make constructive use of his self-knowledge, for he lacks the extrovert's capacity for translating his thoughts into action. And thought without action is likely to be unproductive and lead nowhere.

NEW! Powerful Organic Face Mask

DRAWS BLACKHEADS RIGHT OUT OF YOUR PORES!

SEE PORES UNCLOG! SEE BLACKHEADS, HARDENED OILS, IMBEDDED DIRT AND TINY FACIAL HAIRS PEEL AWAY RIGHT BEFORE YOUR EYES!

● The most fabulous new cosmetic development in years! An incredible new organic face mask that really works . . . that really draws blackheads, hardened oils, tiny facial hairs and imbedded dirt right out of your pores safely, quickly, easily, at once, right before your eyes!

And best of all, it's organic! Contains no harsh chemicals, can't hurt even the tenderest skin because it's made with pure, organic materials!

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

No squeezing, no picking and therefore no bruises, scars or danger of spreading infection!

You simply apply Organic Masque to your face. Then go about your business. Do whatever you have to do . . . your hair, your nails, your housework, reading . . . in about fifteen minutes or so Organic Masque becomes firm and dry to the touch. Then simply peel it off! It sticks so tightly it actually hurts a bit coming off, but with it comes such an amazing array of matter, you'll hardly believe your eyes!

Look closely and you'll see blackheads, bits of hardened oil, imbedded dirt, old make-up, even facial hairs glued firmly to that mask!

Safely, surely, without squeezing, without popping, you have eased away the dirt, the grime, the filth that has been blocking your pores and making your face susceptible to infection!

This has to be the most fantastic cosmetic product you ever used in your life because you see it work immediately!

If you are bothered with blackheads, you have to have Organic Masque because it helps to get rid of them the safe, easier way! If you have an oily complexion, you need Organic Masque because it helps to remove hardened oils and other matter which is blocking your pores.

Even if you have a lovely complexion, you need Organic Masque because it cleanses your skin like nothing in this world possibly can, and that's a positive fact backed by a firm, Money-Back Guarantee!

THE MOST UNBELIEVABLE PHOTOGRAPH YOU HAVE EVER SEEN IN YOUR LIFE and yet it is absolutely true . . .

This is an unretouched photograph, greatly magnified, of a small section of Organic Masque which had just been removed from the face of a woman with an average complexion. This woman had no visible blackheads, no facial blemishes—not even oily skin—and yet the incredible amount of debris clinging to that section of masque came from her face! Those stump-like objects are blackheads, cores of hardened oil, bits of dirt and even tiny facial hairs which were pulled from her pores with just one application of Organic Masque.

If other facial masques could begin to have this deep-down cleansing action they'd show you photos like this too. The fact that they don't is an indication that they can't perform the way Organic Masque does!

NO RISK OFFER!

Send for Organic Masque now. When it arrives, try it immediately! If Organic Masque doesn't remove blackheads, hardened oils and other pore-clogging, complexion-ruining filth the very first time you use it, don't keep it! Return the unused portion and get your money back immediately and without question! Organic Masque has to be every bit as wonderful as we claim it is, or you pay nothing! Why not send now?

1. This is a cross-section view of the average skin. Note how the pores are clogged with hardened oil and blackheads.

2. When Organic Masque is brushed on, it contacts the foreign matter in each pore . . . and sticks to it like glue!

3. As Organic Masque is removed, the blackheads, etc. come along with it. Pores are unclogged and skin is cleaner!

AN IMPORTANT NOTE . . .

This is an era of high-pressure advertising. You have read so many promises, so many exaggerated claims for so many products—and been disappointed so many times—that you can't help but be skeptical, and certainly we don't blame you! The shame of it is that when a product that really works comes along . . . a product that really does everything you want it to, there is just no way to really convince you. It's like the boy who cried wolf so many times that when a real wolf showed up, no one believed him.

If we could demonstrate this product for you . . . If we could show you, with your own eyes, and ideally on your own face, the incredible things Organic Masque does, we know you would be just as impressed as we are. But how can we do it with mere words?

What, then, shall we do? The fairest thing we can think of is to simply say, order us half way. Try it in your own home entirely at our risk. Then you be the judge. If Organic Masque works the way we say it does, you will be more than delighted and you will never want to be without it again! On the other hand, if you are disappointed, you send the package back to us and we send you an instant refund, no questions asked! What could be fairer than that?

This child has a good home, nice clothes, a loving mother—and Pin-Worms!

A tormenting itch in the rectal area, nose-picking and fidgeting are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms. It can happen to anyone in any family—young or old, rich or poor. It's so common, medical authorities say that 1 out of 3 children examined, and many parents, have Pin-Worms without knowing it. And because Pin-Worms bring on itching and fidgeting, they can distract children and affect their school work!

What's more, Pin-Worms are highly contagious, so they can spread from person to person, until the whole family is infected.

What can you do about it? Fortunately there is an easy-to-take medication that gets rid of Pin-Worms. It's called Jayne's® P-W® tablets. Ask your pharmacist. He'll tell you that Jayne's P-W tablets are specially formulated with an effective medical ingredient that gets Pin-Worms out of your system. For a free informative pamphlet giving medical facts about Pin-Worms, send name and address to Jayne's P-W, Dept. A3, Box 400, New York, N.Y. 10016.

A Reader's Remembrance

The Day I Met Perry Como

Pictorial Parade

"I can still remember the lake people commenting, 'This fellow will give Bing a run for his money—if he has the gumption to stick with it.'"

Back in 1931—I was only a small child at the time—my family rented a summer cottage at Conneaut Lake, Pa. We frequently ate at the Conneaut Lake Park Hotel because, according to my parents, the food was excellent, and they enjoyed the dinner-hour dance music of Freddy Carlone's orchestra.

One of the band's chief attractions was a young singer who specialized in "crooning." Bing Crosby was then the top crooner, and I can still remember many of the lake people listening to the youngster sing (he couldn't have been more than 18) and commenting, "This fellow will give Bing a run for his money—if he has the gumption to stick with it." The reason they might have had doubts was that the boy had a likable, easygoing poise that made him seem a bit, well, lethargic.

Often the young man would visit our table and talk with my parents. After dinner, he usually invited me to the edge of the bandstand, where I sat on his ice-cream-parlor chair (it was sort of a trademark of his act) while he sang.

As the summer wore on, I developed a regular "crush" on the young singer. Was I the envy of the sandbox set on those days he'd join us at the beach and romp with me!

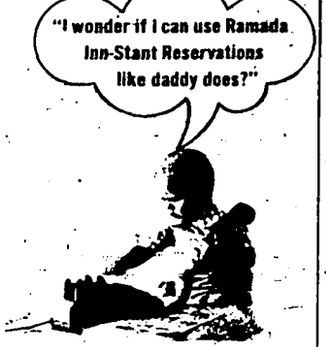

The years passed, and I soon forgot all about that summer at Conneaut Lake. Then, one day in the early 1940's, I turned our radio up to "teenage" volume to hear a new smash hit called "Prisoner of Love." It was being sung by a bobby-sox sensation named Perry Como. I had never seen his picture, but just the sound of his voice made me swoon all over.

My mother came in, turned the loudness down, and said, "Norma, just because he used to be your boyfriend, you needn't bring down the walls!"

Boyfriend? Me? Perry Como? And then it all came back. The young man who sang to me on the ice-cream-parlor chair . . . those days we spent on the beach . . . that relaxed, boy-next-door manner.

Although the sand castles we built together quickly dissolved into the lake, and many of the songs have faded, my childhood memories of that likable young man, who the adults said seemed to lack "gumption," will remain till the day I die.

The Diet Watch

Rules for Dieting on Auto Trips

"Ravenously" hungry is the way lots of people get on an automobile trip, and by the time they get to a roadside diner or other possible eating place, they're ready to devour the greasiest, highest calorie whatever-is-available, just to quell hunger pangs. Some simple rules to help the dieter on an auto trip: First, don't start out without breakfast on the premise that you'll "eat on the road," since between your low-blood-sugar fatigue and your hunger, you'll eat the whatever-is-available we mentioned; and if a pizza stand is all that's in sight after 100 miles, you may end up eating guess-what for breakfast (at 185 calories or more a slice). It's also smart to keep emergency snacks in the car, to take the edge off your appetite before other wayside meals, too. A plastic container of crackers is ideal; so is non-drip fruit like apples (70 calories). Good, too, is a Thermos or jug of iced or hot tea or coffee (with fake sweetener). A couple of crackers and a few sips of tea work near-magic at tempering hunger pangs.—By Harriet LaBarre

Sports Mini-Profile

LEN DAWSON, Quarterback:

The Scandal That Almost Wrecked His Life

Len Dawson, the 37-year-old field general of the Kansas City Chiefs, is proving that pro quarterbacks, like old wine, improve with age. He had one of his best seasons last year, his 15th as a pro, when he led the Chiefs to the championship of the western division of the American Football Conference and completed passes for gains of 2,504 yards, second highest total in the AFC. He's hoping to bring Kansas City another Super Bowl championship this year as he did in 1970, when he directed his team to a startling upset of the Minnesota Vikings. . . . Dawson, known as the "Iceman" for his coolness, was troubled by tendonitis early last season, and some said his arm was dead. It wasn't —he threw one crucial touchdown pass after another. His most severe ordeal came during the Chiefs' Super Bowl year. He injured his knee early in the season. Surgery was advised. But he gambled that he could just rest the knee for several games and come back for the homestretch drive. The gamble paid off. But then, five days before the Super Bowl game, big headlines linked him to a gambling investigation. "I felt like a criminal," he recalls, "even though I was entirely innocent. The torment was unbearable. I couldn't sleep or eat and I didn't know if I'd be allowed to play in the biggest game of my life." As it turned out, the investigation concerned a man named Donald Dawson. Len was completely cleared before the big game, and then went on to win it. . . . A native of Alliance, Ohio, Dawson was an All-America quarterback at Purdue and led the Big Ten in total offense three straight years. His coach, Hank Stram, calls him "the most accurate passer in pro football." Although he's cool and taciturn on the field, he's much more expansive off it and conducts a popular sports show on Kansas City TV and radio. Dawson is married and the father of two. —By Barry Abramson

Amazing! Scientific! Doctor-Discovered, Doctor-Proved Regimen

Safely, Pleasantly, Easily or YOU PAY NOTHING!

At last! The help you've waited for! No more doing without all the appetizing foods you love to eat! No more self-torture because everything you eat seems to run to fat!

Now you can forget that forever-hungry feeling as though it never existed . . . forget that you ever worried about losing excess weight...forget that you ever were fat!

Because now you can eat that ugly fat away! . . . Eat off those excess pounds . . . Actually eat yourself slimmer and trimmer than you ever dreamed possible with the aid of one of the most fantastic reducing regimens ever conceived!

It's amazing, astounding, like a wonderful dream come true! And all so incredibly easy, all so delightfully pleasant, because instead of suffering those awful hungry moments, instead of giving up all the foods you love so well, you actually enjoy fabulous gourmet dishes while your weight is coming off! You actually dine on luscious foods you love to eat while you get slimmer, slimmer, slimmer; You actually pamper yourself with satisfying, super-delicious desserts and between-meal snacks while ugly pounds vanish! Sounds too wonderful to be true and yet it can actually happen to you!

JUST PICTURE THIS

You get up in the morning, take one Eat-Well Regimen dietary supplement capsule and that's all the medication you take all day long! Then you settle down to 3 hearty meals, and between-meal snacks too, if you like! . . . Enjoy roasts, chops, ham, bacon, eggs, bread and plenty of butter, seafood, stews, cheese, mayonnaise, salad and dressing, cream in your coffee or tea—food you love to eat — and all the while, this amazing regimen helps your body burn off those ugly, crippling, health-destroying, figure-marring pounds of fatty tissue!

Actual clinical tests conducted by doctors show substantial losses week after week after week on Eat-Well type regimens. The actual amount you lose depends, of course, on how overweight you are, and on your particular physiology, but it's all so safe, so easy, you'll hardly believe it!

You'll gasp in amazement, stare at yourself in disbelief as day after day you get slimmer, trimmer, more attractive! As day after day you come closer and closer to the safe, normal weight you should be!

NO BRUTAL EXERCISE

Think about it for a moment! You don't take dangerous drugs. You don't go on a starvation diet. You don't strain your heart with brutal exercise, and you don't pour money down the drain on so-called slenderizing massages!

What do you do? You sleep, work, play just like any of your thin friends. You don't starve yourself. You don't go on fad diets. To lose weight, you simply follow the Eat-Well Regimen which consists of two parts.

EAT LUSCIOUS FOODS

First, you take just one single Eat-Well dietary supplement capsule every day. Just one. That's all! And second, you "diet" by eating lots of luscious foods you love — three hearty meals and between-meal snacks—as prescribed by the Eat-Well Regimen. It's just as simple as that, and even though this regimen is so pleasant and so satisfying, your body does melt away ugly pounds of fat day by day, steadily, pleasantly, safely!

PROVED BY DOCTORS

Perhaps this all sounds too wonderful-to be true! Perhaps you are wondering how Eat-Well Regimen can perform these seeming miracles when other products that promised so much failed. It's really quite simple. The Eat-Well Regimen is based on a scientific principle which is not the creation of a dietician or a so-called "reducing expert." Eat-Well Regimen is based on a proven medical principle that has been written up by doctors in books and it appears in medical journals. It has been tried and tested and used by countless doctors throughout the world. It is safe and it is effective.

When doctors tested this virtually identical regimen on overweight persons who suffered the usual agonies of ordinary reducing methods, they found that in practically every case, substantial losses were noted! (Ask your doctor.)

Patients lost pound after pound of ugly fat safely, surely and above all, pleasantly! And most important, they lost that weight without suffering constant pangs of hunger, and without depriving themselves of luscious, nourishing food! They simply followed the Eat-Well Regimen and that made the difference.

In short, they lived like human beings! While they ate three delicious meals a day, they were losing weight! While they were enjoying mouth-watering chops, steaks, juicy roasts, sea food, whipped cream, cheeses, fried favorites and all the rest, off came ugly pounds!

With less work, less discomfort, than they ever imagined possible, they ate their fat away! . . . Ate off pounds that had made them miserable for years!

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU

After all the products you've tried . . . after all the suffering you've done . . . after all the tortures you've subjected yourself to . . . for year after weary year, and now it's all over!

The practical, intelligent method you secretly prayed for is actually here! This fabulous method, so safe, so easy, so astonishingly effective, is yours to try and to prove to your own satisfaction, without one penny's risk or obligation!

Think of what this can mean to you! Can you imagine the glorious feeling when you live like other people live, eat foods you like without worrying, without feeling guilty, without feeling afraid? The Eat-Well Regimen can do that for you!

Perhaps you have tried other products and been disappointed. Perhaps you have gone so far as to promise yourself that you would never try another reducing product again! . . . But stop and think for a moment . . .

You've tried so often in the past, haven't you? Wouldn't it be foolish to quit now, just a few steps short of your goal? Wouldn't it be silly to give up now, when the method you have waited for is available to you? Why not try Eat-Well Regimen? If not for your sake, for the sake of those you love.

"FLIRTER" NICOLETTE
A new self at sea

Why would anyone want to cross the Atlantic alone, nonstop, in a small boat? The first woman who did it says: "I was going to flirt with death, with insanity, with physical suffering. I was going to be careless with my body and mind. And I was going to be ruthless with the emotions of those who cared about me. Why? . . . I wanted to do something that would not only give me intrinsic pleasure but would also impress people, and so bring in its wake further opportunities to change my whole way of life. When I set sail from Milford Haven for America I took along with me the hope that when I had crossed the ocean I would also have crossed the threshold of a new world for myself which would hold the fulfillment of my dreams of fame." From "When I Put Out to Sea," by Nicolette Milnes Walker (Stein and Day, $6.95).

MR. MOORE, TV's "SAINT"
Palm reading by mail

Have your palm read without showing anybody your hand? Roger Moore, the "Saint," inked his palms and sent the prints to the Society for the Study of Physiological Patterns in London. The society, whose "readers" had no idea whose prints they were looking at, amazed Moore with the accuracy of their report. "There are some things that they just couldn't have guessed—it's almost uncanny," he said. Moore didn't say whether the report told him he would be playing James Bond in the next Bond movie. He will be.

Donate blood to yourself: It beats getting blood from other people, says a team of surgeons in Denver. For nonemergency operations they begin taking blood from the patient ten days before he's scheduled for an operation, and then give the same blood back to him during surgery. Reason? It cuts down on the spread of blood diseases from donors to recipients. Unused blood is donated to the community blood bank and stored for surgical cases that can't be put off for ten days.

A rock worth $3 million, and maybe as much as $14 million: Picked up by a workman last Valentine's Day in an African mine, the "rock" in question is a half-pound, 968.8-carat, big-as-a-hen's-egg diamond called the Star of Sierra Leone. It's the world's largest uncut diamond, and the third biggest ever. Sierra Leone High Commissioner Dr. Davidson Nichol is busy showing the gem to bidders in London. Experts say the Star could easily double in value after it's cut and made into fabulous jewelry. Are you listening, Liz and Jackie?

ARMOUR'S ARMOURY

WAIT OFF MY MIND

Well-named, the doctor's waiting room,
Where it's the patient's fate
To wait and wait and wait and wait
And then to wait and wait.

Where is the doctor? Where is he
Who said to come at four?
The patient waits and waits and waits
And then he waits some more.

He gets his well-earned fee.
What of the patient patient, though?
The patient's time is free.

Two young volunteers were being interviewed for the Navy and were asked, "Do you know how to swim?"

They both looked puzzled and one of them replied, "What's the matter? Aren't there enough ships?"

After convincing their little boy that a brother or sister would be nice to have around, my brother and his wife asked him to pray for one.

To everyone's surprise, twins were born—a boy and a girl. When he was shown the twins, the boy grinned and said to his father, "Aren't you glad I stopped praying when I did?"

Our relatives are visiting. It is not that we don't like to see them; rather, they like to see us longer.

To Liza Minnelli
Dear Liza:

I saw you in your new picture last night and WOW, was that dress cut low. Please tell me, was that a strapless evening gown you were wearing or a gownless evening strap?
